The Kentucky State Corrections Commission met on May 29, 2020, and awarded ten (10) grants for Fiscal Year 2021.

The 24th Judicial Community Corrections Program is a home incarceration program using a community based alternative to incarceration. They also provide random drug testing to clients as many present substance abuse issues.

The Christian County Fiscal Court (3rd Judicial Circuit) provides alternatives to incarceration utilizing electronic monitoring and home incarceration, targeting substance abuse offenders through drug screens and referrals to substance abuse counseling.

The Chrysalis House is a residential substance abuse disorder treatment program for women. Grant funds provide alcohol and drug screening services.

Involvement, Inc. (51st Judicial District) provides home incarceration and electronic monitoring. The program provides drug screening for program participants and indigent court defendants, as well as alternative sanctions for drug court participants.

The Hardin County Mental Health Court is conducted through the 9th Judicial Circuit and operates through Communicare, Inc. The program provides individual counseling, drug education, AA/NA classes, Moral Reconciliation Therapy, and peer support specialists.

The Nelson County Mental Health Court is conducted through the 10th Judicial Circuit and operates through Communicare, Inc. The program provides individual counseling, drug education, AA/NA classes, Moral Reconation Therapy, and peer support specialists.

The Marion & Washington Counties Mental Health Courts operate in same manner as Hardin County and Nelson County Mental Health Courts through Communicare, Inc. Mental health treatment is provided to felony participants who are referred by the 11th Circuit Judge.

The Daviess County Mental Health Program (6th Judicial Circuit) is geared towards identifying eligible felony defendants for access to in-patient or out-patient treatment, alternative to detention placements, individualized case management, wrap around services, and safe housing.

The Kenton County Electronic Monitoring/Home Incarceration Program (16th Judicial Circuit) works in conjunction with the Kenton County Detention Center. It includes home incarceration and electronic monitoring as an alternative to incarceration.

The Northern Kentucky Regional Mental Health Court (NKRMMC) encompasses Boone, Kenton, and Campbell Counties. The program provides assessment and diagnosis of mental illness, counseling, intensive case management, and linkage to services such as emergency housing and employment assistance.

Attached are the program results for all ten (10) programs for FY2021. No pilot projects were funded in FY2021, therefore no performance incentive funding was appropriated under KRS 196.731.
