

304.39-130 Basic weekly limit on benefits for certain losses. (Effective July 15, 2026)

Basic reparation benefits payable for work loss, survivor's economic loss, replacement services loss, and survivor's replacement services loss arising from injury to one (1) person and attributable to the calendar week during which the accident causing injury occurs and to each calendar week thereafter may not exceed five hundred dollars ($500), prorated for any lesser period. If the injured person's earnings or work are seasonal or irregular, the weekly limit shall be equitably adjusted or apportioned on an annual basis.

Effective: July 15, 2026

History: Amended 2026 Ky. Acts ch. 149, sec. 2, effective July 15, 2026. -- Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 385, sec. 13, effective July 1, 1975.

Legislative Research Commission Note (7/15/2026). 2026 Ky. Acts ch. 149, sec. 7, provides that the amendments to this statute in that Act apply to basic and added reparation benefits that are issued or renewed on or after July 15, 2026.