EDUCATION AND LABOR CABINET
(Technical Amendment)

13 KAR 3:020. Provision of instruction for individuals sentenced by a court to participate in educational programs.

RELATES TO: KRS 151B.408, 533.200, 533.210

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 151B.408, 533.210

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 533.210 requires the Office of Adult Education to promulgate administrative regulations relating to the conduct of the program described in KRS 533.200, including the costs of participation. KRS 151B.408 requires the office to promulgate necessary administrative regulations for administering adult education programs and services. This administrative regulation describes the method of providing services in accordance with KRS 533.200 and 533.210, the cost of individual participation in the program, and the qualifications of teachers providing instruction.

Section 1. Instructional Program, Costs, Licensing. There shall not be any costs to students ordered by the court to attend a Kentucky Adult Education instructional program described in KRS 533.200. The program services shall be services presently provided students enrolling in Kentucky Adult Education programs. Qualifications of instructors shall be determined by Kentucky Adult Education. These minimum qualifications shall be:

(1) A Bachelor's degree, preferably in education or a content-related field; and

(2) A score of NRS (National Reporting System) Level 6 or higher on at least one (1) content area of the Test of Adult Basic Education (TABE).
