STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 310.041(1)

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 310.070(2)(f) establishes that persons employed in a hospital or nursing home may perform dietary services under the supervision of a licensed dietitian or certified nutritionist. This administrative regulation establishes the specific requirements to be met by supervisors of those persons.

Section 1. Definitions.

- (1) "Dietary services" means the data collection, observation, and implementation of nutrition care protocols as established by the supervisor.
- (2) "Supervisee" means a person performing dietary services pursuant to KRS 310.070(2)(f).
- (3) "Supervision" means the process of utilizing a partnership between a supervisor and a supervisee aimed at overseeing and insuring the overall quality of care for the client or patient.
- (4) "Supervisor" means a licensed dietitian or certified nutritionist who is supervising a person performing dietary services pursuant to KRS 310.070(2)(f).

Section 2.

- (1) A supervisor shall be responsible for the actions of the supervisee.
  - (2) A supervisor shall maintain individual records for each supervisee which shall include the following information:
    - (a) Name of supervisee;
    - (b) Name and license number of the supervisor;
    - (c) The name of the hospital or nursing home where the dietary services are performed; and
    - (d) A statement that the supervisor shall provide adequate direct supervision to the supervisee to insure the provision of quality dietary services by the supervisee.
