

456.040 Review of petition for interpersonal protective order -- Temporary interpersonal protective order.

- (1) (a) The court shall review a petition for an interpersonal protective order immediately upon its filing. If the review indicates that dating violence and abuse, stalking, or sexual assault exists, the court shall summons the parties to an evidentiary hearing not more than fourteen (14) days in the future. If the review indicates that such a basis does not exist, the court may consider an amended petition or dismiss the petition without prejudice.
- (b) Service of the summons and hearing order under this subsection shall be made upon the adverse party personally and may be made in the manner and by the persons authorized to serve subpoenas under Rule 45.03 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. A summons may be reissued if service has not been made on the adverse party by the fixed court date and time.
- (2) (a) If the review under this section also indicates the presence of an immediate and present danger of dating violence and abuse, sexual assault, or stalking, the court shall, upon proper motion, issue ex parte a temporary interpersonal protective order that:
 1. Authorizes relief appropriate to the situation utilizing the alternatives set out in KRS 456.060;
 2. Expires upon the conclusion of the evidentiary hearing required by this section unless extended or withdrawn by subsequent order of the court; and
 3. Does not order or refer the parties to mediation unless requested by the petitioner, and the court finds that:
 - a. The petitioner's request is voluntary and not the result of coercion; and
 - b. Mediation is a realistic and viable alternative to or adjunct to the issuance of an order sought by the petitioner.
- (b) If an order is not issued under this subsection, the court shall note on the petition, for the record, any action taken or denied and the reason for it.
