

18A.125 Control through payroll certification.

- (1) No disbursing or auditing officer of the Commonwealth shall make or approve or take any part in making or approving any payment for personal service to any person holding a position in the classified or unclassified service unless the payroll voucher or account of such pay bears the certification of the secretary, or of his authorized agent, that the persons named therein have been appointed and employed in accordance with the provisions of KRS 18A.005 to 18A.200 and the rules, regulations, and orders thereunder. The secretary may for proper cause or upon order of the board withhold certification from an entire payroll or from any specific item or items thereon. The secretary may, however, provide that certification of payrolls may be made once every six (6) months, and such certification shall remain in effect except in the case of any officer or employee whose status has changed after the last certification of his payroll. In the latter case no voucher for payment of salary to such employee shall be issued or payment of salary made without the further certification of the secretary.
- (2) Any citizen, including public officers, may maintain a suit to restrain a disbursing officer from making any payment in contravention of any provision of KRS 18A.005 to 18A.200, or of any rule, regulation or order thereunder. Any sum paid contrary to any provision of KRS 18A.005 to 18A.200 or of any rule, regulation, or order thereunder may be recovered in an action maintained by any citizen, from any officer who made, approved, or authorized such payment or who signed or countersigned a voucher, payroll check or warrant for such payment, or from the sureties on the official bond of any such officer. All moneys recovered in any such action shall be paid into the Treasury.
- (3) Any person appointed or employed in contravention of any provision of KRS 18A.005 to 18A.200 or of any rule, regulation, or order thereunder, who performs service for which he is not paid, may maintain an action against the officer or officers, employee or employees, who purported so to appoint or employ him, to recover the agreed pay for such services, or the reasonable value thereof if no pay was agreed upon. No such officer or employee shall be reimbursed by the Commonwealth at any time for any sum paid to such person on account of such services.
- (4) If the secretary wrongfully withholds certification of the payroll voucher or account of any employee, such employee may maintain a proceeding in the Circuit Court in the county in which he resides to compel the secretary to certify such payroll voucher or account.

18A.120 Basis for hiring for classified service -- Exception -- Credit for sick leave.

- (1) Except as hereinafter provided, all hiring for the classified service shall be on the basis of competitive examinations and certification by the cabinet in accordance with the provisions of KRS 18A.005 to 18A.200.

- (2) As of February 29, 1976, when an entity and its employees, either initially or subsequently, is brought into the state service, all employees of that entity required to be covered under the classified service shall be required to meet the minimum qualifications for the positions to which they are assigned and to satisfactorily complete a probationary period, except that in the discretion of the secretary they shall not be required to take an examination. The secretary shall equitably assign such employees within the salary range of an appropriate pay grade. Upon the recommendation of the appointing authority, the secretary may authorize the credit of the amount of sick leave the employee had prior to being brought into state service. After completion of the initial probationary period employees employed under this statute shall be credited with the amount of service they had with this previous entity for accumulation of annual leave and other purposes of this chapter.
