

Isaiah117[®]

changing the way foster care begins

Logan County, Kentucky

Isaiah 117 House seeks to change the way foster care begins by establishing safe, loving, sustainable homes in our communities to better serve children on removal days. Our mission is to:

- reduce trauma for children awaiting placement
- lighten the load for child welfare services
- ease the transition for foster families

“LEARN TO DO RIGHT; SEEK JUSTICE. DEFEND THE OPPRESSED. TAKE UP THE CAUSE OF THE FATHERLESS; PLEAD THE CASE OF THE WIDOW.”

ISAIAH 1:17 (NIV)

Key Facts of Isaiah 117

- Isaiah 117 House is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit focused on helping children awaiting foster care placement.
- The organization started in Tennessee (first house opened in 2018) and has expanded to multiple states
- They supply essentials that children often lack when entering foster care: clothes, toys, personal hygiene items, food, etc. Also support foster families (e.g. car seats, backpacks) to ease transitions.

The Giving Room

- Special place where children entering foster care are welcomed with love, dignity, and comfort.
- Every full bin ensures that a child has everything they need during a very difficult transition.
- Every Child leaves with a full week's worth of clothing, essentials and comfort items!

Doors opened on August 15, 2025 since then we have given 6 carseats, 4 beds, and welcomed 4 kids into the Isaiah 117 House Logan/Simpson/Butler Co Home serving a total of 14 kids since doors opened.

Let's reflect on the 8200 kids in Kentucky each one deserves safety, hope and love. This home can not house all of them but it can change the story for the ones who walk through these doors.
