We have examined Casey County Fiscal Court's compliance with the compliance requirements "activities allowed or unallowed" and "allowable cost/cost principles" (the specified requirements) as described in Part IV "Requirements for an Alternative Compliance Examination Engagement for Recipients That Would Otherwise be Required to Undergo a Single Audit or Program-Specific Audit as a Result of Receiving Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds" of the CSLFRF section of the 2022 OMB Compliance Supplement (referred to herein as "Requirements for an Alternative CSLFRF Compliance Examination Engagement") during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022. Management of the Casey County Fiscal Court is responsible for the Casey County Fiscal Court's compliance with the specified requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Casey County Fiscal Court's compliance with the specified requirements based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the AICPA; the standards applicable to attestation engagements contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and in the "Requirements for an Alternative CSLFRF Compliance Examination Engagement." Those standards and requirements require that we plan and perform the examination to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Casey County Fiscal Court complied, in all material respects, with the specified requirements referenced above. An examination involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about whether the Casey County Fiscal Court complied with the specified requirements. The nature, timing, and extent of the procedures selected depend on our judgment, including an assessment of the risks of material noncompliance, whether due to fraud or error. We are required to be independent and meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with relevant ethical requirements relating to the engagement.

Our examination does not provide a legal determination on Casey County Fiscal Court's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, the Casey County Fiscal Court complied, in all material respects, with the specified requirements referenced above during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022.

The Honorable Andy Beshear, Governor
