

507.060 Vehicular homicide.

- (1) A person is guilty of vehicular homicide when:
 - (a) He or she causes the death of another; and
 - (b) The death results from the person's operation of a motor vehicle, including but not limited to boats and airplanes, under the influence of alcohol, a controlled substance, or other substance which impairs driving ability as described in KRS 189A.010.
- (2) Vehicular homicide is a Class B felony.

Effective: March 27, 2023

History: Created 2023 Ky. Acts ch. 111, sec. 3, effective March 27, 2023.

Legislative Research Commission Note (3/27/2023). 2023 Ky. Acts ch. 111, sec. 4, provides that the Act, which created this statute and amended KRS 189A.103 and 189A.110, may be cited as Lily's Law.