Building a 21st Century DCBS

- Robust in-person and virtual workforce
- Open concepts
- Flexibility – work/life balance
- Review, revise, and modernize all the features and physical conditions in which DCBS work is performed
- Incorporating lived experience – trusted advisors council
- A living example of who we are as an agency and what and who we value
Challenges – High Acuity Youth

- High acuity youth refer to children in DCBS custody that present with needs for intensive behavioral health issues, sometimes paired with physical health issues.
  - Likely to be an adolescent
  - Likely to be committed for dependency
  - Likely to have multiple failed placements and treatment episodes
  - Common factors include:
    - Aggression to self, others, or property
    - Intellectual disability or autism
    - Co-occurring physical health conditions
    - Sexual behaviors
Children Without Acceptances - December 2022

• 29,461 referrals of 417 children
  • 90% of all referrals are rejected
  • 70.6 referrals per child

• 119 children (28.5%) with no acceptances
  • Physical aggression
  • Staffing, capacity
  • Self-harm, suicidal behavior

Response Reasons for Children with ZERO Accepted Placement Referrals

CRP database Dec. 2022
Population and Capacity

• Since June 2022:
  • The number of children placed out of state for treatment has doubled
  • Private child placing instability has doubled
  • Increase in hospitals refusing to access or admit DCBS-committed youth
  • Increase in youth with no identified placement option (sleeping in DCBS offices, hospital emergency rooms, providers’ offices, etc.)
  • There were 1,420 therapeutic foster care two-week notices and 167 private child caring facility notices June through November 2022
Steps Taken

• A high acuity youth coordinator has been appointed who coordinates daily calls for at risk children
• Enhanced payments are often available
• Community partnerships
  • UofL Peace Hospital, churches, state parks
• Regional leadership identifying appropriate placements for youth ready to be in the community
• Workgroups and committees
  • High Acuity Youth Learning Group, State Interagency Council Service Array Standing Committee, Custody Relinquishment Workgroup
• Working with AETNA on SKY
Further Needs

• Service challenges
• Workforce supports (not just for DCBS) – provider capacity
• Need for additional community-based services
• Addressing placement challenges, rejections, bed capacity
• Overlapping needs
• Cross-system involvement
