Re: Office of the Attorney General – FY2022 expert witness expenditure report

Dear Members of the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue:

The executive branch budget bill, passed during the 2021 Regular Session of the General Assembly, provides that “[i]n addition to such funds as may be appropriated, the Office of the Attorney General may request from the Finance and Administration Cabinet, as a necessary government expense, such funds as may be necessary for expert witnesses.” 2021RS HB 192 Part I §19(2). Expenditures under this subsection must “be reported to the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue by August 1 of each year.” Id.

As required by the executive branch budget bill, the Office of the Attorney General provides the enclosed spreadsheet. The spreadsheet documents the expenditures made under Part I §19(2) of the executive branch budget bill in FY 2021, which covers the period between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022.
