

John Hunt Morgan Handbill, 1862

Printed and distributed by Confederate Brigadier General John Hunt Morgan during his 1862 invasion of Kentucky, this small broadside urged Kentuckians to join the Confederate cause. Morgan made several raids into Kentucky during the Civil War. Whole Federal units spent their service chasing his cavalry. Successful in disrupting the Union war effort in Kentucky, Morgan's raids had little effect on the final outcome. His most audacious raid took him into Indiana and Ohio and ultimately ended with the capture of most of his command.
