

Section 43 Privileges from arrest and from questioning as to speech or debate.

The members of the General Assembly shall, in all cases except treason, felony, breach or surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on the sessions of their respective Houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either House they shall not be questioned in any other place.

Text as Ratified on: August 3, 1891, and revised September 28, 1891.

History: Not yet amended.