

80.510 Power to provide housing for farmers of low income.

County housing authorities, city-county housing authorities, and regional housing authorities are specifically empowered and authorized to borrow money, accept grants and exercise their powers to provide housing for farmers of low income. In connection with such projects, any such housing authority may enter into such leases or purchase agreements, accept such conveyances and rent or sell dwellings forming part of such projects to or for farmers of low income, as such housing authority deems necessary in order to assure the achievement of the objectives of KRS 80.320 to 80.610. Such leases, agreements or conveyances may include such covenants as the housing authority deems appropriate regarding such dwellings and the tracts of land described in any such instrument, which covenants shall be deemed to run with the land where the housing authority deems it necessary and the parties to such instrument so stipulate. Nothing in this section shall limit any other powers of any housing authority.
