

AN ACT relating to education required by the Board of Examiners of Psychology.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

➔ Section 1. KRS 319.032 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) The board shall promulgate administrative regulations:
  - (a) Establishing requirements, standards, and tests to determine the moral, intellectual, educational, scientific, technical, and professional qualifications of applicants for licensure; and preparing or selecting and administering examinations on general psychological knowledge. Neither certified psychologists, licensed psychological practitioners, nor licensed psychological associates may participate in the examination of applicants for licensure as licensed psychologists;
  - (b) Establishing and defining the scope of practice within the field of psychology;
  - (c) Setting the requirements for issuing, denying, suspending, restricting, and revoking licenses, and placing credential holders on probation;
  - (d) Developing specific guidelines to follow upon receipt of an allegation of sexual misconduct by a person credentialed by the board. The guidelines shall include investigation, hearing officer, and hearing procedures which ensure that the process does not revictimize the alleged victim or cause harm if a credential holder is falsely accused;
  - (e) Requiring training for the board and investigators hired by the board on the dynamics of sexual misconduct of professionals, including the nature of this abuse of authority, characteristics of the offender, the impact on the victim, the possibility and the impact of false accusations, investigative procedure in sex offense cases, and effective intervention with victims and offenders;
  - (f) Establishing requirements for continuing education not to exceed thirty-nine (39) contact hours per three (3) year renewal period as a condition for renewal of licenses, including three (3) contact hours per three (3) year renewal period on the topic of cultural diversity which may include identity stemming from age, disability, gender, race or ethnicity, religious or spiritual orientation, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, or other cultural dimensions~~[the increased requirement to be a condition for renewal of licenses beginning with renewals occurring after June 30, 2013];~~

- (g) Establishing and collecting reasonable fees for directories, transcribing, transferring of records, and other services;
- (h) Conducting hearings or appointing hearing officers to conduct hearings on any matter under the jurisdiction of the board, in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B;
- (i) Entering into reciprocal agreements with boards of examiners of psychology of other states having qualifications and standards at least as high as those of this state providing for reciprocal licensure;
- (j) Employing personnel, including hearing officers which it considers necessary for the performance of its functions, determining the duties of personnel, and compensating them within the limits of funds available to the board;
- (k) Investigating complaints or suspected violations of this chapter and notifying proper law enforcement authorities. For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the board shall have the authority to administer oaths, receive evidence, interview persons, issue subpoenas, and require the productions of books, papers, documents, or other evidence;
- (l) Governing the supervision of certified psychologists and the supervision and employment of licensed psychological associates and candidates for licensure;
- (m) Developing specific guidelines to allow school psychologists who are dually credentialed by the Education Professional Standards Board and the board to obtain supervision acceptable to the board from a licensed psychologist who is neither an employee nor contractor of the school system that employs the school psychologist being supervised; and

- (n) Notwithstanding the fee schedules specified in this chapter, increasing or decreasing fees as it deems appropriate.
- (2) The board shall have the authority to promulgate other administrative regulations as it deems necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.
- (3) The board, at its discretion, may use funds as necessary to purchase liability insurance for members and executive officers of the board, inspectors, examiners, investigators, and staff members exempt from classified service of the state by KRS 18A.115.

➔Section 2. KRS 319.064 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) An individual credentialed as a psychological associate shall use the title "licensed psychological associate" and the board shall issue a license with that title at the time of renewal.
- (2) ~~{For an individual with a master's degree in psychology, }~~The board shall issue a license to perform certain functions within the practice of psychology and to use the title "licensed psychological associate" to any applicant who:
  - (a) Pays a fee not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300);
  - (b) Has received:

1. A master's degree in psychology acceptable to the board; or

2. The equivalent education for a master's degree and has been accepted into a psychology predoctoral internship program in Kentucky that satisfies the criteria for the predoctoral internship established by the board;

from a regionally accredited educational institution or from an educational institution outside the United States, if such educational institution would otherwise be accredited by a regional accrediting body if located in the United States; and

- (c) Has passed an examination procedure in psychology.
- (3) Upon acceptance of the application to sit for the examination in psychology, the applicant may practice psychology under the supervision of a licensed psychologist under conditions of temporary licensure established by the board. The board shall establish a grace period not to exceed sixty (60) days to allow for the employment and supervision of the applicant by an agency from the time the applicant's degree requirements are completed to the submission of the complete application.
- (4) The board shall grade and keep the examinations and results for one (1) year. Upon written request to the board, an applicant may arrange to discuss his or her performance on the examination.
- (5) Any psychological associate licensed pursuant to this section may perform certain functions within the practice of psychology only under the supervision of a licensed psychologist approved by the board. The licensed psychological associate shall not practice independently, except under the employment and supervision of the board-approved licensed psychologist. A licensed psychological associate shall not represent himself or herself as a licensed or certified psychologist or as a licensed psychological practitioner. A licensed psychological associate shall not employ or supervise certified psychologists, licensed psychological practitioners, or licensed psychological associates.
