FEDERAL MANDATE ANALYSIS COMPARISON

(1) Federal statute or regulation constituting the federal mandate.

34 C.F.R. § 300.156 (c) sets personnel qualifications for special education teachers and requires that each person employed as a special education teacher in the state has obtained full state certification as a special education teacher. 34 C.F.R. § 300.156 (c) (1)(ii) prohibits emergency certificates for special education teachers.

(2) State compliance standards.

To comply with the requirements contained in 34 C.F.R. § 300.156 (c) this administrative regulation prohibits the issuance of emergency certificates to teachers of exceptional children and interdisciplinary early childhood education.

(3) Minimum or uniform standards contained in the federal mandate.

34 C.F.R. § 300.156 (c) requires that each person employed as a public-school special education teacher in the state obtain full certification. Participation in an altera route program that requires teachers to receive high-quality professional development, participate in a program of intensive supervision that consists of structured guidance and regular ongoing support, assume functions as a teacher only for a specified period not to exceed three years, and demonstrate satisfactory progress toward full certification will meet the qualifications of the federal regulation under 34 C.F.R. § 300.156 (c)(2). 34 C.F.R. § 300.156 (c) prohibits emergency certification for special education teachers.

(4) Will this administrative regulation impose stricter requirements, or additional or different responsibilities or requirements, than those required by the federal mandate?

This regulation will not impose stricter requirements, or additional or different responsibilities or requirements. The administrative prohibition will only prohibit issuance of emergency certificates to teachers of exceptional children and interdisciplinary early childhood education as required by the federal law. Emergency certificates may be issued for all other certification areas.

(5) Justification for the imposition of the stricter standard, or additional or different responsibilities or requirements.

Not applicable.
