

13A.247 Interpretation of law by administrative body not entitled to deference from reviewing court.

- (1) An administrative body shall not interpret a statute or administrative regulation with the expectation that the interpretation of the administrative body is entitled to deference from a reviewing court.
- (2) The interpretation of a statute or administrative regulation by an administrative body shall not be entitled to deference from a reviewing court.

Effective: June 27, 2025

History: Created 2025 Ky. Acts ch. 112, sec. 1, effective June 27, 2025.