

KENTUCKY DOUBLE DOLLARS

Brittany Steffey, Program Coordinator
brittany@cfaky.org

Kentucky Double Dollars is a partnership between Community Farm Alliance and Bluegrass Farm-to-Table. The program is intended to increase access to fresh, healthy local food for low-income populations while also increasing the sales and incomes of Kentucky farmers.

 Participating
 Counties

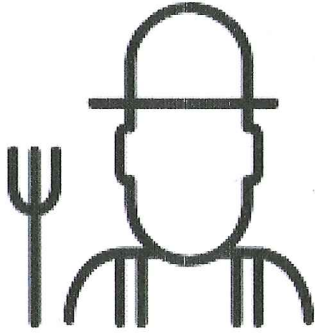

Kentucky Double Dollars offers financial incentives for individuals participating in SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program), WIC (Women, Infants, & Children), and SFMNP (Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program) to purchase Kentucky-grown produce and products at participating farmers' markets, Fresh Stop Markets, and retail sites. Kentucky Double Dollars offers two main programs, the Kentucky-grown Fruit & Vegetable program and the Kentucky-raised Meat, Egg, & Dairy program.

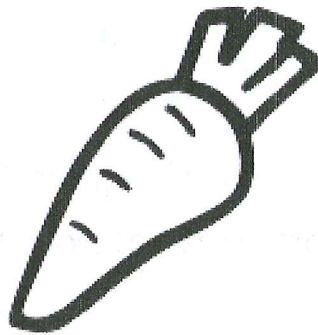

In 2019, the KDD program will include 41 farmers market, 10 Fresh Stop Market sites, and 3 retail stores.
