A Restorative Justice Framework

Restorative Justice
can be defined as the ethos, practice, and outcome of accounting for harm, as it moves through a community, in a way that does not cause more harm.

Compassion and Solidarity

Whether we have [harmed] or have [caused harm], the journey from brokenness and isolation to transcendence and belonging requires us to re-narrate our stories so that they are no longer just about shame and humiliation but ultimately about dignity and triumph.
