NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 335.348 empowers the board to punish a licensee for violation of the statutes and administrative regulations governing the practice of marriage and family therapy. This includes the ability to revoke a license. KRS 335.360 permits a person whose license has been revoked to apply for reinstatement after five (5) years. This administrative regulation establishes the requirements for reinstatement of a license that has been the subject of disciplinary action by the board.

Section 1. Definition. (2)(a) A hearing shall be held to determine whether or not to reinstate the former licensee.

(b) The board shall consider the information contained in the application and the testimony and evidence obtained in the hearing.

(c) Based upon the information gathered the board shall determine if reinstatement of the license would be a threat to public safety, health and welfare.

(d) If the board finds that there no longer exists a danger to the public, it may reinstate the license.

(e) If the board finds that the danger still exists, it may refuse to reinstate the license.
