

81A.536 Annexation of territory within a designated county industrial district -- Limitations.

- (1) Notwithstanding any statute to the contrary, and except as set out in subsection (2) of this section, a city shall not annex any territory that is within a designated county industrial district, or territory that is part of a proposed district between the enactment of the initial ordinance but before the enactment of the final ordinance as described in KRS 81A.534(1)(c)1.
- (2) A city may annex territory within a district, subject to all other requirements provided by law, if it enters into an interlocal agreement with the county that specifically allows part or all of the district to be annexed or the county government passes a resolution stating that territory in the district may be annexed.

Effective: July 15, 2024

History: Created 2024 Ky. Acts ch. 158, sec. 9, effective July 15, 2024.