Robocall Consumer Tools and Information

AT&T launched a consumer education website with information on fraud protection and cybersecurity.

http://about.att.com/sites/cybersecurity

AT&T Call Protect for Mobility (for eligible smartphones in HD Voice) – Blocks illegal robocalls and labels other calls (e.g., Telemarketing) so consumers have more information to decide whether to answer the call.

https://www.att.com/features/security-apps.html

AT&T Digital Call Protect (for IP wireline phones) - Blocks illegal robocalls and labels other calls (e.g., Telemarketing) so consumers have more information to decide whether to answer the call.

https://www.att.com/global-search/search?catField=Shop&group=false&q=AT%26T+call+protect&autoSuggest=true&%3Acq_csrf_token=undefined

AT&T Smart Call Blocker phones work with any landline voice service and on all wireline networks, including legacy TDM-based telephone service, for any consumer with caller ID. AT&T Smart Call Blocker phones range in price from $59.95 to $119.95 and are manufactured by VTech. The phone screens incoming calls from telephone numbers not included on the consumer's list of trusted telephone numbers.

https://telephones.att.com/telephones/cordless-telephones/smart-call-blocker

AT&T provides consumers information on how to report fraud:

http://about.att.com/sites/cybersecurity/resources/contact

FCC Website – Call Blocking Resources

https://www.fcc.gov/consumers/guides/stop-unwanted-calls-and-texts

FTC Website on Robocalls and the Do-not-call Registry

https://www.ftc.gov/news-events/media-resources/do-not-call-registry/robocalls