

William Graham, ca. 1880

William H. Graham served as a private in Sherman's Company, Twenty-eighth Colored Infantry Volunteers. The Twenty-eighth was mustered in at Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1863. They served in the eastern theater and took part in the siege of Petersburg and occupation of Richmond, Virginia. In 1865, the Twenty-eighth was transported to Texas to serve at Brazos Santiago and Corpus Christi. Mustered out in November, Graham, like many other African Americans in the Twenty-eighth, was discharged and released from service in Texas, far from his home in Kentucky.

Kentucky Historical Society Collections

War is not just a compilation of dates that represent a series of battles. "Kentucky Military Treasures," an online exhibition that illustrates the personal stories of bravery, innovation, heartache and perseverance, provides evidence of the people and artifacts history books often neglect. To learn more about this item and others in the military collections of the Kentucky Historical Society, visit "Kentucky Military Treasures."