Subject Headings:Child Support; Attorney General; Children and Minors

(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does:

This administrative regulation transfers the responsibility to specify the processes by which an individual may apply for child support services, the scope of services available, and the process for an intergovernmental IV-D case from the Cabinet for Health and Family Services (CHFS) to Office of the Attorney General (OAG), pursuant to Senate Bill 48 of the 2023 RS.

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation:

This administrative regulation provides the procedures for applying for child support enforcement services, the scope of child support enforcement services available as well as the procedures for establishing an intergovernmental case in accordance with 42 U.S.C. 651-654, 657, 663, 666, and 45 C.F.R. 302 and 303.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes:

The Office of the Attorney General is responsible under KRS 15.802(2), 15.810, 15.866, 405.520, and by virtue of applying for federal funds under 42 U.S.C. 651-654, 657, 663, and 666, to outline the application process for child support services, scope of child support enforcement services available, and the procedures for establishing an intergovernmental case.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes:

This administrative regulation assists in the effective administration of the statutes by establishing procedures and processes utilized by the Office of the Attorney General for applicants to apply for child support enforcement services, the scope of child support enforcement services available, and the procedures for establishing an intergovernmental child support case.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:

(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation:

The amendment to this administrative regulation removes the Cabinet for Health and Family Services and the Department for Income Support as the entity required to promulgate administrative regulations for the Department of Child Support Services. It also updates regulatory and statutory citations to conform with SB 48 of the 2023 RS.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation:

The amendment to this administrative regulation is necessary to conform with the transfer of the child support enforcement program to the Department of Child Support Services within the Department of Law.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes:

The amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes by complying with federal law requirements.

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes:
The amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes by updating statutory and regulatory citations implemented by SB 48 of the 2023 RS.

(3) Does this administrative regulation or amendment implement legislation from the previous five years?The amendment implements legislation from Senate Bill 48 of the 2023 RS.

(4) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation:
1. Administrative Office of the Courts – 868 employees, 113 district judges, 97 circuit judges, 61 family court judges 2. Private attorneys – 19,581 3. Child support attorneys and staff – 725 4. Participants in the child support program – 601,231

(5) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (4) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:

(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (4) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment:
Each regulated entity will be advised that the Office of the Attorney General is now the entity required to promulgate administrative regulations for the Department of Child Support Services. They will also be advised on the updated statutory and regulatory citations and given guidance on where this information can be obtained.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (4):
The amendment to this administrative regulation will create no new or additional costs to regulated entities.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (4):
The amendment to this regulation will not accrue benefits to regulated entities.

(6) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially:
There will be no initial costs to the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation.

(b) On a continuing basis:
There will be no costs to the administrative body on a continuing basis.

(7) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation or this amendment:
The sources of funding include state General Funds and Federal Funds under 42 U.S.C. 601-619, Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(8) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change if it is an amendment:
There will be no increase in fees or funding to implement amendment to this administrative regulation.

(9) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees or directly or indirectly increases any fees:

This administrative regulation does establish any fees or directly or indirectly increase any fees.

(10) TIERING: Is tiering applied?

Tiering is not applicable as compliance with this administrative regulation applies equally to all individuals or entities.
