NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 18A.110 requires the Secretary of Personnel to promulgate administrative regulations which govern the pay plan for all employees in the classified service. This administrative regulation establishes requirements to assure uniformity and equity in administration of the pay plan in accordance with statutory requirements.

Section 1. New Appointments.

- (1) An appointing authority shall appoint a new employee at a salary not to exceed the midpoint of the pay grade.
- (2) The appointing authority shall adjust to that salary an employee who is not on initial or promotional probation and is earning less than the new appointee's salary, if the appointing authority determines that the incumbent employee:
 - (a) Is in the same job classification;
 - (b) Is in the same department or office;
 - (c) Is in the same work county; and
 - (d) Has a similar combination of education and experience relating to the relevant job class specification.
- (3) If sufficient funds are available, the appointing authority may identify each incumbent employee affected by subsection (2) of this section whose salary is less than five (5) percent above the appointment salary assigned to the new employee. The appointing authority may adjust all affected incumbent employees' salaries to five (5) percent above the new appointee's salary.

Section 2. Reentrance to Classified Service.

- (1) Returning retirees. An employee who was formerly employed under KRS Chapter 18A and who is appointed to a position covered by the provisions of KRS Chapter 18A while receiving retirement payments through the Kentucky Public Pensions Authority or Kentucky Teachers Retirement System shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions for new appointments in this administrative regulation.
- (2) Other reentering employees.
 - (a) Former classified employees. An appointing authority shall set the salary of a former classified employee, other than a returning retiree, who is being reemployed, reinstated after a break in continuous employment in the classified service, or probationarily appointed in one (1) of the following ways:
 1. In accordance with the standards used for making new appointments in this administrative regulation;
 2. Up to the same salary as that paid at the time of separation from the classified service, if that salary does not exceed the midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary; or
 3. The same salary as that paid at the time of separation from the classified service provided the employee is returning to the same pay grade or same job classification held at the time of separation from the classified service.
 4. If sufficient funds are available, the appointing authority may identify each incumbent employee affected by Section 1(2) of this administrative regulation who is not on initial or promotional probation at the time the salary adjustment becomes effective. For all affected incumbent employees whose salary is less than five (5) percent above the appointment salary assigned to the new employee, the appointing authority may adjust all affected incumbent employees' salaries to five (5) percent above the new appointee's salary on that same effective date. An adjustment made pursuant to this subparagraph shall not exceed the midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary.

(b) Former unclassified employees with prior classified service. An appointing authority shall set the salary of a former classified employee who moved to the unclassified service and who is reinstated, reemployed, or probationarily appointed to a position in the classified service in one (1) of the following ways:

1. In accordance with the standards for making new appointments;
2. Up to the same salary as that paid at the time of separation from the classified service, if that salary does not exceed the pay grade midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary;
3. At a salary that is the same as the salary the employee last received in the classified service with adjustments for increases that would have been received if the employee had remained in the classified service prior to resignation if the salary does not exceed the pay grade midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary; or
4. At a salary up to five (5) percent above the pay grade entry level wage for each year of service in the KRS Chapter 18A system, if the salary does not exceed the pay grade midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary. Salary shall be calculated using whole percentages.
5. If sufficient funds are available, the appointing authority may identify each incumbent employee affected by Section 1(2) of this administrative regulation who is not on initial or promotional probation at the time the salary adjustment becomes effective. For all affected incumbent employees whose salary is less than five (5) percent above the appointment salary assigned to the new employee, the appointing authority may adjust all affected incumbent employees' salaries to five (5) percent above the new appointee's salary on that same effective date. An adjustment made pursuant to this subparagraph shall not exceed the midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary.

(c) Former unclassified employees with no previous classified service. An appointing authority shall set the salary of a former unclassified employee with no previous classified service, who is probationarily appointed or reemployed, in one (1) of the following ways:

1. In accordance with the standards for making new appointments; or
2. At a salary up to five (5) percent above the minimum salary for each year of service in the unclassified service, if the salary does not exceed the pay grade midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary. Salary shall be calculated using whole percentages.
3. If sufficient funds are available, the appointing authority may identify each incumbent employee affected by Section 1(2) of this administrative regulation who is not on initial or promotional probation at the time the salary adjustment becomes effective. For all affected incumbent employees whose salary is less than five (5) percent above the appointment salary assigned to the new employee, the appointing authority may adjust all affected incumbent employees' salaries to five (5) percent above the new appointee's salary on that same effective date. An adjustment made pursuant to this subparagraph shall not exceed the midpoint salary plus the difference, in dollars, between the job class entry level salary and the pay grade midpoint salary.

(d) Laid off employees. A former employee, separated from the classified service by layoff and reinstated or reemployed in the same or similar job classification within five (5) years from the date of layoff, may receive the salary the employee was receiving at the time of layoff, even if the salary is above the maximum of the pay grade.

(3) Probationary increments upon reentrance to state service. A former employee who is probationarily appointed at a salary at or below the midpoint of the pay grade shall receive a probationary increment upon successful completion of the probationary period.

Section 3. Salary Adjustments.

(1) Promotion.

(a) An employee who is promoted shall receive the greater of five (5) percent for each grade, or an increase to the minimum of the new grade except as provided under subsections (2)(b), (3)(b), and (4)(b) of this section; or

(b) If sufficient funds are available, an appointing authority may adjust the employee's salary up to the midpoint of the pay grade as long as the increase is greater than the increase specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section.

(2) Demotion.

(a) If an employee is demoted, the appointing authority shall determine the salary in one (1) of the following ways:

1. The employee's salary shall be reduced by five (5) percent for each grade the employee is reduced; or

2. The employee shall retain the salary received prior to demotion. If the employee's salary is not reduced upon demotion, the appointing authority shall explain the reason in writing and place the explanation in the employee's personnel files.

(b) An employee whose salary is not reduced by five (5) percent per grade upon demotion shall not be eligible for a salary increase upon promotion, reclassification, detail to special duty, reallocation, pay grade change, or successful completion of promotional probation until the employee is moved to a job classification with a higher pay grade than that from which he was demoted. If a promotion, reclassification, detail to special duty, reallocation, or pay grade change occurs, it shall be deemed as having been made from the grade from which the employee had been demoted.

(c) In the event of a salary schedule adjustment of an entry level wage of a pay grade, if an employee demoted to a lower pay grade, retained his or her salary, and was subsequently promoted and on promotional probation on the effective date of the new salary schedule, if the employee's salary is less than five (5) percent above the new entry level salary of the pay grade assigned to that employee on the effective date, the Personnel Cabinet shall adjust that employee's salary to five (5) percent above the new entry level wage.

(3) Reclassification.

(a) An appointing authority shall adjust the salary of an employee who is advanced to a higher pay grade through reclassification in one (1) of the following ways:

1. The greater of five (5) percent for each grade or the new grade minimum except as provided under subsections (2)(b), (3)(b), and (4)(b) of this section; or

2. If sufficient funds are available, up to the midpoint of the pay grade as long as the increase is greater than the increase specified in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph.

(b) An employee who is placed in a lower pay grade through reclassification shall receive the same salary received prior to reclassification, but shall not be eligible for a salary increase upon promotion, reclassification, detail to special duty, reallocation, pay grade change, or successful completion of promotional probation until the employee is moved to a job classification with a higher pay grade than that from which he was reclassified. If a promotion, reclassification, detail to special duty, reallocation, or pay grade change occurs, it shall be deemed as having been made from the grade from which the employee had been reclassified.

(c) If sufficient funds are available, an appointing authority may adjust up to the midpoint of the pay grade the salary of an employee who is placed in the same pay grade through reclassification.

(d) An employee shall not be reclassified from a job classification that does not require the supervision of employees to a job classification that requires the supervision of employees as mandated within the job class specification.

(4) Reallocation.

(a) An employee who is advanced to a higher pay grade through reallocation shall receive the greater of five (5) percent for each grade or the new grade minimum except as provided under subsections (2)(b), (3)(b), and (4)(b) of this section.

(b) An employee who is placed in a lower pay grade through reallocation shall receive the same salary received prior to reallocation, but shall not be eligible for a salary increase upon promotion, reclassification, detail to special duty, reallocation, pay grade change, or successful completion of promotional probation until he is moved to a job classification with a higher pay grade than that from which he was reallocated. If a promotion, reclassification, detail to special duty, reallocation, or pay grade change occurs, it shall be deemed as having been made from the grade from which the employee had been reallocated.

(5) Detail to special duty.

(a) An employee who is approved for detail to special duty shall receive, during the period of detail, the greater of five (5) percent for each grade or the new grade minimum except as provided under subsections (2)(b), (3)(b), and (4)(b) of this section.

(b) If sufficient funds are available, an appointing authority may adjust the salary of an employee who is placed in the same pay grade or higher pay grade through detail to special duty, up to the midpoint of the pay grade, as long as the increase is greater than the increase specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(c) An employee who is approved for detail to the same or lower pay grade shall receive the same salary received prior to detail except as provided under subsection (5)(b) of this section.

(6) Reversion.

(a) The salary of an employee who is reverted while serving a promotional probationary period, or following detail to special duty in a higher pay grade, shall be adjusted to:

1. The salary received prior to the promotion or detail; and
2. All salary advancements and adjustments which would have been awarded if the promotion or detail had not occurred.

(b) The salary of an employee who is reverted from a position in the unclassified service to a position in the classified service shall be adjusted to:

1. The salary received prior to leaving the classified service; and
2. All salary advancements and adjustments which would have been awarded if the individual had remained in the classified service.

(c) The increment date of an employee who is reverted from a position in the unclassified service to a position in the classified service shall be restored to the increment date set prior to leaving the classified service.

(7) Pay grade changes.

(a) If a job classification is assigned to a higher pay grade, except as provided under subsections (2)(b), (3)(b), and (4)(b) of this section, the appointing authority shall raise the salary of an employee below the new grade minimum to the new grade minimum. If sufficient funds are available, an appointing authority may uniformly adjust the salary of all employees in that agency in that job classification to:

1. The greater of the new grade minimum or five (5) percent per pay grade;
2. The greater of the new grade minimum or ten (10) percent per pay grade; or
3. At a percentage determined by the Personnel Cabinet.

(b) If a job classification is assigned to a lower pay grade, an employee in that job classification shall retain his current salary.

(8) Special entrance rates. If a special entrance rate is established for a job classification, an appointing authority shall adjust the salary of an employee in that job classification who is below the special entrance rate to the new rate. If sufficient funds are available, on the same date as the establishment of the special entrance rate, an appointing authority may uniformly grant to all employees in that job classification, except those employees who are on initial probation, a salary adjustment equal to the difference between the entrance of the pay grade and the new entrance rate.

(9) Other salary adjustments.

(a) On the 16th of a month, an appointing authority may grant a salary adjustment to all employees in a job classification within an agency who were eligible for, but did not receive, a five (5) percent per pay grade increase or ten (10) percent per pay grade increase as a result of a grade change applicable to the job classification, on or after January 1, 1999. The total adjustment granted at the time of the grade change and under this paragraph shall equal a five (5) percent per pay grade increase or ten (10) percent per pay grade increase to the employee's salary immediately prior to the grade change. Such adjustment shall not be retroactive.

(b) If sufficient funds are available, an appointing authority may adjust the salary of one or more employees with status in an office or department due to internal pay equity issues within a job classification or sustained retention issues impacting the mission of the agency.

1. The appointing authority shall substantiate in writing to the secretary the need for adjustment and include the proposed adjustment for each employee.

a. An adjustment shall be any amount that does not cause an employee's hourly rate to exceed the midpoint of the pay grade; or

b. An adjustment that causes an employee's hourly rate to exceed the midpoint of the pay grade shall not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the employee's hourly pay rate.

(10) Conversion rule. The salary of an employee whose position changes from a thirty-seven and five-tenths (37.5) hour workweek to a forty (40) hour workweek, or vice versa, shall be converted to accurately reflect the employee's hourly rate of base pay. This conversion shall be applied before applying any other salary adjustment to which the employee is entitled pursuant to this section.

- (4) Annual increment dates shall be established as follows:
 - (a) Upon completion of an initial probationary period;
 - (b) When a former employee has been probationarily appointed and has received compensation in any twelve (12) months without receiving an increment; or

- (7) Service computation. Full-time and part-time service shall be counted in computing service for the purpose of determining increment eligibility.
- (8) Order of calculating increments and other salary increases which occur at the same time. If an employee's increment date occurs on the same date that a salary adjustment or advancement is granted, the increment shall be applied before the adjustment or advancement is added to the employee's salary, except if the adjustment is based on a reversion, pay grade change, a salary schedule change, or establishment of a special entrance rate.

Section 5. Educational Achievement Award.

- (1) On the 16th of a month, an appointing authority may grant a five (5) percent increase to an employee's base salary based on educational achievement as specified in this section.
