REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact Person: Laura Begin or Krista Quarles

(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does:

The administrative regulation establishes the basic standards of care and service for child-caring and child-placing agencies who administer independent living programs.

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation:

The administrative regulation is necessary to establish the requirements for the placement of a child in the custody of the cabinet with a child placing agency or child caring facility receiving independent living services and programming.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes:

This administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes by establishing the standards for independent living programs and services provided to children in the custody of the cabinet.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes:

This administrative regulation assists with the effective administration of the statutes by establishing the standards, services, and placement options available to children in out of home care at least eighteen (18) years of age and older who are in the custody of the cabinet.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:

(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation:

The amendment to the administrative regulation establishes the standards for independent living and the requirements for an independent living scattered or supervised site, in which children at least eighteen (18) years of age who are in the custody of the cabinet may be placed by a private child-placing agency. The amendment also expands the independent living programming to include topics such as benefits available to former foster children, financial literacy, career exploration, and more.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation:

The amendment to the administrative regulation is necessary to establish the standards and requirements for independent living programming available to assist children in the successful transition from out-of-home care to independence upon their exit from the cabinet's custody.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes:

The amendment of this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes by establishing the standards of care for independent living programming for children at least eighteen (18) years of age who are in the custody of the cabinet.

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes:

This administrative regulation assists with the effective administration of the statutes through the establishment of the basic standards of care required of child placing agencies that provide independent living programming.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation:

There are currently 680 children in out-of-home care who are over the age of eighteen (18) who are in the custody of the cabinet and would be eligible for independent living programs. (TWS 058W, December 19, 2021)

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:

(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment:

Independent living programming will consist of a few more topics than it already does. Independent living programs are already meeting the majority of the requirements contained in this administrative regulation.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3):

The amendment to this administrative regulation requires no new cost to regulated entities.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3):

Children in the custody of the cabinet who are eighteen years of age and older will benefit from more highly developed independent living programming to assist in the successful transition from out-of-home care to independence.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially:

There is no estimated increase in costs as the cabinet currently provides out-of-home care for children over the age of eighteen (18) who are in the custody of the cabinet.

(b) On a continuing basis:

There is no estimated increase in costs to the cabinet.

(6) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation:

The sources of funding include federal Title IV-E (of the Social Security Act) foster care maintenance and General Funds.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change if it is an amendment:

An increase in fees or funding is not anticipated to be necessary to implement the amendment to this administrative regulation.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation established any fees or directly or indirectly increased any fees:

This administrative regulation does not establish any fees or directly or indirectly increase any fees.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied?

Tiering is not applied, because this administrative regulation will be implemented in a like manner statewide.
