STATEMENT OF EMERGENCY
31 KAR 4:100E

This emergency administrative regulation is being promulgated in order to meet an imminent threat to public health, safety, or welfare. Currently this administrative regulation does not require the county board of elections to submit the list of appointed precinct election officers to the State Board of Elections. This is being filed as an emergency administrative regulation in order to ensure that Kentuckians appointed to serve as precinct election officers are properly vetted prior to assisting Kentucky voters on Election Day. This emergency administrative regulation will be replaced by an ordinary administrative regulation to further strengthen the security of Kentucky’s elections for at least one (1) year. The ordinary administrative regulation is identical to this emergency administrative regulation.

31 KAR 4:120E. Additional and emergency precinct officers.

RELATES TO: KRS 117.015, 117.045
STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 117.015(1)(a), 117.045(6)
EFFECTIVE: March 19, 2018
NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 117.015(1)(a) authorizes the State Board of Elections to promulgate administrative regulations necessary to implement the provisions of KRS Chapter 117. KRS 117.045(6) requires the State Board of Elections to promulgate an administrative regulation establishing conditions under which additional precinct officers may be approved. This administrative regulation establishes the conditions under which additional precinct officers may be approved, and establishes the form of the list of emergency election officer appointments required by KRS 117.045(5).

Section 1. Request to Appoint Additional Precinct Officers. A county board of elections seeking permission to appoint additional precinct officers, pursuant to KRS 117.045(6), shall file with the State Board of Elections SBE 23, Additional Precinct Officer Request, that contains the following information:

(1) The precinct number of each precinct for which approval of additional officers is sought;
(2) For each designated precinct, the reasons additional precinct officers are necessary;
(3) For each designated precinct, whether one (1) or two (2) additional precinct officers are requested; and
(4) The election for which approval is sought, designating whether the election is a primary, general, or special election.

Section 2. Approval of Request. (1) The State Board of Elections may approve a request to appoint additional precinct officers if the request sets forth a reasonable explanation why voting may not be conducted safely and expeditiously unless additional precinct officers are appointed.

(2) The county board of elections must submit these requests to the State Board of Elections at least fourteen (14) days prior to Election Day. If the request for additional precinct officers is not received by the State Board of Election at least fourteen (14) days prior to Election Day, then the State Board of Elections will not approve the request.

(3) Approval of a request to appoint additional precinct officers shall be granted for one (1) election only.
(4) Approval of a request to appoint additional precinct officers may authorize a county board of elections to appoint one (1) or two (2) additional precinct officers.
(5) If a county board of elections requests and is approved to appoint two (2) additional precinct officers:
(a) The two (2) additional precinct officers shall not be of the same political party; and
(b) If it appears from the list of additional precinct officers submitted to the State Board of Elections pursuant to KRS 117.045(8) that the two (2) additional precinct officers are of the same political party, then the State Board of Elections shall revoke its approval of the request to appoint additional precinct officers and the appointments shall be invalid.

Section 3. Duties of Additional Precinct Officers. The duties of additional precinct officers shall be prescribed by the county board of elections.

Section 4. Request to Appoint Emergency Precinct Officers. A county board of elections seeking permission to appoint emergency precinct officers pursuant to KRS 117.045(5) shall file with the State Board of Elections SBE 24, Emergency Precinct Officer Request, which contains the following information:

1. The precinct number of each precinct for which approval of additional officers is sought;
2. The name of the officer requested, the registered party of the officer, and the party the officer will be serving as for the specified election;
3. The election for which approval is sought, designating whether the election is a primary, general, or special election; and
4. A description of the efforts made to acquire precinct officers in the party, democrat or republican, which did not have enough workers as required by KRS 117.045(5).

5. If a county board of elections requests and is approved to appoint emergency precinct officers:
   (a) In the event more than one (1) emergency precinct officer is needed, the emergency precinct officers shall be of equal political party representation; and
   (b) If it appears from the list of emergency precinct officers submitted to the State Board of Elections pursuant to KRS 117.045(8) that the emergency precinct officers submitted will result in an imbalance between the political parties represented by the State Board, then the State Board of Elections shall revoke its approval of the request to appoint emergency precinct officers and the appointments shall be invalid.

(c) In the event the State Board invalidates the list of emergency precinct officers as provided in subsection (b) above, the State Board shall have the authority to appoint properly trained officers from within or outside the affected county in order to restore the balance prescribed in KRS 117.045(4).

STATEMENT OF EMERGENCY
201 KAR 12:082E

DURING ITS 2018 REGULAR SESSION, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY PASSED HOUSE BILL 260, WHICH AMENDED PROVISIONS OF THE STATUTORY SCHEME THAT REGULATES COSENTISTRY, NAIL TECHNOLOGY, AND ESTHETICS. SPECIFICALLY, HOUSE BILL 260 AMENDED KRS 317A.050 TO REDUCE THE TOTAL REQUIRED HOURS OF INSTRUCTION FOR NAIL TECHNICIAN AND ESTHETICIAN STUDENTS TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR LICENSURE FROM 1,000 TO 750 HOURS FOR NAIL TECHNICIANS, AND FROM 1,000 TO 750 HOURS FOR ESTHETICIANS. ADDITIONALLY, HOUSE BILL 260 REDUCED THE REQUIRED HOURS OF INSTRUCTION FOR AN APPRENTICE INSTRUCTOR LICENSE FROM 1,000 TO 750 HOURS. DUE TO ITS EMERGENCY PROVISION, HOUSE BILL 260 BECAME EFFECTIVE ON MY SIGNATURE, MARCH 30, 2018. THIS EMERGENCY AMENDMENT IS REQUIRED TO AMEND 201 KAR 12:082 TO CONFORM TO THE NEWLY AMENDED KRS 317A.050 AND KRS 317A.090. SEE KRS 13A.190(1)(a)(5). IN ITS CURRENT FORM, 201 KAR 12:082 STILL REQUIRES LICENSED SCHOOLS TO OFFER CURRICULA BASED ON THE HIGHER AMOUNT OF REQUIRED HOURS OF INSTRUCTION. LICENSED SCHOOLS IN KENTUCKY WILL BEGIN ENROLLING STUDENTS INTO PROGRAMS BASED ON THE AMENDED STATUTES BUT WITHOUT ANY MODIFIED CURRICULA IN THE CORRESPONDING ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION. AN EMERGENCY AMENDMENT TO THIS ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION WILL ENSURE THAT THE REGULATORY SCHEME CONFORMS TO THE CURRENT STATUTORY PROVISIONS. IT WILL ALSO ENSURE THAT THE ACCREDITATION OF LICENSED SCHOOLS IS NOT JEOPARDIZED DUE TO NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE CURRENT REGULATORY REQUIREMENT, AND WILL PROVIDE CERTAINTY TO ALL LICENSED SCHOOLS AND PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS. THIS EMERGENCY AMENDMENT TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION SHALL BE REPLACED BY AN ORDINARY AMENDMENT TO BE CONCURRENTLY FILED WITH THE REGULATIONS COMPILER. THE ORDINARY AMENDMENT IS NOT IDENTICAL TO THIS EMERGENCY AMENDMENT. IN ADDITION TO THE REDUCTION IN INSTRUCTIONAL HOURS, THE ORDINARY AMENDMENT ALSO UPDATES OTHER ASPECTS OF COURSE CURRICULUM AND ELIMINATES UNNECESSARY AND DUPLICATE LANGUAGE IN THE EXISTING ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION, CONSISTENT WITH THE RED TAPE REDUCTION INITIATIVE. THESE MATTERS FALL OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF AN EMERGENCY AMENDMENT.

STATEMENT OF EMERGENCY

922 KAR 2:171E

This emergency repealer sunsets the former quality-based graduated early childhood rating system for child care, STARS for KIDS NOW. In accordance with KRS 13A.190(1)(a)(2), this emergency repealer is necessary to comply with the purposes of the Child Care and Development Fund Block Grant, the state’s major federal fund source for child care services, including the Child Care Assistance Program, specifically 42 U.S.C. 9857(a)(5) and (7), through its transition of the quality-based graduated early childhood rating system for licensed child-care centers and certified family child-care homes to the Kentucky All STARS. The emergency repealer also preserves the health and safety of children in child care settings through its facilitation of enhanced quality programming and provider incentive in accordance with KRS 13A.190(1)(a)(1). An ordinary administrative regulation would not allow the agency sufficient time to effect the transition and avoid federal noncompliance or disruption to service provision to children in child care settings. This emergency repealer will not be replaced by an ordinary administrative regulation, because this emergency repealer will accomplish the task of permanently repealing the administrative regulations, 922 KAR 2:170 and 922 KAR 2:210.

STATEMENT OF EMERGENCY
922 KAR 2:270E

In accordance with KRS 13A.190(1)(a)2, this emergency administrative regulation is necessary to comply with the purposes of the Child Care and Development Fund Block Grant, the state’s major federal fund source for child care services, including the Child Care Assistance Program, specifically 42 U.S.C. 9857(a)(5) and (7), through its transition of the quality-based graduated early childhood rating system for licensed child-care centers and certified family child-care homes to the Kentucky All STARS. The emergency administrative regulation preserves the health and safety of children in child care settings through enhanced quality programming and provider incentive in accordance with KRS 13A.190(1)(a)1. An ordinary administrative regulation would not allow the agency sufficient time to effect the transition and avoid federal noncompliance or disruption to service provision to children in child care settings. This emergency administrative regulation will be replaced by an ordinary administrative regulation. The ordinary administrative regulation is identical to this emergency administrative regulation.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): Child care providers can participate in Kentucky All STARS by meeting licensure or certification requirements and minimum health and safety requirements to operate in the state. Providers choosing to participate at higher levels of Kentucky All STARS will absorb the cost associated with completed application, environment assessment, and the standards of quality. Federal Race to the Top-Early Learning Challenge Grant funds have been temporarily available to subsidize training materials, curriculum associated with high quality standards, and overall programmatic costs. (b) On a continuing basis: The department will absorb costs associated with implementation of the Kentucky All STARS Program within agency appropriations. Upon repeal of 922 KAR 2:110 and 922 KAR 2:210 governing the current voluntary STARS for KIDS NOW Program, funding currently used for the STARS for KIDS NOW Program will be directed to the Kentucky All STARS Program. In accordance with 42 U.S.C. 9858q, the state must reserve and use a percentage of the federal Child Care and Development Fund Block Grant for activities relating to the quality of child care. Ongoing costs are projected to be $7 million annually.

701 KAR 5:110. Use of local monies to reduce unmet technology need.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 156.070, 156.160

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 156.160

(1)(c)(cb) requires the Kentucky Board of Education to promulgate administrative regulations governing the acquisition and use of educational equipment for the schools. KRS 156.670(1) requires the development of the master plan for education technology to outline Commonwealth activities related to the purchase, development, and use of technology. The master plan requires a district to submit a plan and report describing [which describes] its educational initiatives that have technology components and their unmet technology need. KRS 157.655 authorizes [stipulates that] a local public school district to [may] participate in the education technology funding program based on the unmet technology need described in the local district plan and approved by the Kentucky Board of Education. Based on review of the unmet technology need, it has been determined that full implementation of the Kentucky Education Technology System (KETS) cannot be funded based solely on offers of assistance from the Education Technology Trust Fund. This administrative regulation establishes the requirements governing the use of local monies to reduce unmet technology need to ensure that all school district technology procurements, in categories for which KETS standards for unmet need have been established, will reduce the unmet technology need regardless of source of funds.

Section 1. Definitions. (1) "Department" means the Kentucky Department of Education.
(2) "District education technology plan" means the plan developed by the local school district to address the unmet technology need of the district.
(3) "Kentucky Education Technology System" or "KETS" means the statewide system established [set forth] in the technology master plan issued by the Kentucky Board of Education and approved by the Legislative Research Commission.
(4) "Master plan" means the long-range plan for the implementation of the Kentucky Education Technology System approved by the Kentucky Board of Education and the Legislative Research Commission.

(5) "Unmet technology need" means the total cost of technology, meeting or exceeding the criteria established in the master plan, needed to achieve the capabilities outlined in the approved district education technology plan of the local school district.

Section 2. Determination of Unmet Need. A local school district shall determine its unmet technology need as part of the education technology planning process. Unmet technology need shall be audited by the department and subject to the approval of the Kentucky Board of Education as part of the state review and assistance calculation process in accordance with [as provided by] the master plan.

Section 3. Reducing Unmet Need. (1) In categories of unmet technology need, as established [provided] in the 2018-2024 [2013-2018] KETS Master Plan, a district shall limit procurements to those that [which] will reduce unmet technology need until the district's unmet technology need no longer exists.
(2) The department shall assist districts in selecting equipment, software, and services that [which] will reduce the unmet technology need.

Section 4. Alternative Technology. For technology components having no established [for which] KETS standards [have not been established], a local school district may propose alternative technologies (waivers) in the local district education technology plan, particularly if the technology is proposed to achieve innovation. The department shall respond to the waiver within a three (3) week time period. If denied, the local school district may appeal to the Commissioner of Education.

- Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy, $34,463;
- Lyon County Ambulance Service, $1200;
- Office of Criminal Appeals within the Attorney General's Office handles all felony appeals within the existing budget of the office.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): This administrative regulation will assist in placing the Department of Corrections in compliance with the decision of the Supreme Court of Kentucky in Bowling v. Kentucky Department of Corrections, 301 S.W.3d 478 (Ky. 2009). The execution process has been in effect for many years, so this process will not be newly implemented. See approximate costs to conduct an execution in 4(b).

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost to implement this administrative regulation:

- What is the administrative regulation promulgated in compliance with the Supreme Court of Kentucky decision in Bowling v. Kentucky Department of Corrections, 301 S.W.3d 478 (Ky. 2009). The execution process has been in effect for many years, so this process will not be newly implemented. See approximate costs to conduct an execution in 4(b).

(6) What is the source of funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation: Biennial budget funds designated to the state agencies listed in 4(b) above. For the Lyon County Sheriff's Office and Lyon County Ambulance Service, funds designated to them by the county.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if not caused by the change, if it is an amendment: This regulation impacts how the Kentucky Department of Corrections and other entities listed in 4(b) above operate, but should not necessitate an increase in funding. No fees are involved.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees or directly or indirectly increases any fees: No fees are established or increased.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? No. Tiering was not appropriate in this administrative regulation because the administrative regulation applies equally to all those individuals or entities regulated by it.

KRS 196.035 and 197.020 authorize the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet and the Department of Corrections to promulgate administrative regulations for the proper administration of the functions of the cabinet or any division in the cabinet and the government and discipline of penitentiaries and official conduct of all officials connected with the penitentiary. This administrative regulation is necessary for the Department to establish procedures for the designation of witnesses to the execution, visitors to the condemned person, attorney access to the condemned person, and the demonstration area.
(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This administrative regulation establishes the procedures for the designation of witnesses to the execution, visitors to the condemned person, attorney access to the condemned person, and the demonstration area, and the promulgation of which is authorized by KRS 196.035 and 197.020.
(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: This administrative regulation establishes the procedures to be used by Department of Corrections personnel for the designation of witnesses to the execution, visitors to the condemned person, attorney access to the condemned person, and the demonstration area.

Provision is made for a designated space for the attorney for the condemned person at the Penitentiary and access to a telephone.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment addresses issues raised when this regulation was previously filed.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: Statutes authorize the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet and the Department of Corrections to promulgate administrative regulations for the proper administration of the functions of the cabinet or any division in the cabinet. The Department of Corrections is responsible for the execution of a death penalty. This amendment addresses that responsibility.

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: This amendment addresses issues raised when this regulation was previously filed.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:

(a) List the name and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: This administrative regulation establishes procedures that are primarily applicable only to personnel of the Department of Corrections. However, all executions are performed at the Kentucky State Penitentiary in Eddyville and other individuals and state and local government agencies are affected. There are currently thirty-two inmates on Kentucky’s death row who may be affected by this administrative regulation. There are approximately 600 persons employed by the Department of Corrections who will be affected. There are approximately 15 witnesses from the news media, victim’s family, inmate’s family, and sheriff’s department of the county of conviction that will be affected. Additionally, the following agencies and some of their employees will be affected: Kentucky State Police, Office of the Kentucky State Medical Examiner, Department of Public Advocacy, Attorney General’s Office, Lyon County Sheriff’s Office, the Kuttawa Fire Department, the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife, Kentucky National Guard, Eddyville Fire Department, the Lyon County Coroner, and the Lyon County Ambulance Service.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): This administrative regulation is primarily applicable only to personnel of the Department of Corrections. However, other individuals and state and local government agencies are affected by the execution process. In the event that an execution is carried out, it is estimated that the cost will be the following approximate figures:

- Department of Corrections, $35,840;
- Kentucky State Police, $3,625;
- Office of the Kentucky State Medical Examiner, $2,000;
- Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy, $34,463;
- Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife, $450;
- Kentucky National Guard, $18,975;
- Lyon County Sheriff’s Office, $900;
- Kuttawa Fire Department, volunteer agency with no fiscal impact;
- Eddyville Fire Department, volunteer agency with no fiscal impact;
- Lyon County Ambulance Service, $1200;
- Office of Criminal Appeals within the Attorney General’s Office handles all felony appeals within the existing budget of the Office.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): This administrative regulation will assist in placing the Department of Corrections in compliance with the decision of the Supreme Court of Kentucky in Bowling v. Kentucky Department of Corrections, 301 S.W.3d 478 (Ky. 2009). Further, it will assist the entities listed above in the proper administration of their duties during the execution process.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially: This administrative regulation is promulgated in compliance with the Supreme Court of Kentucky decision in Bowling v. Kentucky Department of Corrections, 301 S.W.3d 478 (Ky. 2009). The execution process has been in effect for many years, so this process will not be newly implemented. See approximate costs to conduct an execution in 4(b).

(b) On a continuing basis: See approximate costs to conduct an execution in 4(b).

(6) What is the source of funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation: Biennial budget funds designated to the state agencies listed in 4(b) above. For the Lyon County Sheriff’s Office and Lyon County Ambulance Service, funds designated to them by the county.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment: This regulation impacts how the Kentucky Department of Corrections and other entities listed in 4(b) above operate, but should not necessitate an increase in funding. No fees are involved.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees or directly or indirectly increases any fees: No fees are established or increased.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? No. Tiering was not appropriate in this administrative regulation because the administrative regulation applies equally to all those individuals or entities regulated by it.

administrative regulation relates to the procedures by which the Kentucky Department of Corrections will conduct executions, but does not increase costs from what was previously budgeted to the Department of Corrections. The promulgation of this administrative regulation should not increase costs. The other entities listed in the response to Question #1 above should also not see any increase in costs. Executions are infrequently performed. In the event that an execution is carried out, it is estimated that the cost will be the following approximate figures:
- Department of Corrections, $35,840;
- Kentucky State Police, $3,625;
- Office of the Kentucky State Medical Examiner, $2,000;
- Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy, $34,463;

(d) How much will it cost to administer this program for subsequent years? The promulgation of this administrative regulation relates to the procedures by which the Kentucky Department of Corrections will conduct executions, but does not increase costs from what was previously budgeted to the Department of Corrections. The other entities listed in the response to 3(c) above should also not see any increase in costs. Executions are infrequently performed. In the event that an execution is carried out, it is estimated that the costs for each entity involved will be that set out in 3(c).

Note: If specific dollar estimates cannot be determined, provide a brief narrative to explain the fiscal impact of the administrative regulation.

Language is revised to allow for singular rather than plural. The language concerning phones is changed to remove "line" to allow for various types of phones. Terminology concerning intravenous preparation for execution is clarified. Language concerning notice to the Governor’s Office is changed to indicate the execution is suspended until a new execution order is received.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment address issues in pending litigation and developments in case law.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: Statutes authorize the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet and the Department of Corrections to promulgate administrative regulations for the proper administration of the cabinet or any division in the cabinet. The Department of Corrections is responsible for the execution of death penalties. This amendment addresses that responsibility.

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: The amendment revises the protocols for execution by lethal injection and reduces the number of drugs that may need to be handled by in an execution. The Kentucky State Penitentiary in Eddyville and other individuals and state and local government agencies are affected. There are currently thirty-two inmates on Kentucky’s death row who may be affected by this administrative regulation. There are approximately 600 persons employed by the Department of Corrections who will be affected. However, other individuals and state and local government agencies are affected by the execution process. In the event that an execution is carried out, it is estimated that the cost will be the following approximate figures:

- Department of Corrections, $35,840;
- Kentucky State Police, $3,625;
- Office of the Kentucky State Medical Examiner, $2,000;
- Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy, $34,463;

REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact Person: Kevin C. Brown

(1) Provide a brief summary of:
(a) What this administrative regulation does: The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), as reauthorized by the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), 20 U.S.C. 6301, requires states receiving Title I Part A funding to adopt a system of accountability and support for low-achieving schools. The state is required to identify schools for comprehensive and targeted support and improvement based on state adopted criteria (that meet federal guidelines) and provide turnaround support for those schools by working with school and district leaders. SB 1 (2017) also requires the Kentucky Board of Education (KBE) to promulgate administrative regulations for the identification of schools for comprehensive and targeted support and improvement, as well as assistance and intervention. This regulation establishes that system of support and ongoing accountability in compliance with ESSA and 20 U.S.C. 6301.

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: The amendments to this regulation are required for alignment to the State Plan, as submitted to the United States Department of Education. This regulation reflects the essential functions and requirements under Title I Part A, as reauthorized under the ESSA.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statute: The regulation conforms to the authority given to the Kentucky Board of Education in KRS 156.060 and KRS 156.070. It also aligns with the requirements under the ESEA, 20 U.S.C. 6301, as reauthorized by the ESSA.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: ESSA requires states to identify schools for comprehensive and targeted support and improvement based on state adopted criteria (that meet federal guidelines) and provide turnaround support for those schools by working with school and district leaders. This regulation establishes that system of support and ongoing accountability in compliance with ESSA.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:
(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: NA
(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: NA
(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statute: NA
(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: NA

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: NA

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: School districts already receive similar support as under No Child Left Behind (NCLB), ESSA’s predecessor, and the Kentucky NCLB Waiver. This regulation reflects federal requirements and districts have been part of the transition process since the federal legislation was passed in December of 2015. Schools and local education agencies that are identified will need to develop and implement improvement plans that address the issues that led to their identification. KDE as it is tasked with providing guidance, support, technical assistance, and monitoring and periodic review of school improvement plans under ESSA.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation: NA

(a) Initially: The KDE is required by ESSA to provide support, monitoring and technical assistance to schools and districts with low-performing schools. This requirement existed prior to the ESSA reauthorization. As a result, there is no initial cost for monitoring and support. Federal funding is utilized for this work. KDE submitted an ABR for the 2018-2020 biennial budget to include $500,000 for the reimbursement allowance provided for in SB 1 (2017) which allows districts who do not utilize the department for the required audit or turnaround team to seek some reimbursement for those services. The reimbursable amount for those districts is subject to available funds.

(b) On a continuing basis: As a result of the continuing obligation in ESSA to provide support, monitoring and technical assistance to schools and districts, KDE incurs an ongoing cost of staff and resources. State and federal funding is utilized for this work. KDE submitted an ABR for the 2018-2020 biennial budget to include $500,000 for the reimbursement allowance provided for in SB 1 (2017) which allows districts who do not utilize the department for the required audit or turnaround team to seek some reimbursement for those services. The reimbursable amount for those districts is subject to available funds.

(6) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation: Federal funding under Title I Part A and state funds.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change if it is an amendment: At this point, it is unclear as to whether the number of identified schools will increase as a result of the changes in the state accountability system. An increase could result in the need for additional funding.
or, if none exists, differentiated support.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees or directly or indirectly increases any fees: This regulation does not establish any fees or directly or indirectly increase fees.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? Tiering was not appropriate in this administrative regulation because the administrative regulation applies equally to all schools and local education agencies.

FISCAL NOTE ON STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT

(1) What units, parts, or divisions of state or local government (including cities, counties, fire departments, or school districts) will be impacted by this administrative regulation? Local education agencies and KDE.

(2) Identify each state or federal statute or federal regulation that requires or authorizes the action taken by the administrative regulation. KRS 156.029(7), 156.070(5), 158.6453, 158.6455, 160.346, 20 U.S.C. 6301

(3) Estimate the effect of this administrative regulation on the expenditures and revenues of a state or local government agency (including cities, counties, fire departments, or school districts) for the first full year the administrative regulation is to be in effect. With regards to supports offered by the department, this should not have a significant impact as state and federal funding is utilized for this work. Additionally, the supports provided in this regulation are the same as those provided previously under NCLB and the Kentucky Waiver. With regards to the reimbursement available under SB 1 (2017), KDE submitted a request for the 2018-2020 biennial budget to include $500,000 for the reimbursement allowance provided for in SB 1 (2017) which allows districts who do not utilize the department for the required audit or turnaround team to seek some reimbursement for those services. The reimbursable amount for those districts is subject to available funds.

(a) How much revenue will this administrative regulation generate for the state or local government (including cities, counties, fire departments, or school districts) for the first year? No revenue.

(b) How much revenue will this administrative regulation generate for the state or local government (including cities, counties, fire departments, or school districts) for subsequent years? No revenue.

(c) How much will it cost to administer this program for the first year? The KDE is required by ESSA to provide support, monitoring and technical assistance to schools and districts with low-performing schools. This requirement existed prior to the ESSA reauthorization. As a result, there is no initial cost. Federal funding is utilized for this work. However, with regards to the reimbursement available under SB 1 (2017), KDE submitted a request for the 2018-2020 biennial budget to include $500,000 for the reimbursement allowance provided for in SB 1 (2017) which allows districts who do not utilize the department for the required audit or turnaround team to seek some reimbursement for those services. The reimbursable amount for those districts is subject to available funds.

(d) How much will it cost to administer this program for subsequent years? As a result of the continuing obligation in ESSA to provide support, monitoring and technical assistance to schools and districts, KDE incurs an ongoing cost of staff and resources. Federal and state funding is utilized for this work. However, with regards to the reimbursement available under SB 1 (2017), KDE submitted a request for the 2018-2020 biennial budget to include $500,000 for the reimbursement allowance provided for in SB 1 (2017) which allows districts who do not utilize the department for the required audit or turnaround team to seek some reimbursement for those services. The reimbursable amount for those districts is subject to available funds.

REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact Person: Julie M. Campbell
(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation establishes a fee schedule for all applications, permits, and licenses issued by the Kentucky Board of Cosmetology (KBC).

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: This administrative regulation is necessary to set out a fee schedule for all persons and entities seeking a permit or license from the KBC.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This amendment adjusts the existing fees for those permits and licenses set forth in KRS Chapter 317A.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: This amendment adjusts existing fees for the issuance, renewal, and restoration of licenses and permits, board exams, and other miscellaneous fees of the KBC.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:

(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: The KBC is entirely self-funded through fees it collects for the various applications, permits, and licenses it offers to the public. As these fees have not been changed in 14 years, they no longer are commensurate with the expenses the KBC incurs to provide these services. Additionally, implementation of national testing, recently authorized by the passage of House Bill 260, necessitates a reasonable fee increase.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment is necessary to fund implementation of national testing and the KBC’s anticipated operating cost increase. The adjusted fees in this amendment represent a midpoint compared to fee schedules in surrounding states.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This amendment sets forth all KBC fees based on the current statutory requirements in KRS Chapters 317A.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: There are approximately 38,000 licensees, permittees, and students affected by this amendment.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:

(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: This amendment does not change any existing requirement, or create a new requirement. It amends the previous fee schedule contained in the existing administrative regulation.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): An adjustment to fees is necessary to implement national testing and to properly fund the KBC’s operating costs in anticipation of new licensing procedures brought about by the passage of House Bill 260. The existing fees have not been changed in 14 years and this amendment represents approximately a 2.5% per annum increase when calculated over 14 years. These adjusted fees represent a midpoint when compared to fees in the surrounding states.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): Prospective and current licensees will benefit from national exams being offered at multiple sites throughout the state. Agency funds will be used to implement online licensing and renewals, which will result in faster processing times for the public.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially: No additional funds are necessary to implement this amendment.

(b) On a continuing basis: No additional funds are necessary.
on an ongoing basis to implement this amendment. Taking into account additional expenditures incurred from new licenses, permits, and national testing, it is anticipated that the increase in fees for existing examinations, permits, and licenses will result in an approximate 10-20% increase in revenue.

REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact Person: Mark Cramer
(1) Provide a brief summary of:
(a) What the administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation establishes waterfowl seasons and bag limits within federal migratory bird hunting frameworks established in 50 C.F.R. Parts 20 and 21 according to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS).
(b) The necessity of the administrative regulation: The necessity of this administrative regulation is to establish the 2018-2019 waterfowl hunting seasons in accordance with the USFWS.
(c) How does this administrative regulation conform to the authorizing statute: KRS 150.025(1) authorizes the department to promulgate administrative regulations to establish open seasons for the taking of wildlife and to regulate bag limits. KRS 150.360 authorizes the department to restrict methods for the taking of wildlife. KRS 150.600(1) authorizes the department to regulate the taking of waterfowl on public and private land.
(d) How will this administrative regulation assist in the effective administration of the statutes: This administrative regulation assists in the effective administration of the statutes by establishing hunting season and bag limit requirements and providing reasonable hunting opportunity consistent with state, national, and international management requirements.
(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:
(a) How the amendment will change the existing administrative regulation: This amendment will change the daily bag limit for pintails from one to two birds. This amendment adds cackling goose to the definition of dark geese. The American Broth Note mentioned that the Union recently separated cackling goose from Canada geese and the USFWS has added cackling geese to their definition of dark goose. The reduced season length for the Northeast goose zone is removed. This amendment also removes the requirement to hunt waterfowl from a blind in the Ballard Zone.
(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: Waterfowl seasons and limits are set on an annual basis following the establishment of federal frameworks by the USFWS each year. It is the Department’s responsibility to allow quality hunting opportunity within these federal frameworks. The changes in bag limit for these species represent the maximum allowed in federal frameworks.
(c) How does the amendment conform to the authorizing statute: See (1) above.
(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: See (1) above.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations or state and local governments that will be affected: There are approximately 20,000 waterfowl hunters in Kentucky that may be affected by this administrative regulation.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation or amendment, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:
(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: The current changes in season dates and/or bag limits will be published in the fall waterfowl hunting guide and on the department’s website. Hunters will need to follow applicable amendments to the hunting bag limits.
(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): There will be no additional costs to those identified in question (3).
(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): There will be an increased opportunity to hunt pintails in the state and the removal of the Northeast goose zone simplifies regulations for goose hunters. The removal of the requirement to hunt from a blind allows hunters and land managers on private and public lands within the zone greater flexibility in the Ballard zone.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost to implement this administrative regulation:
(a) Initially: There will be no additional costs to implement this administrative regulation initially.
(b) On a continuing basis: There will be no additional cost on a continuing basis.
(6) What is the source of funding to be used for implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation? The source of funding is the State Game and Fish Fund.
(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change if it is an amendment. It will not be necessary to increase any fees or funding to implement this administrative regulation.
(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees directly or indirectly increases any fees: This administrative regulation does not establish any fees directly or increase any fees indirectly.
(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? Tiering was not applied. The same guidelines and limits apply to all waterfowl hunters.

REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact Person: Mark Cramer

(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation establishes waterfowl seasons, bag limits and requirements on public lands within federal migratory bird hunting frameworks established in 50 C.F.R. Part 20 and 21 according to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS).

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: The necessity of this administrative regulation is to establish the 2018-2019 waterfowl hunting requirements on public lands in accordance with the USFWS and Department management objectives.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: KRS 150.025(1) authorizes the department to establish hunting season dates, bag limits and other hunting requirements. KRS 150.360 authorizes the department to regulate the taking of waterfowl on public and private land.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes. This administrative regulation assists the above statutes by managing waterfowl populations and hunting opportunity consistent with state and national management requirements and strategies.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:
(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: This amendment removes the requirement to waterfowl hunt from a blind on public and private land in Ballard County. It requires hunters to accurately complete the daily post-hunt survey at the close of each day. It allows hunters to hunt in hunt sites on the Sauerheber and Jenny Hole Units. It removes the ability to occupy unclaimed hunt sites on the Sauerheber Unit. It requires hunters on the Sauerheber and Jenny Hole units of Sloughs WMA to turn in a post-hunt survey at the completion of each day. It removes the ability to apply for waterfowl quota hunts at Ballard and Sloughs WMA via telephone. It requires hunters drawn for Sloughs WMA quota hunts to check in for hunts on the Sunday prior to their hunt. It establishes a means for applying for quota hunts on the Jenny Hole Unit of Sloughs WMA. It removes the Kendall State Parks hunts at Barren River, Grayson Lake, Pennyrile Lake, and Rough River Lake. It also requires hunters hunting at the remaining state parks to check in and out at a designated location.
(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment is necessary to provide quality public hunting opportunity with minimal area use conflict that is consistent with achieving state and federal waterfowl management objectives.
(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: See 1(c) above.
(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: See 1(d) above.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: There are approximately 20,000 waterfowl hunters in Kentucky that may be affected by this administrative regulation.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:
(a) List the activities that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: Hunters will need to comply with all application procedures and hunting requirements established for public lands in this administrative regulation.
(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3)? There will be no additional or amended costs to those identified in question (3).
(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): Higher quality hunting opportunity will be provided for hunters utilizing quota hunts at Ballard and Sloughs WMAs. Hunters will have the ability to hunt in hunt sites or units at Ballard instead of being required to hunt from blinds. In other areas, this change has resulted in a 100% increase in harvest for hunters. Requiring the accurate completion of post-hunt surveys provides the department with better information to manage public hunts and ensures the information hunters use to choose their hunt sites is accurate. The creation of quota hunts in the Jenny Hole unit allows for a safer and more pleasurable hunting experience compared to the unlimited access previously provided. Hunters utilizing state park hunts will now be able to check in and out at a remote station versus having to go in to the park office, which should make the process faster.
(d) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation:

REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact Person: Mark Cramer

(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation establishes sandhill crane seasons, bag limits and requirements on public lands within federal migratory bird hunting frameworks established in 50 C.F.R. Parts 20 and 21 according to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS). The necessity of this administrative regulation: The necessity of this administrative regulation is to establish the 2018-2019 sandhill crane hunting requirements on private and public lands in accordance with the USFWS and Department management objectives.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: KRS 150.025(1) authorizes the department to promulgate administrative regulations to establish open seasons for the taking of wildlife and to regulate bag limits. KRS 150.360 authorizes the department to restrict methods for the taking of wildlife. KRS 150.600 authorizes the department to regulate the taking of waterfowl on public and private land. This administrative regulation establishes procedures for the taking of migratory game birds within reasonable limits and within the frameworks established by 50 C.F.R. Parts 20 and 21.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: By establishing sandhill crane hunting seasons and area specific requirements, this administrative regulation maintains and manages migratory game bird conservation efforts consistent with national and international management goals.

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:

(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: This amendment will change the timing of the season and season length to coincide with duck seasons. It will change the number of permits available from a fixed 400 permits to the maximum allowed by the USFWS for that season. Tags with each permit will go from a fixed two (2) per permit to a system where one (1) tag is allocated to each permit holder and any remaining tags are allocated to permit holders in order of drawing. The application period for sandhill crane permits will be moved to September with the drawing held in early October. The eastern portion of Green River Lake will now have a no crane-hunting zone created. This amendment also removes a season closure if harvest were to reach 400 cranes.

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment is necessary to provide additional hunting opportunity for Kentucky’s sandhill crane hunters, to move the application period to September to conform to other quota hunt application periods, and to protect a roosting area on Green River Lake. At the completion of Kentucky’s Experimental Season Period, the USFWS granted Kentucky additional harvest opportunity. This amendment allows for additional hunting days (56 vs. 30) while simplifying regulations similar to duck seasons. For the 2017-2018 season, 30% of applicants were turned away for a lack of permits. The new application period also provides additional time for the delivery of permits and tags. The closure of crane hunting on Green River Lake protects a roosting area that will result in additional hunting and wildlife viewing opportunity.

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: See 1(c) above.

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: See 1(d) above.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: For the 2017-2018 season, there were a total of 565 applicants for the crane quota hunt.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation or amendment: Applicants will now be required to apply with this amendment.

(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: Applicants will now be required to apply with this amendment.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): There will be no additional costs in order to comply with this amendment.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): More hunters will be able to participate in the annual annual harvest, and it is possible that harvest an additional crane depending on the number of applicants and their draw ranking. The prohibited hunting area in Green River Lake will protect the crane population in a key roosting area, which is important to the long-term sustainability of the population.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially: This administrative regulation change will result in no initial change in administrative cost to the Department.

(b) On a continuing basis: There will be no additional cost on a continuing basis.

(6) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation: The source of funding is the State Game and Fish Fund.

(a) What this administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation establishes definitions and the criteria for awarding specialized telecommunications equipment (STE) to deaf, hard of hearing, or speech-impaired individuals, and includes application and certification procedures for providing access to telecommunications through the Telecommunications Access Program within the Kentucky Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (KCDHH).
(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: This administrative regulation is necessary to implement the provisions of KRS 163.525(5), which mandates that the KCDHH establish a program to distribute STE to any deaf, hard of hearing or speech-impaired person qualified to receive the equipment. This regulation also provides a mechanism for providing access to telecommunications to meet the mandates of the ADA. It also adds selling, giving or trading STE to fraud criteria, adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances. It also adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances. It also adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances.
(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes by defining terms used in KAR 1:010 and 1:200 and establishing procedures for the distribution of STE to any deaf, hard of hearing or speech-impaired individuals, so they have access to equitable communications.
(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:
(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation: This amendment adds definitions used in the program and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances. It also adds selling, giving or trading STE to fraud criteria, adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances. It also adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances.
(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation: This amendment adds definitions used in the program, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances. It also adds selling, giving or trading STE to fraud criteria, adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances. It also adds physician assistant certified (PAC) to authorized professionals, and updates procedures for accepting an application for STE to include an electronic format to meet today’s technological advances.
(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This amendment reflects updated definitions and criteria for determining if a piece of STE is non-functional. With today’s advancing technology, STE typically does not last more than four years and the cost of obtaining the equipment from the recipient and evaluating it for functionality is cost prohibitive with the state’s budget limitations. The hardcopy application continues to be used in the program as needed, and the electronic application format shall match the hardcopy version incorporated by reference.
(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: This amendment allows applicants to utilize and electronic format for application if desired, which conforms to other state distribution programs, adds PAC as an authorized professional, defines other terminology used in the program, and implements stricter fraud procedures to ensure the STE is being utilized for the intended purpose rather than personal gain. The removal of diagnostic procedures for non-functional STE over four (4) years old will save staff time, resources and postage in today’s climate of budgetary constraints.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: The 700,000 deaf and hard of hearing consumers in the Commonwealth will be impacted by this regulation if they choose to apply for STE. Agencies and organizations, both state and local, that provide support services for deaf, hard of hearing or speech-impaired individuals throughout the Commonwealth may be impacted if they choose to assist a consumer with an application.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:

(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to take to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment: Entities identified in question (3) will not have to take any action to comply with this regulation amendment.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3): Agencies or consumers participating in the Telecommunications Access Program will not incur any costs due to this amendment.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3): Both consumers and entities identified will benefit from this amendment, as application for STE may be made online and procedures are clarified. Consumers whose primary and each is a PAC will benefit, as they will not have to obtain alternate professional certification. KCDHH will benefit from this amendment by not having to outlay funds for diagnostic purposes when current STE’s are not typically functional for more than four years and terminology utilized in the program is clarified.

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost the administrative body to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially: The initial loading of an online STE application is part of KCDHH staff duties and is included in the agency’s budget calculations. Therefore, there is no change in cost initially to the administrative body after implementation of this amendment.

(b) On a continuing basis: There is no change in cost ongoing to the administrative body after implementation of this amendment.

(6) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation: Restricted funds collected per KRS 278.5499 to support the TAP will support the implementation of this amendment.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new or by the change if it is an amendment: No increase in fees or funding is required to implement this amendment.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation established any fees or directly or indirectly increased any fees: No fees are directly or indirectly established or increased because of this amendment.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? Tiering of TAP applicants is applied in times of ‘fiscal constraints’, which is defined as 75% (seventy-five percent) of program funds being disbursed or encumbered.

FISCAL NOTE ON STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT

(1) What units, parts or divisions of state or local government (including cities, counties fire departments, or school districts) will be impacted by this administrative regulation? State agencies or other entities supporting deaf, hard of hearing or speech-impaired individuals will benefit from this amendment, as their consumers will now be able to make an online application for STE or utilize a PAC as an authorized professional. Applicants for STE throughout the Commonwealth will benefit from this amendment as they may now file an application online or utilize a PAC as an authorized professional. KCDHH will benefit from this amendment by not having to outlay funds for diagnostic purposes when STE’s are not typically functional for more than four years and terminology utilized in the program is clarified in definitions.

(2) Identify each state or federal statute or federal regulation that requires or authorizes the action taken by the administrative regulation. State statutory authority; KRS 12.290, 61.878, 163.525, 163.527, 334.010(9), 334.020. Federal statutory authority; 29 U.S.C. Sec 794 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and 42 U.S.C. (b) How much revenue will this administrative regulation generate for the state or local government (including cities, counties, fire departments, or school districts) for subsequent years? No revenue will be generated in subsequent years because of this amendment.

(c) How much will it cost to administer this program for the first year? The cost for administration of the TAP will not increase during the first year because of this amendment, as it is funded as mandated in KRS 278.5499.

(d) How much will it cost to administer this program for subsequent years? The cost for administration of the TAP will not increase during subsequent years because of this amendment, as it is funded as mandated in KRS 278.5499.

Note: If specific dollar estimates cannot be determined, provide a brief narrative to explain the fiscal impact of the administrative regulation.

This administrative regulation establishes the processing system for vendor participation in the TAP as well as outlining requirements for the security, maintenance and repair of the STE distributed.

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: This administrative regulation is necessary to implement the provisions of KRS 163.525(5), which mandates that the KCDHH establish a program to distribute STE to any deaf, hard of hearing, or speech-impaired individual that applies and is determined eligible to receive equipment.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes by establishing the processing system for vendors, security, and the maintenance and repair of equipment distributed through the TAP.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statute: This administrative regulation establishes the processing requirements for vendors awarded a contract to distribute landline and wireless telecommunication devices, as well as describing security, maintenance and repair provision of the TAP.

Notwithstanding any shorter time period permitted under Section 11 of this administrative regulation, test pressure must be maintained for at least eight (8) hours.

Section 2. Pipe Design. (1) Scope. This section prescribes minimum requirements for design of pipe.

(a) Design pressure for steel pipe is determined in accordance with the following formula:

\[ P = \frac{(2St/D)x F x E x T}{F} \]

P = Design pressure in pounds per square inch gauge.
S = Yield strength in pounds per square inch determined in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.
D = Nominal outside diameter of pipe in inches.
I = Nominal wall thickness of pipe in inches. If this is unknown, it is determined in accordance with subsection (5) of this section.
F = Design factor determined in accordance with subsection (6) of this section.
E = Design factor determined in accordance with subsection (7) of this section.
T = Temperature derating factor determined in accordance with subsection (8) of this section.

(b) If steel pipe that has been subjected to cold expansion to meet the SMYS is subsequently heated, other than by welding or stress relieving, as part of welding, design pressure is limited to seventy-five (75) percent of the pressure determined under paragraph (a) of this subsection if temperature of pipe exceeds 900°F (482°C) at any time or is held above 600°F (316°C) for more than one (1) hour.

(4) Yield strength (s) for steel pipe.

(a) For pipe manufactured in accordance with a specification listed in Section I of Appendix B of this administrative regulation, yield strength to be used in the design formula in subsection (3) of this section is the SMYS stated in the listed specification, if that value is known.

(b) For pipe manufactured in accordance with a specification not listed in Section I of Appendix B to this administrative regulation or whose specification or tensile properties are unknown, yield strength to be used in the design formula in subsection (3) of this section is the one of the following:

1. If pipe is tested in accordance with Section II-D of Appendix B to this administrative regulation, the lower of the following:
   a. Eighty (80) percent of average yield strength determined by tensile tests;
   b. The lowest yield strength determined by tensile tests, but no more than 52,000 psi.

2. If pipe is not tested as provided in paragraph (b)1 of this subsection, 24,000 psi.

(5) Nominal wall thickness (t) for steel pipe.

(a) If nominal wall thickness for steel pipe is not known, it is determined by measuring the thickness of each piece of pipe at quarter points on one (1) end.

(b) However, if pipe is of uniform grade, size and thickness and there are more than ten (10) lengths, only ten (10) percent of the individual lengths, but not less than ten (10) lengths, need be measured. Thickness of lengths not measured shall be verified by applying a gauge set to the minimum thickness found by measurement. Nominal wall thickness to be used in the design formula in subsection (3) of this section is the next wall thickness found in the commercial specification, that is below the nominal size of all measurements taken. However, nominal wall thickness used shall not be more than 1.14 times the smallest measurement taken on pipe less than twenty (20) inches in outside diameter, nor more than 1.11 times the smallest measurement taken on pipe twenty (20) inches or more in outside diameter.

(6) Design factor (F) for steel pipe.

3. Are supported by a vehicular, pedestrian, railroad, or pipeline bridge; or
4. Are used in a fabricated assembly (including separators, mainline valve assemblies, cross connections, and river crossing headers) or are used within five (5) pipe diameters in any direction from the last fitting of a fabricated assembly, other than a transition piece of an elbow used in place of a pipe bend not associated with a fabricated assembly.

(c) For Class 2 locations, a design factor of five-tenths (0.50) or less shall be used in the design formula in subsection (3) of this section for uncoated steel pipe that crosses the right-of-way of a hard surfaced road, highway, public street, or railroad.

(d) For Class 1 and Class 2 locations, a design factor of five-tenths (0.50) or less shall be used in the design formula in subsection (3) of this section for uncoated steel pipe that crosses the right-of-way of a hard surfaced road, highway, public street, or railroad.

Section 4. Design of Pipeline Components: (1) Scope. This section prescribes minimum requirements for design and installation of pipeline components and facilities, and it prescribes... requirements relating to protection against accidental overpressuring.

(2) General requirements. Each component of a pipeline shall withstand operating pressures and other anticipated loadings without impairment of serviceability with unit stresses equivalent to those allowed for comparable material in pipe in the same location and kind of service. However, if design based upon unit stress is impractical for a particular component, design may be based upon a pressure rating established by the manufacturer by pressure testing that component or a prototype of the component.

(3) Qualifying metallic components. Notwithstanding any requirement of this section which incorporates by reference an edition of a document listed in Appendix A of this administrative regulation, a metallic component manufactured in accordance with any other edition of that document is qualified for use under this administrative regulation if:

(a) It can be shown through visual inspection of the cleaned component that no defect exists which might impair the strength or tightness of the component; and

(b) The edition of the document under which the component was manufactured has equal or more stringent requirements for the following as an edition of that document currently or previously listed in Appendix A:

1. Pressure testing;
2. Materials; and
3. Pressure and temperature ratings.

(4) Valves.

(a) Except for cast iron and plastic valves, each valve shall meet the minimum requirements, or equivalent, of API 6D. A valve shall not be used under operating conditions that exceed the applicable pressure-temperature ratings contained in those requirements.

(b) Each cast iron and plastic valve shall comply with the following:

1. The valve shall have a maximum service pressure rating for temperatures equal or exceed maximum service temperature.

2. The valve shall be tested as part of the manufacturing, as follows:

a. With the valve fully open, the seat shall be tested with no leakage to a pressure at least one and one-half (1.5) times the maximum service rating.

b. After the seat test, the valve shall be tested to a pressure not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the maximum service pressure rating. Except for swing check valves, test pressure during the seat test shall be applied successively on each side of the closed valve with the opposite side open. No visible leakage is permitted.

c. After the last pressure test is completed, the valve shall be opened through its full travel to demonstrate freedom from interference.

(c) Each valve shall be able to meet anticipated operating conditions.

(d) No valve having shell components made of ductile iron may be used at pressures exceeding eighty (80) percent of pressure ratings for comparable steel valves at their listed temperatures. However, a valve having shell components made of ductile iron may be used at pressures up to eighty (80) percent of pressure ratings for comparable steel valves at their listed temperatures, if:

1. Temperature-adjusted service pressure does not exceed 1,000 psig; and

2. Welding is not used on any ductile iron component in the fabrication of the valve shells or their assembly.

(a) No valve having pressure containing parts made of ductile iron may be used in line pipe components of compressor stations.

(5) Flanges and flange accessories.

(a) Each flange or flange accessory (other than cast iron) shall meet the minimum requirements of ANSI B16.5, MSS SP-44, or equivalent.

(b) Each flange assembly shall withstand the maximum pressure at which the pipeline is to be operated and maintain its physical and chemical properties at any anticipated temperature.

(6) Standard fittings.

(a) Minimum metal thickness of threaded fittings shall not be less than specified for pressures and temperatures in applicable standards referenced in this administrative regulation, or their equivalent.

(a) All gas sold by a utility and all gas consumed by a utility in the State of Kentucky shall be measured through approved type meters that comply with this section except in cases of emergency or when otherwise authorized by the commission in accordance with Section 8 of this administrative regulation. Each meter shall bear an identifying number.
(b) All gas delivered as compensation for leases, rights-of-way, or for other reasons, not charged at the utility's regular schedule of charges, shall be metered and a record shall be kept of each transaction. All meters and regulators installed to measure gas and to regulate pressure of gas shall be under the control of the utility and subject to the rules of the utility and 807 KAR Chapter 5(d.those commission).
(c) The utility shall make no charge for furnishing and installing any meter or appurtenance necessary to measure gas furnished, except by mutual agreement as approved by the commission in accordance with Section 8 of this administrative regulation or if in special cases or except where duplicate or check meters are requested by the customer.
(d) Each gas utility shall adopt a standard method of meter and service line installation, if practicable. These methods shall be set out with a written description and with drawings as necessary for clear understanding of the requirements, all of which shall be filed with the commission. Copies of these standard methods shall be made available to prospective customers, contractors, or others engaged in installing pipe for gas utilization. All meters shall be set in place by the utility or an enclosure where it is unreasonable or uneconomical to measure each unit separately.
(e) The utility may render temporary service to a customer and may require the customer to bear all costs of installing and removing service in excess of any salvage realized. In this respect, temporary service shall be considered to be service that is not required or used for more than one (1) year.
(f) Accuracy requirements for meters. All tests to determine accuracy of registration of any gas meters shall be made by a qualified meter tester certified in accordance with 807 KAR 5.006, Section 17, and with suitable facilities that meet the requirements of subsection (3) of this section.
(a) Diaphragm displacement meters:
1. Before being installed for use by any customer, every diaphragm displacement gas meter, whether new, repaired, or removed from service for any cause shall be in good working condition and shall be adjusted to be correct to within one-half (1/2) of one (1) percent, plus or minus when passing gas at approximately twenty (20) percent and 100 percent of the rated capacity of the meter as specified by the manufacturer based on five-tenths (0.5) inch water column differential. A pilot test or quartering test to determine that the meter will register at one-half (1/2) of one (1) percent of the rated capacity shall be made before placing meters in service.
2. Meters removed from service for periodic testing shall be tested for accuracy as soon as practical after removal. An "as found" test shall be made at a flow-rate of approximately twenty (20) percent and 100 percent of the rated capacity of the meter based on five-tenths (0.5) inch water column differential and results of these tests algebraically averaged to determine accuracy. If error is less than two (2) percent, this shall be reported as the "as found" test. If error is more than two (2) percent, two (2) additional tests shall be made at twenty (20) percent and 100 percent, and the average of these three tests shall be reported as the "as found" test. The three (3) test procedures shall apply to any customer request test, complaint test, or bill adjustment made on the basis of the meter.

3. Meters of good working condition that are removed from service for reasons other than periodic, customer, or commission request tests shall be tested as soon as practicable after removal if elapsed time since the last test exceeds fifty (50) percent of the periodic test period for those meters.

(b) Other than diaphragm displacement meters.

1. All meters other than diaphragm displacement meters shall be tested at approved intervals required by subsection (4) of this section by the utility meter tester using flow provers or other approved methods approved in accordance with the requirements of this section either in the shop or at the location of use at the utility’s option and with facilities that meet the requirements of subsection (3) of this section with the commission’s approval of facilities and methods used. Accuracy of these meters shall be maintained as near 100 percent as possible. Test ranges and procedures shall be as prescribed in subsection (3) of this section (adopted standards or approved by the commission).

2. All meter installations shall be inspected for proper design and construction and all instruments, regulators, and valves used in conjunction with installation shall be tested for desired operation and accuracy before being placed in service. This inspection shall be made by a qualified person. Test data as to conditions found, corrected if in error, and conditions as left shall be made available for inspection by commission staff. Subsequent test results shall be a portion of regular meter test reports submitted to the commission by the utility.

(a) Meter testing facilities and equipment.

1. Each utility, unless specifically excepted by the commission, shall own and make proper provision to operate at least one (1) approved belltype meter prover, preferably of ten (10) cubic feet capacity, but not in no case of less than five (5) cubic feet capacity. The prover shall be equipped with suitable thermometers and other necessary accessories. This equipment shall be maintained in proper condition and adjustment so that it shall be capable of determining the accuracy of any service meter, practical to test by it, to within one-half (1/2) of one (1) percent plus or minus.

2. The prover shall be located in a readily accessible location and approved by the utility. The proving room or the entire meter shop shall be air conditioned, if necessary, to achieve satisfactory temperature control required by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

3. The proving room shall be well lighted and preferably not on an outside wall of the building. Temperatures within the proving room shall not vary more than two (2) degrees Fahrenheit per hour nor more than five (5) degrees Fahrenheit over a twenty-four (24) hour period.

1. Each utility, unless specifically excepted by the commission, shall own and make proper provision to operate at least one (1) approved belltype meter prover, preferably of ten (10) cubic feet capacity, but not in no case of less than five (5) cubic feet capacity. The prover shall be equipped with suitable thermometers and other necessary accessories. This equipment shall be maintained in proper condition and adjustment so that it shall be capable of determining the accuracy of any service meter, practical to test by it, to within one-half (1/2) of one (1) percent plus or minus.

2. The prover shall be accurate to within three-tenths (0.3) of one (1) percent at each point used in testing meters.

3. The prover shall not be located near any radiator, heater, steam pipe, or hot or cold air duct. Direct sunlight shall not be allowed to fall on the prover or the meters under test.

4. During conditions of satisfactory operation air temperature in the prover shall be within one (1) degree Fahrenheit of the ambient temperature, and oil temperature in the prover shall not differ from the temperature of ambient air by more than one (1) degree Fahrenheit.

5. Meters to be tested shall be stored in a [avoid] manner that temperature of the meters is substantially the same as temperature of the prover. To achieve this, meters shall be placed in the environment of the prover for a minimum of five (5) hours.

(c) All testing instruments and other equipment certified by the commission shall be accompanied at all times by a certificate showing the date when it was last tested and adjusted. The certificate [must] be signed by a proper authority of the party providing the certification [designated by the commission]. A tag referring to the [such] certificate may be attached to the instruments [when] practicable. These certificates, when superseded, shall be kept on file by the utility.

(d) Sixty (60) days after the effective date of a commission order granting convenience and necessity for a new utility, that utility shall advise the commission in writing as to kind and amount of testing equipment available.

Section 4[9]. Customer[Meters, Service Regulators, and Service Line Extensions and Connections|Lines]. (1)[Scope. This section provides minimum requirements for installing customer meters, service regulators, service lines, service line valves, and service line connections to mains.]

(a) Each meter and service regulator, whether inside or outside of a building, shall be installed in a readily accessible location and protected from corrosion and other damage.

(b) Meters shall be easily accessible for reading, testing and making necessary adjustments and repairs, and where indoor type meters are necessary they shall be installed in a clean, dry, safe, convenient place. Unless absolutely unavoidable, meters shall not be installed in any location where visits of the meter reader or tester will cause annoyance to the customer or severe inconvenience to the utility. Existing meters located in places not permitted by rule shall be relocated by the customer or owner to an approved position.

(c) Proper provision shall be made by the customer for installation of the utility’s meter. At least six (6) inches clear space shall be available, if possible, on all sides of the meter and not less... than thirty (30) inches in front of it. When installed within a building, a to be placed in a modified place and not less than three (3) feet from any source of ignition or any source of heat which might damage the meter.

(d) When a number of meters are placed in the same location, each meter shall be tagged or marked to indicate the customer served by it and such identification shall be preserved and maintained by the owner of the premises served.

(e) When the distance between the utility’s main and nearest point of consumption is more than 150 feet, the meter shall be located as near to the utility’s main as may be practicable. This provision shall apply when any part of the service line has been constructed by either the customer or utility.

(f) When a customer is served from a pipeline operating in excess of sixty (60) psig the meters, regulators and safety devices shall be located as near to the utility’s pipeline as practicable.

(g) Each service regulator installed within a building shall be located as near to the building entrance.

(h) Where feasible, the upstream regulator in a series shall be located outside the building when it is located in a separate metering or regulating building.

(i) Customer meters and regulators: protection from damage.

(a) Protection from vacuum or back pressure. If the customer’s equipment might create either a vacuum or a back pressure, a device shall be installed to protect the system.

(b) Service regulator vents and relief vents. Service regulator vents and relief vents shall terminate outdoors, and the outdoor terminal shall be:

1. Rain and insect resistant;
2. Located at a place where gas from the vent can escape freely into the atmosphere and away from any opening into the building; and
3. Protected from damage caused by submergence in areas where flooding may occur.

(c) Pits and vaults. Each pit or vault that houses a customer meter or regulator shall be supported to minimize stress upon the connecting piping and the

(d) Use of all thread (close) nipples is prohibited.

(e) Connections made of lead or other easily damaged material shall not be used in installation of meters or regulators.

(f) Each regulator that might release gas in its operation shall be vented to the outside atmosphere and shall–have a vent pipe sized no smaller than the manufacturer’s vent connection built into the regulator.

(g) Joining of service lines. All underground steel service lines shall be joined by threaded and coupled joints, compression type fittings, or by qualified welding procedures and operators.

(h) When coated steel pipe is to be installed as a service line in a bore, care shall be exercised to prevent damage to the coating during installation. For all installations to be made by boring, driving or similar methods in a rocky type soil, the following practices or their equivalents are recommended:

1. Coated-pipe should not be used as the bore pipe or drive pipe and left in the ground as part of the service line. It is preferable to make such installations by first making an average bore, removing the pipe used for boring and then inserting the coated pipe.

2. Coated steel pipe preferably should not be inserted through a bore in exceptionally rocky soil where there is a likelihood of damage to the coating resulting from insertion.

3. Recommendations in subparagraphs 1 and 2 of this subsection do not apply where coated pipe is installed under conditions where the coating is not likely to be damaged, such as in sandy soil.

(j) Service line: valve requirements.

(a) Each service line shall have a service-line valve that meets applicable requirements of Sections 2 and 4 of this administrative regulation. A valve incorporated in a meter bar, that allows the meter to be bypassed, shall not be used as a service line valve.

(b) A soft seal service line valve shall not be used if its ability to control flow of gas could be adversely affected by exposure to anticipated heat.

(c) Each service line valve on a high-pressure service line, installed above ground or in an area where blowing gas would be hazardous, shall be designed and constructed to minimize the possibility of removal of the valve core with other than specialized tools.

(k) Service lines: location of valves.

(a) Relation to regulator or meter. Each service line valve shall be installed upstream of the regulator or, if there is not regulator, upstream of the meter.

(b) Outside valves. Each service line shall have a shutoff valve in a readily accessible location that, if feasible, is outside of the building.

(c) Underground valves. Each underground service line valve shall be located within a covered, durable curb box or standpipe that allows ready operation of the valve. The curb box shall be supported independently of the service line.

(l) Service lines general requirements for connections to main piping.

(a) Location. Each service line connection to a main shall be located at the top of the main, or, if not practical, at the side of the main, unless a suitable protective device is installed to minimize possibility of dust and moisture being carried from the main into the service line.

(b) Compression type connection to main. Each compression type service line to main connection shall:
1. Be designed and installed to effectively sustain longitudinal pullout or thrust forces caused by contraction or expansion of piping, or by anticipated external or internal loading; and

2. If gaskets are used in connecting the service line to the main connection fitting, gaskets shall be compatible with the kind of gas in the system.

(1b) Service lines: connection to cast iron or ductile iron main.
   (a) Each service line connected to a cast iron or ductile iron main shall be connected by a mechanical clamp, by drilling and tapping the main, or by another method meeting requirements of Section 8 of this administrative regulation.
   (b) If a threaded tap is being inserted, the requirements of Section 4(b) and (c) of this administrative regulation shall also be met.

(11) Service lines: steel. Each steel service line to be operated at less than 100 psig shall be constructed of pipe designed for a minimum of 100 psig.

(12) Service lines: cast iron and ductile iron. Cast or ductile iron pipe shall not be installed for service lines.

(13) Service lines: plastic.
   (a) Each service line outside a building shall be installed below ground level, except that it may terminate above ground and outside the building if:
      1. The above ground part of the plastic service line is protected against deterioration and external damage; and
      2. The plastic service line is not used to support external loads.
   (b) Each plastic service line inside a building shall be protected against external damage.

(14) Service lines: copper. Each copper service line installed within a building shall be protected against external damage.

(15) New service lines not in use. Each service line not placed in service upon completion of installation shall comply with one (1) of the following until the customer is supplied with gas:
   (a) The valve that is closed to prevent flow of gas to the customer shall be provided with a locking device or other means designed to prevent opening of the valve by persons other than those authorized by the operator.
   (b) A mechanical device or fitting that will prevent flow of gas shall be installed in the service line or in the meter assembly.
   (c) The customer's piping shall be physically disconnected from the gas supply, and the open pipe ends sealed.

(18) Extension of services.
   (a) Normal extension. An extension of 100 feet or less shall be made by a utility to an existing distribution main without charge for a prospective customer who shall apply for and contract to use service for one (1) year or more and provides guarantee for the[extension service.
   (b) Other extensions.
      1. [When the extension of the utility's main to serve an applicant or group of applicants amounts to more than 100 feet per customer, the utility shall, if not inconsistent with its filed tariff, require the total cost of the excessive footage over 100 feet per customer to be deposited with the utility by the applicant[applicant[s], based on average estimated cost per foot of the total extension.
      2. Each customer receiving service under this extension shall[extension will be reimbursed under the following plan: each year for a refund period of not less than ten (10) years, the utility shall refund to the customer[customers] who paid for the excessive footage, the cost of 100 feet of extension in place for each additional customer connected during the year whose service line is directly connected to the extension installed, and not to extensions or laterals therefrom. Total amount refunded shall not exceed the amount paid to the utility. After the end of the refund period, no refund shall be required.
      (c) An applicant desiring an extension to a proposed real estate subdivision may be required to pay all costs of the extension. Each year for a refund period of not less than ten (10) years, the utility shall refund to the applicant who paid for the extension a sum equivalent to the cost of 100 feet of extension installed for each additional customer connected during the year. Total amount refunded shall not exceed the amount paid to the utility. After the end of the refund period from the completion of the extension, g[extension refund shall not be required.
   (d) Nothing contained in this administrative regulation[herein] shall be construed to prohibit the utility from making extensions under different arrangements if these[provided such] arrangements have been included in the utility's tariff and approved by the commission.
   (e) Nothing contained in this administrative regulation[herein] shall be construed to prohibit a utility from making, at its expense, greater extensions than[herein] prescribed, if[provided] the same free extensions are made to other customers under similar conditions.
   (f) Upon complaint to and investigation by the commission, a utility may be required to construct extensions greater than 100 feet upon a finding by the commission that the[extension extension is reasonable.

(2)(417) Service connections.
   (a) Ownership of service lines.
      1. Utility's responsibility. When a utility establishes new service to a customer or an existing service line is repaired or replaced [in urban areas with well defined streets], the utility shall furnish and install at its own expense, for the purpose of connecting its distribution system to customer premises, the[that portion of] service line[pipe] from its main to the meter,[property line or to and] including the curb stop and curb box if used.[The curb stop may be installed at a convenient place between property line and curb.] If meters are located outdoors, the curb box and curb stop may be omitted if meter installation is provided with a stopcock and connection to the distribution main is made with a service tee that incorporates a positive shutoff device that can be operated with ordinary, readily available tools and the service tee is not located under pavement.
      2. Customer's responsibility. The customer[or the company at its option and with commission approval] shall furnish and install[as] necessary pipe to make the connection from the meter[curb stop] to place of consumption and shall keep the service line in good repair and in accordance with reasonable requirements of the utility's rules and 807 KAR Chapter 5, the commission's administrative regulations.
   3. Inspection. In the installation of a service line, [the customer shall not install any tees or branch connections and shall leave the trench open and pipe uncoverd until it is examined by an inspector of the utility and shown to be free from any irregularity or defect. The utility shall test all piping downstream from the meter for gas leaks, each time gas is turned on by the utility, by observing that no gas passes through the meter when all appliances are turned off. The utility shall refuse to serve until all gas leaks so disclosed have been properly repaired.
   4. Location of service. The customer's service line shall extend to the nearest point of accessibility to the utility from its distribution system. When a reasonable doubt exists as to the proper location of the service line, the utility shall be consulted and its approval for the location secured.
   (b) All services shall be equipped with a stopcock near the meter. If the service is not equipped with an outside shutoff, the inside shutoff shall be of a type which can be sealed in the off position. [Section 10. Requirements for Corrision Control. (1) Scope of Section. This subsection prescribes minimum requirements for protection of metallic pipelines from external, internal and atmospheric corrosion.
   (2) Applicability to converted pipelines. Notwithstanding the date the pipeline was installed or any earlier deadlines for compliance, each pipeline which qualifies for use under this administrative regulation in accordance with Section 1(7) of this administrative regulation shall meet the requirements of this subsection specifically applicable to pipelines installed before August 1, 1971, and all other applicable requirements within one (1) year after the pipeline is ready for service. However, the requirements of this section specifically applicable to pipelines installed after July 31, 1971, apply if the pipeline substantially meets those requirements before it is ready for service or if it is a separately warranted or separately constructed section that is not to be connected to the present system.
   (3) General. Each operator shall establish procedures to implement the requirements of this section. These procedures, including those for design, installation, operation and maintenance of cathodic protection systems, shall be carried out by, or under the direction of a person qualified by experience and training in pipeline corrosion control methods.

(4) External corrosion control: buried or submerged pipelines installed after July 31, 1971.

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), and (f) of this subsection, each buried or submerged pipeline installed after July 31, 1971, shall be protected against external corrosion, including the following:

1. It shall have an external protective coating meeting the requirements of subsection (7) of this section.

2. It shall have a cathodic protection system designed to protect the pipeline in its entirety in accordance with this subsection, installed and placed in operation within one (1) year after completion of construction.

(b) An operator need not comply with paragraph (a) of this subsection if the operator can demonstrate by tests, investigation, or experience in the area of application, including, as a minimum, soil resistivity measurements and tests for corrosion accelerating bacteria, that a corrosive environment does not exist. However, within six (6) months after an installation made pursuant to the preceding sentence, the operator shall conduct tests, including pipe-to-soil potential measurements with respect to either a continuous reference electrode or an electrode using close spacing, not to exceed twenty (20) feet, and soil resistivity measurements at potential peak locations, to adequately evaluate the potential profile along the entire pipeline. If these tests indicate that a corrosive condition exists, the pipeline shall be cathodically protected in accordance with paragraph (a)2 of this subsection.

(c) An operator need not comply with paragraph (a) of this subsection if the operator can demonstrate by tests, investigation, or experience that:

1. For a copper pipeline, a corrosive environment does not exist; or

2. For a temporary pipeline with an operating period of service not to exceed five (5) years beyond installation, corrosion during the five (5) year period of service of the pipeline will not be detrimental to public safety.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (b) or (c) of this subsection, if a pipeline is externally coated, it shall be cathodically protected in accordance with paragraph (a)2 of this subsection.

(e) Aluminum shall not be installed in buried or submerged pipeline if that aluminum is exposed to an environment with a natural pH in excess of eight (8) unless tests or experience indicate its suitability in the particular environment involved.

(f) This subsection does not apply to electrically isolated, metal alloy fittings in plastic pipelines if:

1. For the size fitting used, an operator can show by tests, investigation, or experience in the area of application that adequate corrosion control is provided by alloyage; and

2. The fitting is designed to prevent leakage caused by localized corrosion pitting.

(5) External corrosion control: buried or submerged pipelines installed before August 1, 1971.

(a) Except for buried piping at compressor, regulator, and measuring stations, each buried or submerged transmission line installed before August 1, 1971, that has an effective external coating shall be cathodically protected along the entire area that is effectively coated in accordance with this section. For the purposes of this section, pipeline does not have effective external coating if its cathodic protection current requirements are substantially the same as if it were bare. The operator shall make tests to determine cathodic protection current requirements.

(b) Except for cast iron or ductile iron, each of the following buried or submerged pipelines installed before August 1, 1971, shall be cathodically protected in accordance with this section in areas in which active corrosion is found:

1. Bare or coated distribution lines.

2. Bare or coated pipelines at compressor, regulator, and measuring stations.

3. Bare or coated distribution lines. The operator shall determine areas of active corrosion by electrical survey, or where electrical survey is impractical, by study of corrosion and leak history records, leak detection survey, or other means.

(c) For the purpose of this section, active corrosion means corrosion which, unless controlled, could result in a condition that is detrimental to public safety.

(6) External corrosion control: examination of buried pipeline when exposed. Whenever an operator has knowledge that any portion of a buried pipeline is exposed, the exposed portion shall be examined for evidence of external corrosion if the pipe is bare, or if the coating is deteriorated. If external corrosion is found, remedial action shall be taken to the extent required by subsection (18) of this section and applicable paragraphs of subsections (19), (20), or (21) of this section.

(7) External corrosion control: protective coating.

4. Have sufficient strength to resist damage due to handling and soil stress; and

5. Have properties compatible with any supplemental cathodic protection.

(b) Each external protective coating which is an electrically insulating type shall also have low moisture absorption and high electrical resistance.

(d) Each external protective coating shall be protected from damage resulting from adverse ditch conditions or supporting blocks.

(e) If coated pipe is installed by boring, driving, or other similar method, precautions shall be taken to minimize damage to the coating during installation.

(8) External corrosion control: cathodic protection.

(a) Each cathodic protection system required by this subsection shall provide a level of cathodic protection that complies with one (1) or more of the applicable criteria contained in Appendix D of this administrative regulation. If none of these criteria is applicable, the cathodic protection system shall provide a level of cathodic protection at least equal to that provided by compliance with one (1) or more of these criteria.

(b) If amphoteric metals are included in a buried or submerged pipeline containing a metal of different anodic potential:

1. Amphoteric metals shall be electrically isolated from the remaining pipeline and cathodically protected, or

2. The entire buried or submerged pipeline shall be cathodically protected at a cathodic potential that meets the requirements of Appendix D of this administrative regulation for amphoteric metals.

(c) The amount of cathodic protection shall be controlled to prevent damage to protective coating or pipe.

(9) External corrosion control: monitoring.

(a) Each pipeline that is under cathodic protection shall be tested at least once each calendar year but with intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months to determine whether the cathodic protection meets the requirements of subsection (8) of this section. However, if tests at those intervals are impractical for separately protected short sections of mains or transmission lines, not in excess of one hundred (100) feet, or separately protected service lines, the entire pipeline may be surveyed on a sampling basis. At least ten (10) percent of these protected structures, distributed over the entire system shall be surveyed each calendar year, with a different ten (10) percent checked each subsequent year, so that the entire system is tested in each ten (10) year period.

(b) Each cathodic protection rectifier or other impressed power source shall be inspected six (6) times each calendar year, but with intervals not exceeding two and one-half (2 1/2) months, to ensure that it is operating.
(c) Each reverse current switch, diode, and interference bond whose failure would jeopardize structure protection shall be electrically checked for proper performance, six (6) times each calendar year, but with intervals not exceeding two and one-half (2 1/2) months. Each other interference bond shall be checked at least once each calendar year, but with intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months.

(d) Each operator shall take prompt remedial action to correct any deficiencies indicated by the monitoring.

(e) After the initial evaluation required by subsection (4)(b) and (c) and subsection (5)(b) of this section, each operator shall, at intervals not exceeding three (3) years, reevaluate its unprotected pipelines and cathodically protect them in accordance with this subsection in areas in which active corrosion is found. The operator shall determine areas of active corrosion by electrical survey, or where electrical survey is impractical, by study of corrosion and leak history records, leak detection survey, or other means.

(10) External corrosion control: electrical isolation.

(a) Each buried or submerged pipeline shall be electrically isolated from other underground metallic structures, unless the pipeline and other structures are electrically interconnected and cathodically protected as a single unit.

(b) One (1) or more insulating devices shall be installed where electrical isolation of a portion of a pipeline is necessary to facilitate application of corrosion control.

(c) Except for unprotected copper inserted in ferrous pipe, each pipeline segment shall be electrically isolated from metallic casing that are part of the underground system. However, if isolation is not achieved because it is impractical, other measures shall be taken to minimize corrosion of the pipeline inside the casing.

(d) Inspection and electrical tests shall be made to assure that electrical isolation is adequate.

(11) Insulating devices shall not be installed in an area where a combustible atmosphere is anticipated unless precautions are taken to prevent arcing.

(i) Where a pipeline is located close to electrical transmission tower footings, ground cables or counterpoise, or in other areas where fault currents or unusual risk of lightning may be anticipated, it shall be protected against damage due to fault currents or lightning, and protective measures shall be taken at insulating devices. A study shall be made in collaboration with the electric company on common problems of corrosion and electrostatic and taking the following factors into consideration:

1. Possibility of the pipeline carrying either unbalanced line currents or fault currents.

2. Possibility of lightning or fault currents inducing voltages sufficient to puncture pipe coatings or pipe.

3. Cathodic protection of the pipeline, including location of ground beds, especially if the electric line is carried on steel towers.

4. Bonding connections between the pipeline and either the steel tower footings or buried ground facilities or groundwire of the overhead electric system.

(11) External corrosion control: test stations. Each pipeline under cathodic protection required by this subsection shall have sufficient test stations or other contact points for electrical measurement to determine the adequacy of cathodic protection.

(12) External corrosion control: test leads.

(a) Each test lead wire shall be connected to the pipeline to remain mechanically secure and electrically conductive.

(b) Each test lead wire shall be attached to the pipeline to minimize stress concentration on the pipe.

(c) Each extended lead wire shall have a metal area at points of connection to the pipeline shall be coated with electrical insulating material compatible with the pipe coating and insulation on the wire.

(13) External corrosion control: interference currents.

(a) Each operator whose pipeline system is subjected to stray currents shall have in effect a continuing program to minimize detrimental effects.

(b) Each impressed current type cathodic protection system or galvanic anode system shall be designed and installed to minimize any adverse effects on existing adjacent underground metallic structures.

(14) Internal corrosion control: general.

(a) Corrosive gas shall not be transported by pipeline, unless the corrosive effect of the gas on the pipeline has been investigated and steps have been taken to minimize internal corrosion.

(b) Whenever any pipe is removed from a pipeline for any reason, the internal surface shall be inspected for evidence of corrosion. If internal corrosion is found:

1. Adjacent pipe shall be investigated to determine the extent of internal corrosion;

2. Replacement shall be made to the extent required by applicable paragraphs of subsections (19), (20) and (21) of this section and:

3. Steps shall be taken to minimize the internal corrosion.

(c) Gas containing more than one tenth (0.1) grain of hydrogen sulfide per 100 standard cubic feet shall not be stored in pipe type or bottle-type holders.

(15) Internal corrosion control: monitoring. If corrosive gas is being transported, coupons or other suitable means shall be used to determine effectiveness of steps taken to minimize internal corrosion. Each coupon or other means of monitoring internal corrosion shall be checked two (2) times each calendar year, but with intervals not exceeding seven and one-half (7 1/2) months.

(16) Atmospheric corrosion control: general.

(a) Pipelines installed after July 31, 1971. Each aboveground pipeline segment shall be protected against corrosion to the extent required by applicable paragraphs of subsections (19), (20) and (21) of this section.

(b) Pipelines installed before August 1, 1971. Each operator having an aboveground pipeline segment installed before August 1, 1971, exposed to the atmosphere, shall:

1. Determine areas of atmospheric corrosion on the pipeline;

2. If atmospheric corrosion is found, take remedial measures to the extent required by applicable paragraphs of subsections (19), (20), or (21) of this section; and

3. Clean and either coat or jacket areas of atmospheric corrosion on the pipeline with material suitable for prevention of atmospheric corrosion.

(17) Atmospheric corrosion control: monitoring. After meeting the requirements of subsection (16)(a) and (b) of this section, each operator shall, at intervals not exceeding three (3) years, reevaluate each pipeline exposed to the atmosphere and take protective action whenever necessary against atmospheric corrosion.

(18) Remedial measures: general.

(a) General corrosion. Each segment of transmission line with general corrosion and with a remaining wall thickness less than that required for maximum allowable operating pressure of the pipeline shall be replaced or operating pressure reduced commensurate with the strength of the pipe, based on actual remaining wall thickness. However, if the area of general corrosion is small, the corroded pipe may be repaired. Corrosion pitting so closely grouped as to be considered general corrosion for the purpose of this paragraph.

(b) Localized corrosion pitting. Each segment of transmission line pipe with localized corrosion pitting to a degree where leakage might result shall be replaced or repaired, or operating pressure shall be reduced commensurate with the strength of the pipe, based on actual remaining wall thickness in the pits.

(20) Remedial measures: distribution lines other than cast iron or ductile iron lines.

(a) General corrosion. Except for cast iron or ductile iron pipe, each segment of generally corroded distribution line pipe with remaining wall thickness less than that required for maximum allowable operating pressure of the pipeline, or remaining wall thickness less than thirty (30) percent of the nominal wall thickness, shall be replaced. However, if the area of general corrosion is small, the corroded pipe may be repaired. Corrosion pitting shall be closely grouped so as to affect overall strength of the pipe; is considered general corrosion for the purpose of this paragraph.

(b) Localized corrosion pitting. Except for cast iron or ductile iron pipe, each segment of distribution line pipe with localized corrosion pitting to a degree where leakage might result shall be replaced or repaired.

(21) Remedial measures: cast iron and ductile iron pipelines.

(a) General graphitization. Each segment of cast iron or ductile iron pipe on which general graphitization is found to a degree where fracture or leakage might result shall be replaced.

(b) Localized graphitization. Each segment of cast iron or ductile iron pipe on which localized graphitization is found to a degree where leakage might result, shall be replaced or repaired, or sealed by internal sealing methods adequate to prevent or arrest leakage.

(22) Corrosion control records.

(a) Each operator shall maintain records or maps to show the location of cathodically protected piping, cathodic protection facilities, other than recorded galvanic anodes installed before August 1, 1971, and neighboring structures bonded to the cathodic protection system.

2. Records of each test, survey, or inspection required by this subsection, in sufficient detail to demonstrate the adequacy of corrosion control measures or that a corrosive condition does not exist.

Section 11. Test Requirements. (1) Scope. This section prescribes minimum leak test and strength test requirements for pipelines.

(2) General requirements.

(a) No person shall operate a new segment of pipeline, or return to service a segment of pipeline that has been relocated or replaced, until:

1. It has been tested in accordance with this section and Section 13(11) of this administrative regulation to substantiate maximum allowable operating pressure; and
2. Each potentially hazardous leak has been located and eliminated.

(b) The test medium shall be liquid, air, natural gas or inert gas that is:

1. Compatible with the material of which the pipeline is constructed;
2. Relatively free of sedimentary materials; and

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Natural Gas</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(d) Each joint used to tie-in a test segment of pipeline is excepted from specific test requirements of this section, but it must be leak tested at not less than its operating pressure.

(3) Strength test requirements for steel pipeline to operate at hoop stress of thirty (30) percent or more of SMYS:

(a) Except for service lines, each segment of steel pipeline that is to operate at hoop stress of thirty (30) percent or more of SMYS shall be strength tested in accordance with this section to substantiate the proposed maximum allowable operating pressure.

In addition, in a Class 1 or Class 2 location, if there is a building intended for human occupancy within 300 feet of a pipeline, a hydrostatic test shall be conducted to a test pressure of at least 125 percent of maximum operating pressure on that segment of pipeline within 300 feet of that building, but in no event may the test section be less than 600 feet unless the length of the newly installed or relocated pipe is less than 600 feet. However, if the buildings are evacuated while hoop stress exceeds fifty (50) percent of SMYS, air or inert gas may be used as the test medium.

(b) In a Class 1 or Class 2 location, each compressor station, regulator station and measuring station shall be tested to Class 3 location test requirements.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection, strength test shall be conducted by maintaining pressure at or above the test pressure for at least eight (8) hours.

(d) If a component other than pipe is the only item being replaced or added to pipeline, a strength test after installation is not required, if the manufacturer of the component certifies that:

1. The component was tested to at least the pressure required for the pipeline to which it is being added, or
2. The component was manufactured under a quality control system that ensures that each item manufactured is at least equal in strength to a prototype and that the prototype was tested to at least the pressure required for the pipeline to which it is being added.

(a) For fabricated units and short sections of pipe, for which a postinstallation test is impractical, preinstallation strength test shall be conducted by maintaining pressure at or above test pressure for at least four (4) hours.

(b) Test requirements for pipelines to operate at hoop stress less than thirty (30) percent of SMYS and at or above 100 psig. Except for service lines and plastic pipelines, each segment of pipeline to be operated at hoop stress less than thirty (30) percent of SMYS and at or above 100 psig shall be leak tested in accordance with the following:

(a) The pipeline operator shall use a test procedure that will insure discovery of all potentially hazardous leaks in the segment being tested.

(b) If, during the test, the segment is to be stressed to twenty (20) percent or more of SMYS, and natural gas, air or inert gas is the test medium:

1. A leak test shall be made at pressure between 100 psig and the pressure required to produce hoop stress of twenty (20) percent of SMYS; or
2. The line shall be walked to check for leaks while hoop stress is held at approximately twenty (20) percent of SMYS.

(c) Pressure shall be maintained at or above test pressure for at least one (1) hour.

(d) Test requirements for pipelines to operate below 100 psig. Except for service lines and plastic pipelines, each segment of pipeline to be operated below 100 psig shall be leak tested in accordance with the following:

If feasible, the service-line connection to the main shall be included in the test; if not feasible, it shall be given a leakage test at the operating pressure when placed in service.

(b) Each segment of service line shall be leak tested in accordance with this section before being placed in service. If feasible, the service-line connection to the main shall be included in the test; if not feasible, it shall be given a leakage test at the operating pressure when placed in service.
than fifty (50) psig.
(c) Each segment of service line (other than plastic) to be operated at pressures of more than forty (40) psig shall be tested to the maximum operating pressure or ninety (90) psig, whichever is greater, except that each segment of steel service line stressed to twenty (20) percent or more of SMYS shall be tested in accordance with subsection (A) of this section.
(7) Test requirements for plastic pipelines.
(a) Each segment of plastic pipeline shall be tested in accordance with this subsection.
(b) The test procedure shall ensure discovery of all potentially hazardous leaks in the segment being tested.
(c) The test pressure shall be at least 150 percent of maximum operating pressure or fifty (50) psig, whichever is greater. However, maximum test pressure shall not be more than three (3) times the design pressure of the pipe.
(d) Temperature of thermoplastic material shall be no more than 100 degrees Fahrenheit during the test.
(8) Environmental protection and safety requirements.
(a) In conducting tests under this subsection, each operator shall ensure that every reasonable precaution is taken to protect its employees and the general public during testing. Whenever hoop stress of the segment of pipeline being tested will exceed fifty (50) percent of SMYS, the operator shall take all practicable steps to keep persons not working on the testing operation outside the testing area until pressure is reduced to or below the proposed maximum allowable operating pressure.
(b) The operator shall ensure that the test medium is disposed of in a manner that will minimize damage to the environment.
(9) Records. Each operator shall make, and retain for the useful life of the pipeline, a record of each test performed under subsections (3) and (4) of this section. The record shall contain at least the following information:
(a) Operator’s name, name of operator’s employee responsible for making the test, and name of any test company used.
(b) Test medium used.
(c) Test pressure.
(d) Test duration.
(e) Pressure recording charts, or other record of pressure readings.
(f) Elevation variations, whenever significant for the particular test.
(g) Leaks and failures noted and their disposition.
Section 12. Uprating. (1) Scope. This subsection prescribes minimum requirements for increasing maximum allowable operating pressures (uprating) for pipelines.
(2) General requirements.
(a) Pressure increases. Whenever provisions of this subsection require that an increase in operating pressure be made in increments, pressure shall be increased gradually, at a rate that can be controlled, and in accordance with the following:
1. At the end of each incremental increase, pressure shall be held constant while the entire segment of pipeline affected is checked for leaks.
2. Each leak detected shall be repaired before further pressure increase is made, except that a leak deemed nonhazardous need not be repaired if it is monitored during pressure increase and it does not become hazardous.
(b) Records. Each operator who uprates a segment of pipeline shall retain for the life of the segment a record of each investigation required by this subsection, all work performed, and each pressure test conducted, in connection with the uprating.
(c) Written plan. Each operator who uprates a segment of pipeline shall establish a written procedure that will ensure compliance with each applicable requirement of this subsection.
(d) Limitation on increase in maximum allowable operating pressure. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, a new maximum allowable operating pressure established under this subsection shall not exceed the maximum that would be allowed under the part for a new segment of pipeline constructed of the same materials in the same location.
(3) Uprating to a pressure that will produce hoop stress of thirty (30) percent or more of SMYS in steel pipeline.
(a) Unless the requirements of this section have been met, no person shall subject any segment of steel pipeline to operating pressure that will produce hoop stress of thirty (30) percent or more of SMYS and that is above the established maximum allowable operating pressure.
(b) Before increasing operating pressure above the previously established maximum allowable operating pressure, the operator shall:
1. Review the design, operation, and maintenance history, and previous testing of the segment of pipeline to determine if the proposed increase is safe and consistent with the requirements of this part, and
2. Make any repairs, replacements, or alterations in the segment of pipeline that are necessary for safe operation at the increased pressure.
(c) Written plan. Each operator who uprates a segment of pipeline constructed before September 12, 1970, to the highest pressure that is permitted under Section 13(11) of this administrative regulation, using as test pressure the highest pressure subjected (either in a strength test or in actual operation).
(d) After complying with paragraph (b) of this subsection, an operator may increase maximum allowable operating pressure of a segment of pipeline in a Class 1 location if the line has not previously been tested; and if:
1. It is impractical to test it in accordance with the requirements of this part; and
2. The new maximum operating pressure does not exceed eighty (80) percent of that allowed for a new line of the same design in the same location; and
(c) The operator determines that the new maximum allowable operating pressure is consistent with the condition of the segment of pipeline and the design requirements of this administrative regulation.
(e) Where a segment of pipeline is uprated in accordance with paragraph (c) or (d) of this subsection, the increase in pressure shall be made in increments that are equal to:
1. Ten (10) percent of the pressure before the uprating; or
2. Twenty-five (25) percent of total pressure increase, whichever produces the fewer number of increments.
(f) Uprating: Steel pipelines to a pressure that will produce hoop stress less than thirty (30) percent of SMYS, cast iron, and ductile iron pipelines.
(a) Unless requirements of this subsection have been met, no person shall subject:
1. A segment of steel pipeline to operating pressure that will produce hoop stress less than thirty (30) percent of SMYS and is above the previously established maximum allowable operating pressure or
2. A plastic, cast iron, or ductile iron pipeline segment to an operating pressure above the previously established maximum allowable operating pressure.
(b) Before increasing pressure above the previously established maximum allowable operating pressure, the operator shall:
1. Review the design, operation, and maintenance history of the segment of pipeline;
2. Make a leakage survey (if it has been more than one (1) year since the last survey) and repair any leaks that are found, except that a leak deemed nonhazardous need not be repaired if it is monitored during the pressure increase and it does not become hazardous;
3. Make any repairs, replacements, or alterations in the segment of pipeline that are necessary for safe operation at the increased pressure;
4. Reinforce or anchor offsets, bends and dead ends in pipe joined by compression couplings or bell and spigot joints to prevent failure of the pipe joint, if the offset, bend or dead end is exposed in an excavation;
5. Isolate the segment of pipeline in which pressure is to be increased from any adjacent segment that will continue to be operated at lower pressure; and
6. If the pressure in mains or service lines, or both, is to be higher than the pressure delivered to the customer, install a service regulator on each service line and test each regulator to determine that it is functioning. Pressure may be increased as necessary to test each regulator, after a regulator has been installed on each pipeline subject to the increased pressure.

Maximum allowable operating pressure shall be made in increments equal to ten (10) psig or twenty-five (25) percent of total pressure increase, whichever produces the fewer number of increments. Whenever the requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection apply, there shall be at least two (2) approximately equal incremental increases.

All cast iron or ductile iron pipeline facilities are not complete enough to determine stresses produced by internal pressure, trench loading, rolling loads, beam stresses, and other bending loads, in evaluating the level of safety of the pipeline when operating at the proposed increased pressure, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. In estimating the stresses, if original laying conditions cannot be ascertained, the operator shall assume that cast iron pipe was supported on blocks with tamped backfill and that ductile iron pipe was laid without blocks with tamped backfill.
2. Unless actual maximum cover depth is known, the operator shall measure the actual cover in at least three (3) places where the cover is most likely to be greatest and shall use the greatest cover measured.
3. Unless actual nominal wall thickness is known, the operator shall determine the wall thickness by cutting and measuring coupons from at least three (3) separate pipe lengths. The coupons shall be cut from pipe lengths in areas where the cover depth is most likely to be greatest. The average of all measurements taken must be increased by the allowance indicated in the following table:

4. For cast iron pipe, unless the pipe manufacturing process is known, the operator shall assume that the pipe is cast iron pipe with bursting tensile strength of 11,000 psig and modulus of rupture of 31,000 psig.

Section 13. Operations. (1) Scope. This section prescribes minimum requirements for operation of pipeline facilities.

(2) General provisions.
(a) No person shall operate a segment of pipeline unless it is operated in accordance with this section.
(b) Each operator shall establish a written operating and maintenance plan meeting the requirements of this administrative regulation and keep records necessary to administer the plan.
(3) Essentials of operating and maintenance plan. Each plan shall be divided into the following in its operating and maintenance plan:
(a) Instructions for employees covering operating and maintenance procedures during normal operations and repairs.
(b) Items required to be included by the provisions of Section 14 of this administrative regulation.
(c) Specific programs relating to facilities presenting the greatest hazard to public safety either in an emergency or because of extraordinary construction or maintenance requirements.
(d) A program for conversion procedures. If conversion of a low-pressure distribution system to higher pressure is contemplated.
(e) Provision for periodic inspections to ensure that operating procedures are appropriate for class location.
(f) Instructions enabling personnel who perform operation and maintenance activities to recognize conditions that are potentially safety related conditions subject to reporting requirements of 807 KAR 5:027, Section 12.

(4) Initial determination of class location and confirmation or establishment of maximum allowable operating pressure.
(a) Before April 15, 1971, each operator shall complete a study to determine for each segment of pipeline with maximum allowable operating pressure that will produce hoop stress that is more than forty (40) percent of SMYS:

1. Present class location of all such pipelines in its system; and
2. Whether hoop stress corresponding to maximum allowable operating pressure for each segment of pipeline is commensurate with the present class location.
(b) Each segment of pipeline that has been determined under paragraph (a) of this subsection to have an established maximum allowable operating pressure producing hoop stress not commensurate with the class location of the segment of pipeline and that is found in satisfactory condition, shall have the maximum allowable operating pressure confirmed, or required study made in accordance with subsection (6) of this section. Confirmation or revision shall be completed not later than December 31, 1974.
(c) Each operator required to confirm or revise an established maximum allowable operating pressure under paragraph (b) of this subsection shall, not later than December 31, 1971, prepare a comprehensive plan, including a schedule, for carrying out the confirmations or revalidations, and provide for confirmations or revisions determined to be necessary under subsection (5) of this section, to the extent that they are caused by changes in class locations taking place before July 1, 1973.

(5) Change in class location: required study. Whenever increase in population density indicates a change in class location for a segment of existing steel pipeline operating at hoop stress that is more than forty (40) percent of SMYS, or indicates that hoop stress corresponding to the established maximum allowable operating pressure for a segment of existing pipeline is not commensurate with the present class location, the operator shall immediately make a study to determine:
(a) Present class location for the segment involved;
(b) Design, construction, and testing procedures followed in original construction, and a comparison of these procedures with those required for the present class location by applicable provisions of this part;
(c) Physical condition of the segment to the extent it can be ascertained from available records;
(d) Operating and maintenance history of the segment;
(e) Maximum actual operating pressure and the corresponding operating hoop stress; and
(f) Instructions enabling personnel who perform operation and maintenance activities to recognize conditions that are potentially safety-related conditions subject to reporting requirements of 807 KAR 5:027, Section 12.

(6) Change in class location: confirmation or revision of maximum allowable operating pressure. If hoop stress corresponding to the established maximum allowable operating pressure of a segment of pipeline is not commensurate with present class location, and the segment is in satisfactory physical condition, the maximum allowable operating pressure of that segment of pipeline shall be confirmed or revised according to one (1) of the following requirements:
(a) If the segment involved has been previously tested in place for a period of not less than sixty (60) hours, the maximum allowable operating pressure is eight-tenths (0.8) times the test pressure in Class 2 locations, 0.667 times the test pressure in...
Class 3 locations, or 0.555 times the test pressure in Class 4 locations. The corresponding hoop stress will not exceed seventy-two (72) percent of SMYS of the pipe in Class 2 locations, sixty (60) percent of SMYS of the pipe in Class 3 locations, or fifty (50) percent of SMYS of the pipe in Class 4 locations.

(b) The maximum allowable operating pressure shall be reduced so that corresponding hoop stress is not more than that allowed by this part for new segments of pipelines in the existing class location.

(c) The segment involved shall be tested in accordance with applicable requirements of Section 11 of this administrative regulation, and its maximum allowable operating pressure shall then be established according to the following criteria:

1. Maximum allowable operating pressure after the re quali fication test is eight tenths (0.8) times the test pressure for Class 2 locations, 0.667 times the test pressure for Class 3 locations, and 0.555 times the test pressure for Class 4 locations.

2. Maximum allowable operating pressure confirmed or revised in accordance with this subsection shall not exceed maximum allowable operating pressure established before confirmation or revision.

3. Corresponding hoop stress shall not exceed seventy-two (72) percent of SMYS of the pipe in Class 2 locations, sixty (60) percent of SMYS of the pipe in Class 3 locations, or fifty (50) percent of SMYS of the pipe in Class 4 locations.

(d) Confirmation or revision of the maximum allowable operating pressure of a segment of pipeline in accordance with this subsection does not include the application of Section 12(a) and (3) of this administrative regulation.

(a) Confirmation or revision of maximum allowable operating pressure that is required as a result of subsection (5) of this section shall be completed within eighteen (18) months of the change in class location. Pressure reduction under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection within the eighteen (18) month period does not preclude establishment of maximum allowable operating pressure under paragraph (c) of this subsection at a later date.

(7) Continuing surveillance.

(a) Each operator shall have a procedure to monitor its facilities to determine and take appropriate action concerning changes in class location, failures, leakage history, corrosion, substantial changes in cathodic protection requirements, and other unusual operating and maintenance conditions.

(b) If a segment of pipeline is determined to be in unsatisfactory condition but no immediate hazard exists, the operator shall initiate a program to recondition or phase out the segment involved, or, if the segment cannot be reconditioned or phased out, reduce the maximum allowable operating pressure in accordance with subsection (13)(a) and (b) of this section.

(8) Damage prevention program.

(a) Except for pipelines listed in paragraph (c) of this subsection, each operator of a buried pipeline shall carry out in accordance with this subsection a written program to prevent damage to that pipeline by excavation activities. For the purpose of this subsection, "excavation activities" include excavation, blasting, boring, tunneling, backfilling, removal of aboveground structures by either explosive or mechanical means, and other earth-moving operations. An operator may perform any duties required by paragraph (b) of this subsection through participation in a public service program, such as a "one-call" system, but such participation does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with this subsection.

(b) The damage prevention program required by paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, at a minimum:

1. Include the identity, on a current basis, of persons who normally engage in excavation activities in the vicinity of the pipeline.

2. Provide for notification to the public in the vicinity of the pipeline and actual notification to persons identified in paragraph (b) of this subsection as often as needed to make them aware of the existence and purpose of the damage prevention program and how to notify the location of underground pipelines prior to excavation activities.

3. Provide a means of receiving and recording notification of planned excavation activities.

4. If the operator has buried pipelines in the area of excavation activity, provide for actual notification to persons who give notice of their intent to excavate of temporary marking to be provided and how to identify the markings.

5. Provide for temporary marking of buried pipelines near excavation activity before, or as soon as practical, activity begins.

6. Provide for frequent inspection of pipeline an operator has reason to believe could be damaged by excavation activities to verify the integrity of the pipeline; and in the case of blasting, any inspection shall include leakage surveys.

(c) A damage prevention program under this subsection is not required for the following pipelines:

1. Pipelines in a Class 1 or 2 location.

2. Pipelines in a Class 3 location defined by Section 1(3)(d) of this administrative regulation that are marked in accordance with Section 14(3) of this administrative regulation.

3. Pipelines to which access is physically controlled by the operator.

4. Pipelines that are part of a petroleum gas system subject to Section 16 of this administrative regulation or part of a distribution system operated by a person in connection with that person's leasing of real property or by a condominium or cooperative association.

(9) Emergency plans.

(a) Each operator shall establish written procedures to minimize hazard resulting from a gas pipeline emergency. At a minimum, procedures for the following:

1. Receiving, identifying, and classifying notices of events which require immediate response by the operator.

2. Establishing and maintaining adequate means of communication with appropriate fire, police, and other public officials.

3. Prompt and effective response to a notice of each type of emergency including gas, fire, explosion, natural disaster near or involving a building with gas pipeline or pipeline facility.

4. Availability of personnel, equipment, tools, and materials, as needed at the scene of emergency.

5. Actions directed toward protecting people first and then property.

6. Emergency shutdown and pressure reduction in any section of the operator's pipeline system necessary to minimize hazards to life or property.

7. Making safe any actual or potential hazard to life or property.

8. Notifying appropriate fire, police, and other public officials of the pipeline or pipeline facility.

10. Beginning action under subsection (9) of this section, if applicable, as soon after the end of the emergency as possible.

(b) Each operator shall:

1. Furnish its supervisors who are responsible for emergency action a copy of that portion of the latest edition of emergency procedures established under paragraph (a) of this subsection as necessary for compliance with these procedures.

2. Train appropriate operating personnel in emergency procedures and verify that training is effective.

3. Review employee activities to determine whether procedures were effectively followed in each emergency.

4. Each operator shall establish and maintain liaison with appropriate fire, police, and other public officials to:

   1. Learn the responsibility and resources of each government organization that may respond to a gas pipeline emergency.

   2. Acquaint officials with the operator's ability to respond to a gas pipeline emergency.

   3. Identify types of gas pipeline emergencies which the operator notifies officials; and

   4. Plan how the operator and officials can engage in mutual assistance to minimize hazards to life or property.

(d) Each operator shall establish a continuing educational program to enable the public, appropriate governmental organizations, and person engaged in excavation-related activities to recognize a gas pipeline emergency for the purpose of reporting it to the operator or appropriate public officials. The program and media used shall be as comprehensive as necessary to reach all areas in which the operator transports gas. The program shall be conducted in English and in other languages commonly understood by a significant number and concentration of the non-English speaking population in the operator’s area.

10. Investigation of failures. Each operator shall establish procedures for analyzing accidents and failure, including selection of samples of the failed facility or equipment for laboratory examination, where appropriate, to determine the causes of the failure and to minimize the possibility of recurrence.

(11) Maximum allowable operating pressure: steel or plastic pipelines.
(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, no person shall operate a segment of steel or plastic pipeline at a pressure that exceeds the lowest of the following:
1. Design pressure of the weakest element in the segment, determined in accordance with Sections 3 and 4 of this administrative regulation.
2. Pressure obtained by dividing the pressure to which the segment was tested after construction as follows:
   a. For plastic pipe in all locations, test pressure is divided by a factor of one and five tenths (1.5).
   b. For steel pipe operated at 100 psig or more, test pressure is divided by a factor determined in accordance with the following table:

3. Highest actual operating pressure to which the segment was subjected during the five (5) years preceding July 1, 1970, unless the segment was tested in accordance with paragraph (a)2 of this subsection after July 1, 1965, or the segment was uprated in accordance with Section 12 of this administrative regulation.

4. Furnace butt welded steel pipe, pressure equal to sixty (60) percent of the mill test pressure to which the pipe was subjected.
5. For steel pipe other than furnace butt welded pipe, pressure equal to eighty-five (85) percent of the highest test pressure to which the pipe has been subjected, whether by mill test or by post installation test.
6. Pressure determined by the operator to be the maximum safe pressure after considering the history of the segment, particularly known corrosion and actual operating pressure.

(b) No person shall operate a segment to which paragraph (a)5 of this subsection applies, unless overpressure protective devices are installed on the segment to prevent the maximum allowable operating pressure from being exceeded, in accordance with Section 4(30) of this administrative regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding other requirements of this subsection, an operator may operate a segment of pipeline found to be in satisfactory condition, considering its operating and maintenance history, at the highest actual operating pressure to which the segment was subjected during the five (5) years preceding July 1, 1970.

(12) Maximum allowable operating pressure: high-pressure distribution systems.
(a) No person shall operate a segment of high-pressure distribution system at a pressure that exceeds the lowest of the following pressures, as applicable:
1. Design pressure of the weakest element in the segment, determined in accordance with Sections 3 and 4 of this administrative regulation.
2. Sixty (60) psig, for a segment of a distribution system otherwise designed to operate at over sixty (60) psig, unless service lines in the segment are equipped with service regulators or other pressure limited devices in series that meet the requirements of Section 4(31)(c) of this administrative regulation.
3. Twenty-five (25) psig, in segments of cast iron pipe in which there are unreinforced bell and spigot joints.
4. Pressure limits to which a joint could be subjected without parting.
5. Pressure determined by the operator to be maximum safe pressure after considering the history of the segment, particularly known corrosion and actual operating pressure.

(b) No person shall operate a segment of pipeline to which paragraph (a)5 of this subsection applies, unless overpressure protective devices are installed on the segment to prevent the maximum allowable operating pressure from being exceeded, in accordance with Section 4(30) of this administrative regulation.

(13) Maximum allowable operating pressure: low-pressure distribution systems.
(a) No person shall operate a low-pressure distribution system at a pressure high enough to make unsafe the operation of any connected and properly adjusted low-pressure gas burning equipment.

(b) No person shall operate a low-pressure distribution system at a pressure lower than the minimum pressure at which the safe and continuing operation of any connected and properly adjusted low-pressure gas burning equipment can be assured.

(14) Standard pressure.
(a) All utilities supplying gas for light, heat, power or other purposes shall, subject to approval of the commission, adopt and maintain a standard pressure as measured at the customer’s meter outlet. No adopting such standard pressure shall be less than the highest of the pressure measured at the distribution system into districts and establish a separate standard pressure for each district, or the utility may establish a single standard pressure for its distribution system as a whole.

(b) The standard pressure to be adopted as provided in this section shall be a part of the utility’s schedule of rates and general rules and administrative regulations.

(c) No change shall be made by a utility in standard pressure or pressure adopted except in case of emergency.

(15) Allowable variations of standard service pressure.
(a) Variations of standard pressure as established under the preceding rule shall not exceed the adopted pressure by more than fifty (50) percent plus or minus.

(b) A utility supplying gas shall not be deemed to have violated paragraph (a) of this subsection, if it can be shown that variations from said pressure are due to:
1. Use of gas by the customer in violation of contract under the rules of the utility.
2. Infrequent fluctuations of short duration due to unavoidable conditions of operation.
3. Allowable variations in standard pressure other than those covered by paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(d) The gas pressures required above shall be maintained at the outlet of the meter to provide safe and efficient utilization of gas in properly adjusted appliances supplied through adequately sized customer’s facilities.

(16) Continuity of service.
(a) The utility shall keep a complete record of all interruptions on its entire system or on major divisions of its system. The record shall show the cause of interruption, date, time, duration, remedy and steps taken to prevent recurrence. The commission shall be notified of major interruptions as soon as they come to the attention of the utility and a complete report made after restoration of service.

(b) Interruption of service, as used here, shall also mean the interval of time during which pressure drops below fifty (50) percent of such adopted standard pressure on the entire system, or on one (1) or more entire major or divisions for which an average standard pressure has been adopted.

(17) Odorization of gas.
(a) Combustible gas in a distribution line shall contain a natural odor or be odorized so that at a concentration in air of one-fifth (1/5) of the lower explosive limit (approximately one (1) percent by volume), gas is readily detectable by a person with a normal sense of smell.

(b) Combustible gas in a transmission line in a Class 3 or Class 4 location shall comply with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection unless:

1. At least fifty (50) percent of the length of the line downstream from that location is in a Class 1 or Class 2 location;
2. The line transports gas to any of the following facilities through a segment of pipeline which received gas without an odorant from that line before May 5, 1976:
   a. Underground storage field;
   b. Gas processing plant;
   c. Gas dehydration plant; or
   d. Industrial plant using gas in a process where presence of an odorant makes the end product unfit for the purpose for which it is intended; reduces the activity of a catalyst; or reduces the percentage completion of a chemical reaction.
3. When lateral line transports gas to a distribution center, at least fifty (50) percent of the length of that line is in a Class 1 or Class 2 location.

(c) Odorant shall not be harmful to persons, materials, or pipe.

(d) Product of combustion from the odorant shall not be toxic when breathed, nor shall they be corrosive or harmful to those materials to which the products of combustion will be exposed.

(e) Odorant shall not be soluble in water to an extent greater than two and one-half (2 1/2) parts to 100 parts by weight.

(f) Equipment for odorization shall introduce odorant without wide variations in the level of odorant.

(g) Each utility shall conduct sampling of combustible gases to assure proper concentration of odorant in accordance with this section unless otherwise approved by the commission.

1. The utility shall sample gases in each separately odorized system at approximate furthest point from injection of odorant.
2. Sampling shall be conducted with equipment designed to detect and verify proper level of odorant.
3. Separately odorized systems with ten (10) or fewer customers shall be sampled for proper odor level at least once each ninety (90) days.
4. Separately odorized systems with more than ten (10) customers shall be sampled for proper odor level at least once each week.

18. Tapping pipelines under pressure. Each tap made on a pipeline under pressure shall be performed by a crew qualified to make hot taps.

19. Purging of pipelines.

(a) When pipeline is being purged of air by use of gas, the gas shall be released into one (1) end of the line in a moderately rapid and continuous flow. If gas cannot be supplied in sufficient quantity to prevent the formation of a hazardous mixture of gas and air, a plug of inert gas shall be released into the line before the gas.

(b) When pipeline is being purged of gas by use of air, the air shall be released into one (1) end of the line in a moderately rapid and continuous flow. If gas cannot be supplied in sufficient quantity to prevent the formation of a hazardous mixture of gas and air, a plug of inert gas shall be released into the line before the air.

(b) Frequency of patrols is determined by size of line, operating pressures, class location, terrain, weather, and other relevant factors, but intervals between patrols shall not be longer than prescribed in the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Maximum Interval Between Periods</th>
</tr>

(a) Each operator of a transmission line shall provide for periodic leakage surveys of line in its operating and maintenance plan.

(b) Leakage surveys of a transmission line shall be conducted at intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months; but at least once each calendar year. However, if a transmission line transports gas in conformity with Section 13(17) of this administrative regulation without an odor or odorant, leakage surveys using leak detector equipment shall be conducted:
1. In Class 3 locations, at intervals not exceeding seven and one-half (7 1/2) months; but at least twice each calendar year;
2. In Class 4 locations, at intervals not exceeding four and one-half (4 1/2) months; but at least four (4) times each calendar year.

(a) Buried pipelines. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a line marker shall be placed and maintained as close as practical over each buried main and transmission line:
1. At each crossing of a public road or railroad; and
2. Wherever necessary to identify the location of the transmission line or main to reduce the possibility of damage or interference.

(b) Exceptions for buried pipelines. Line markers are not required for buried mains and transmission lines:
1. Located under inland navigable waters;
2. In Class 3 or Class 4 locations:
   a. Where placement of a marker is impractical; or
   b. Where a damage prevention program is in effect under Section 13(8) of this administrative regulation; or
3. In the case of navigable waterway crossings, within 100 feet of a line marker placed and maintained at that waterway in accordance with this section.

(c) Pipelines above ground. Line markers shall be placed and maintained along each section of a main and transmission line located above ground in an area accessible to the public.

(d) Markers other than at navigable waterways. The following shall be written legibly on a background of sharply contrasting color on each line marker not at a navigable waterway:
1. The word "Warning," "Caution," or "Danger," followed by the words "Gas (or name of gas transported) Pipeline," all of which, except for markers in heavily developed urban areas, shall be in letters at least one (1) inch high with one-quarter (1/4) inch stroke.
2. The name of the operator and telephone number (including area code) where the operator can be reached at all times.
3. Markers at navigable waterways. Each line marker at a navigable waterway shall have the following characteristics:

      b. The name of the operator and telephone number (including area code) where the operator can be reached at all times.
4. In overcast daylight, the sign is visible and the writing is legible, from approaching or passing vessels that may damage or interfere with the pipeline.

(6) Transmission lines: recordkeeping. Each utility shall keep Transmission lines: general requirements for repair procedures.

(a) Each utility shall take immediate temporary measures to protect the public whenever:
1. A leak, imperfection, or damage that impairs its serviceability is found in a segment of steel transmission line operating at or above forty (40) percent of SMYS; and
2. It is not feasible to make a permanent repair at the time of discovery. As soon as feasible, the utility shall make permanent repairs. Except as provided in subsection (10)(a)3 of this section, no utility shall use a welded patch as a means of repair.

(b) Transmission lines: permanent field repair of imperfections and damages.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, each imperfection or damage that impairs serviceability of a segment of steel transmission line operating at or above forty (40) percent of SMYS must be repaired as follows:
1. If it is feasible to take the segment out of service, the imperfection or damage must be removed by cutting out a cylindrical piece of pipe and replacing it with pipe of similar or greater design strength.
2. If it is not feasible to take the segment out of service, a full encirclement welded split sleeve of appropriate design shall be applied over the imperfection or damage.
3. If the segment is not taken out of service, operating pressure shall be reduced to a safe level during repairs.

(b) Submerged pipelines in inland navigable waters may be repaired by mechanically applying a full encirclement split sleeve of appropriate design over the imperfection or damage.

(c) Each gas utility shall maintain a record for five (5) years of gas leaks reported by the public, utility employees, or detected by leak surveys.

(d) Each leak detected shall be graded according to the following standard:

   (c) Pressure control and pressure limiting equipment shall be inspected and tested periodically to determine that it is in a safe operating condition and has adequate capacity.

(21) Pressure limiting and regulating stations: inspection and testing. Each pressure limiting station, relief device (except rupture discs), and pressure regulating station and its equipment shall be subjected, at intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months, but at least once each calendar year, to inspections and tests to determine that it is:
   (a) In good mechanical condition;

   (c) Set to function at the correct pressure; and
   (d) Properly installed and protected from dirt, liquids, or other conditions that might prevent proper operation.

(22) Pressure limiting and regulating stations: telemetry or recording gauges.
   (a) Each utility shall keep in continual use one (1) or more accurate recording pressure gauges on its distribution systems. These gauges shall be located at such points and in such manner sufficient to reflect a continuous record of gas pressure and character of service being furnished throughout the entire system.
   (b) In addition to the recording pressure gauges required in paragraph (a) of this subsection, all utilities distributing gas shall maintain one (1) or more portable recording pressure gauges with which pressure surveys shall be made in sufficient number to indicate the service furnished and to satisfy the commission of the utility's compliance with pressure requirements.

   (b) If a test is not feasible, review and calculation of the required capacity of the relieving device at each station shall be made, at intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months, but at least once each calendar year. These required capacities shall be compared with the rated or experimentally determined relieving capacity of the device for operating conditions under which it works. After initial calculations, subsequent calculations are not required if review documents show that parameters have not changed to cause capacity to be less than required.

(24) Valve maintenance: transmission lines. Each transmission line valve that might be required during any emergency shall be inspected and partially operated, at intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months, but at least once each calendar year.

(25) Valve maintenance: distribution systems. Each valve, the use of which may be necessary for safe operation of a distribution system, shall be checked and serviced, at intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months, but at least once each calendar year.

(26) Valve maintenance.
   (a) Each vault housing pressure regulating and pressure limiting equipment, and having volumetric internal content of 200 cubic feet or more, shall be inspected at intervals not exceeding fifteen (15) months, but at least once each calendar year to determine that it is in good physical condition and adequately ventilated.

   (b) Inspection of each vault, its cover, and equipment shall include checks for proper ventilation, function, and safety. Any leaks shall be corrected immediately.

(27) Prevention of accidental ignition. Each utility shall take steps to minimize the danger of accidental gas ignition in any structure or area where presence of gas constitutes a hazard of fire or explosion, including the following:
   (a) When a hazardous amount of gas is being vented into open air, each potential source of ignition shall be removed from the area and a fire extinguisher shall be provided.
   (b) Gas or electric welding or cutting shall not be performed on pipeline, or on pipe components that contain a combustible mixture of gas and air in the area of work.
   (c) Post warning signs, where appropriate.

(28) No welding or acetylene cutting shall be done on a pipeline, main or auxiliary apparatus that contains air if it is connected to a source of gas, unless a suitable means has been provided to prevent leakage of gas into the pipeline or main.

(29) In situations where welding or cutting must be done, on facilities which are filled with air and connected to a source of gas, precautions recommended above cannot be taken, one (1) or more of the following precautions, depending upon circumstances at the job, are required:
1. Purging pipe or equipment upon which welding or cutting is to be done, with combustible gas or inert gas.
2. Testing of the atmosphere in the vicinity of the zone to be heated before work is started and at intervals as the work progresses, with a combustible gas indicator or by other suitable means.
3. Careful verification before work starts that valves that isolate the work from a source of gas do not leak.
4. When the main is to be separated a bonding conductor shall be installed across the point of separation and maintained while the pipeline is separated. If overhead electric transmission lines parallel the pipeline right-of-way, the current carrying capacity of the bonding conductor should be at least one-half (1/2) of the capacity of the overhead line conductors.
5. For additional purging procedures see A.G.A. publication “Purging Principals and Practice” (1976 Edition).

Section 5[4][15]. Purity of Gas. Gas shall not contain impurities that will cause corrosion or harmful fumes to form. Those utilities that[which] burn hydrogen sulfide in a properly designed and adjusted burner.

(2) When necessary, tests for the presence of hydrogen sulfide shall be made at least once per month, except Sundays and holidays, with equipment capable of measuring hydrogen sulfide levels as low as one (1) grain per 100 cubic feet.[the standard lead acetate paper method]. Results of these tests[tests] shall be retained and provided to the commission upon request[recorded and filed, as specified by the commission].

(3) Manufactured and mixed gas shall be tested at least one month for the presence of total sulphur and ammonia, except that any gas containing no coal gas shall not require testing[need not be tested] for ammonia. Testing shall be in accordance with established methods. Results of these tests[tests] shall be retained and provided to the commission upon request[recorded and filed, as specified by the commission].

(4) Approved methods of testing shall be used. Records of all tests shall be retained and provided to the Commission upon request[preserved as specified by the commission].

Section 6[16]. Heating Value of Gas. (1) Definitions of heating value. The heating value of gas shall be[is] the number of British Thermal Units (BTUs) produced by the combustion at constant pressure, of that amount of gas that would occupy a volume of one (1) cubic foot at a temperature of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit.

(a) If saturated with water vapor;
(b) Under pressure equivalent to thirty (30) inches of mercury at a temperature of thirty-two (32) degrees Fahrenheit;
(c) Under gravity;
(d) With air of the same temperature and pressure as the gas;
(e) When the products of combustion are cooled to the initial temperature of the gas and air; and
(f) When the water formed by combustion is condensed to liquid stage, [if saturated with water vapor and under pressure equivalent to thirty (30) inches of mercury at a temperature of thirty-two (32) degrees Fahrenheit and under gravity, with air of the same temperature and pressure as the gas, when the products of combustion are cooled to the initial temperature of the gas and air, and when the water formed by combustion is condensed to liquid stage].

(2) Each utility shall establish and maintain a standard heating value for its gas. The heating value standard adopted shall comply with the following:

(b) It shall be that value that[which] the utility determines is most practical and economical to supply to its customers.

(c) Each utility shall file with the commission its standard heating value as part of its schedule of Rates, Rules and Regulations.

(d) The utility shall maintain the heating value of the gas with as little variation as practicable, but this variation shall not be more than five (5) percent above or below the established standard heating value.

(5) The heating value standard shall be the monthly average heating value of gas delivered to customers at any point within one (1) mile of the center of distribution, and shall be obtained in the following manner: results of all tests for heating value made on any day during the calendar month shall be averaged, and the average of all such daily averages shall be used in computing the monthly average.

(6) Each utility, selling more than 300,000,000 cubic feet of gas annually, shall maintain a calorimeter, gas chromatograph, or other equipment for testing the heating[heating] value of gas or shall retain the services of an approved testing laboratory approved by the commission. All testing equipment shall be accompanied at all times by a certificate showing the date it was last tested and adjusted[This testing equipment owned by the utility shall be subject to approval of the commission and be made available for testing certification]. Utilities served directly from a transmission line shall be exempt from this rule if there is approved equipment for measuring the heating value of gas maintained by the transmission company and if this such equipment is available for testing and certification by the commission.

(7) Each utility shall conduct tests[tests] and maintain necessary records to document that the requirements of this section are being met. Those utilities that[which] shall ensure that the basis of heating value shall, as part of its schedule of Rates, Rules and Regulations, file with the commission the schedule of tests and test procedure[procedure(s)] it will conduct to determine the heating value of its gas.

(8) Any change in heating value greater than that allowed in subsection (4) of this section shall not be made without a change to the utility’s tariff approved by [approval of] the commission and without adequate notice to affected customers. In this[such] event, the utility shall make any adjustments to the customer’s appliances without charge and shall conduct the adjustment program with a minimum of inconvenience to the customer.
Section 7(17). Waste. All practices in the production, distribution, consumption, or use of natural gas that [which] are wasteful shall be hereby expressly prohibited.

Section 8(18). Deviations from Rules. In special cases for good cause shown the commission may permit deviations from these rules.

APPENDIX B
QUALIFICATION OF PIPE
I. Listed Pipe Specifications. Numbers in parentheses indicate applicable editions.
API 5L — Steel Pipe (1979).
II. Steel pipe of unknown or unlisted specification.
A. Bending Properties. For pipe two (2) inches or less in diameter, a length of pipe shall be cold bent through at least ninety (90) degrees around a cylindrical mandrel that has a diameter twelve (12) times the diameter of the pipe, without developing cracks at any portion and without opening the longitudinal weld.
B. Weldability. A girth weld shall be made in pipe by a welder who is qualified under Subpart E of this part. The weld shall be made under the most severe conditions under which welding will be allowed in the field and by the same procedure that will be used in the field. On pipe more than four (4) inches in diameter, at least one (1) test weld shall be made for each 100 lengths of pipe. On pipe four (4) inches or less in diameter, at least one (1) test weld shall be made for each 400 lengths of pipe. The weld shall be accepted in accordance with API Standard 1104. If requirements of API Standard 1104 cannot be met, weldability may be established by making chemical test for carbon and manganese, and proceeding in accordance with Section IX of the ASME Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code. The same number of chemical tests shall be made as are required for testing a girth weld.
C. Inspection. Pipe shall be clean enough to permit adequate inspection. It shall be visually inspected to ensure that it is reasonably round and straight and there are no defects which might impair strength or tightness of the pipe.
D. Tensile Properties. If the pipe’s tensile properties are not known, minimum yield strength may be taken as 24,000 psi or less, or tensile properties may be established by performing tensile tests as set forth in API Standard 5L. All test specimens shall be selected at random and the following number of tests must be performed:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>NUMBER OF TENSILE TESTS</th>
<th>ALL SIZES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10 lengths or less</td>
<td>1 set of tests for each length</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11 lengths to 100 lengths</td>
<td>1 set of tests for each 5 lengths but not less than 10 tests</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over 100 lengths</td>
<td>1 set of tests for each 10 lengths but not less than 10 tests</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

If the yield-tensile ratio, based on properties determined by those tests, exceeds 0.85, pipe may be used only as provided in 192.55(e).

III. Basic test. Test shall be made on pipe twelve (12) inches or less in diameter as a typical main. The weld shall be made with pipe in horizontal fixed position so that test weld includes at least one (1) section of overhead position welding. Beveling, root opening, and other details shall conform to the specification of the procedure under which the welder is being qualified. Upon completion, test weld shall be cut into four (4) coupons and subjected to a root bend test. If two (2) or more of the four (4) coupons then develop a crack more than 1/8 inch long in any direction in the weld metal, the weld shall be unacceptable. Cracks that occur on the specimen corner adjacent to or in the weld metal, the weld shall be unacceptable. If a tensile strength testing machine is not available, this sample shall also pass the bending test prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

APPENDIX C
QUALIFICATION OF WELDERS FOR LOW STRESS LEVEL PIPE

I. Basic test. Test shall be made on pipe twelve (12) inches or less in diameter. The test weld shall be made with pipe in horizontal fixed position so that test weld includes at least one (1) section of overhead position welding. Beveling, root opening, and other details shall conform to the specification of the procedure under which the welder is being qualified. Upon completion, test weld shall be cut into four (4) coupons and subjected to a root bend test. If two (2) or more of the four (4) coupons then develop a crack more than 1/8 inch long in any direction in the weld metal, or between weld materials, or between weld metal and base metal, the weld shall be unacceptable. Cracks that occur on the specimen corner during testing are not considered.

II. Additional tests for welders of service line connections to mains. A service line connection fitting shall be welded to a pipe section with the same diameter as a typical main. The weld shall be made in the same position as it is made in the field. The weld shall be unacceptable if, it shows a serious undercutting or if it has rolled edges. The weld shall be tested by attempting to break the fitting-off the run pipe. The weld shall be unacceptable if it breaks and shows incomplete fusion, overlap, or poor penetration at junction of the fitting and run pipe.

III. Periodic tests for welders of small service lines. Two (2) samples of the welder's work, each about eight (8) inches long with the weld approximately centered, shall be cut from steel service line and tested as follows:

(1) One (1) sample shall be centered in a guided bend testing machine and bent to the die contour for two (2) inches on each side of the weld. If the sample shows any break or crack after removal from the bending machine, it shall be unacceptable.

(2) The ends of the second sample shall be flattened and the entire joint subjected to a tensile strength test. If failure occurs adjacent to or in the weld metal, the weld shall be unacceptable. If a tensile strength testing machine is not available, this sample shall also pass the bending test prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

APPENDIX D
CRITERIA FOR CATHODIC PROTECTION AND DETERMINATION OF MEASUREMENTS

I. Criteria for cathodic protection:

A. Steel, cast iron, and ductile iron structures.

(1) Minimum negative (cathodic) polarization voltage shift of 100 millivolts. This polarization voltage shift shall be determined in accordance with Sections II and IV of this appendix.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, a minimum negative (cathodic) voltage shift of 150 millivolts, produced by the application of protective current, shall also pass the bending test prescribed in subparagraph (1).

(3) Minimum negative (cathodic) polarization voltage shift of 100 millivolts. This polarization voltage shift shall be determined in accordance with Sections III and IV of this appendix.

B. Aluminum structures.

(1) Except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, a minimum negative (cathodic) polarization voltage shift of 100 millivolts. This polarization voltage shift shall be determined in accordance with Sections II and IV of this appendix.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, a minimum negative (cathodic) polarization voltage shift of 100 millivolts. This polarization voltage shift shall be determined in accordance with Sections III and IV of this appendix.

(3) Notwithstanding the alternative minimum criteria in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, aluminum, if cathodically protected at voltages in excess of 1.20 volts as measured with reference to a copper-copper sulfate half cell, in accordance with Section IV of this appendix, and compensated for the voltage (IR) drop other than those across the structure-electrolyte boundary may suffer corrosion, resulting from the buildup of alkali on the metal surface. A voltage in excess of 1.20 volts shall not be used unless previous test results indicate no appreciable corrosion will occur in the particular environment.

(4) Since aluminum may suffer from corrosion under high pH conditions, and since application of cathodic protection tends to increase the pH at the metal surface, careful investigation of interruptions shall be made when applying cathodic protection to stop pitting attack on aluminum structures in environments with a natural pH in excess of eight (8).
that could be damaged by high alkalinity covered by paragraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph B of this section, they shall be electrically isolated with insulating flanges or their equivalent.

II. Interpretation of voltage measurement. Voltage (IR) drops other than those across the structure-electrolyte boundary shall be considered valid interpretation of the voltage measurement in paragraphs A(1) and (2) and paragraph B(1) of Section I of this appendix.

III. Determination of polarization voltage shift. Polarization voltage shift shall be determined by interrupting the protective current and measuring polarization decay. When the current is initially interrupted, an immediate voltage shift occurs. The voltage reading after the immediate shift shall be used as the base reading from which to measure polarization decay in paragraphs A(3), B(2), and C of Section I of this appendix.

IV. Reference half cells.

A. Except as provided in paragraphs B and C of this section, negative (cathodic) voltage shall be measured between the surface of the structure and a saturated copper-copper sulfate half cell contacting the electrolyte.

B. Other standard reference half cells may be substituted for the saturated copper-copper sulfate half cell. Two (2) commonly used reference half cells are listed below along with their voltage equivalent to 0.85 volt as referred to a saturated copper-copper sulfate half cell:

(1) Saturated KCl calomel half cell: 0.78 volt.
(2) Silver-silver chloride half cell used in sea water: 0.80 volt.

C. In addition to the standard reference half cell, an alternate metallic material or structure may be used in place of the saturated copper-copper sulfate half cell if its potential stability is assured and if its voltage equivalent referred to a saturated copper-copper sulfate half cell is established.

815 KAR 8:011. Repeal of 815 KAR 8:007 and 815 KAR 8:045.

RELATES TO: KRS 198B.654, 198B.656, 198B.658
STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 198B.654
NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 198B.654(1) requires the department to promulgate administrative regulations to administer, coordinate, and enforce the provisions of KRS 198B.650 to 198B.689. This regulation repeals two (2) administrative regulations to conform to recent legislative changes and statutory authority. 815 KAR 8:007 is being repealed because House Bill 394 of the 2017 Regular Session of the General Assembly abolished the Board of Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning Contractors. 815 KAR 8:045 is being repealed to eliminate an administrative regulation for which there is no statutory authority. The department has the authority to promulgate administrative regulations to establish a journeyman HVAC mechanic license, but not the authority to establish the limited licenses of a limited journeyman HVAC installer mechanic license nor a limited journeyman HVAC duct mechanic license.

Section 1. The following administrative regulations are hereby repealed:

(1) 815 KAR 8:007, Kentucky Board of Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning (HVAC) Contractors budget review and responsibility; and

(2) 815 KAR 8:045, Limited licenses for journeyman HVAC mechanics.

REGULATORY IMPACT ANALYSIS AND TIERING STATEMENT

Contact person: David R. Startsman
(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does: This administrative regulation repeals 815 KAR 8:007, and thereby eliminates the requirement that the Division of HVAC to provide budget documents to the HVAC board, which no longer exists as a result of House Bill 394 of the 2017 Regular Session of the General Assembly. This administrative regulation also repeals 815 KAR 8:045, eliminating the limited journeyman HVAC licenses previously established by an administrative regulation the Department lacked statutory authority to promulgate.

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation: This administrative regulation is necessary to remove a requirement for the HVAC Division to report to the Board because the Board was discontinued by House Bill 394 of the 2017 Regular Session of the General Assembly. The administrative regulation also eliminates limited licenses, the issuance of which have no basis in statute.

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes: This administrative regulation is a repealer that conforms with the Department’s authority in KRS 198B.654(1) and with the discontinuation of the HVAC Board as a result of the repeal of KRS 198B.652 in House Bill 394 of the 2017 Regular Session of the General Assembly.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes: This administrative regulation is a repealer that will assist in the effective administration of KRS 198B by removing the requirement that the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction submit budget documents to the HVAC Board, which no longer exists as a result of House Bill 394 of the 2017 Regular Session of the General Assembly. This administrative regulation will further assist in the effective administration of KRS 198B by eliminating limited licenses that the Department has no authority to issue.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation: All individuals who hold a limited HVAC license and the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction will be affected. Currently, approximately 308 individuals hold limited HVAC licenses.

Locator Index - Effective Dates

The Locator Index lists all administrative regulations published in VOLUME 44 of the Administrative Register of Kentucky from July 2017 through June 2018. It also lists the page number on which each administrative regulation is published, the effective date of the administrative regulation after it has completed the review process, and other action that may affect the administrative regulation. NOTE: The administrative regulations listed under VOLUME 43 are those administrative regulations that were originally published in VOLUME 43 (last year's) issues of the Administrative Register of Kentucky but had not yet gone into effect when the 2017 Kentucky Administrative Regulations Service was published.

KRS Index

The KRS Index is a cross-reference of statutes to which administrative regulations relate. These statute numbers are derived from the RELATES TO line of each administrative regulation submitted for publication in VOLUME 44 of the Administrative Register of Kentucky.

Certification Letter Summaries

The Certification Index lists of administrative regulations that have had certification letters filed during this VOLUME year. The certification process is established in KRS 13A.3104. If the certification letter states the administrative regulation shall be amended, the administrative body shall file an amendment to the regulation within 18 months of the date the certification letter was filed. If the certification letter states that the regulation shall remain in effect without amendment, the last effective date of the regulation is changed to the date the regulations compiler received the letter.

Subject Index

The Subject Index is a general index of administrative regulations published in VOLUME 44 of the Administrative Register of Kentucky, and is mainly broken down by agency.
