7 parties in interest may be heard is given in accordance with the Kentucky 8 Rules of Civil Procedure, provided if no party objects to the proposed sale or 9 requests a hearing within thirty (30) days, the court may proceed without a 10 hearing; and

11 (c) The court issues an order of sale that sets forth the required procedures for 12 or terms of the sale.

13 (5) If the proposed sale is by public auction or any other method other than a private 14 sale approved by the court, the conservator shall conduct and promote the sale in 15 a manner anticipated to raise the highest and best sale price.

16 (6) If the proposed sale is pursuant to a specific offer the conservator desires to 17 accept, the court may finally approve the sale and no separate confirmation order 18 is required. If the proposed sale is by public auction or any method other than a 19 private sale approved by the court, the conservator shall seek an order approving 20 the sale process and confirming the sale within ten (10) days of the date of the 21 sale.

22 (7) Notwithstanding any provision to KRS Chapter 134 to the contrary, any holder of
