Provide funds to the Rural Community Access program to strengthen connections and networks for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) within their own communities and neighborhoods. The Housing project addresses Goal 2 Systems Change: identifying and increasing education and training on access to affordable, accessible, and integrated housing by 2026; and Objective 3 focuses on identifying and expanding education and training on housing access through the analysis and modification of public policies, budget actions, and practices.
102. 2500002275 University of Kentucky Research Foundation 109 Kinkead Hall Lexington, KY 40506	July 01, 2025 - June 30, 2026	Developmental Disabilities Housing Planning	$150,000.00	Federal 100%; Quarterly.	Provide funds to develop resources around housing planning and choice, expanding the housing options for individuals with DD. Identifying these options requires assessing financial resources, accessibility, and usability. Accessibility assessment includes determinations on environmental accessibility of the home, in addition to transportation options, critical services, and community resources. Usability further assesses whether the individual living in the home can effectively use the space as it is intended, including appliances, control of the environment, and other features that contribute to a good life. This project is in accordance with the CCDD Five Year State Plan and PL 106-402 The Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act.

Provide sustainable transportation funds for essential economic growth as it enables the development and maintenance of critical infrastructure, fosters smoother movement of people and goods, and stimulates a wide range of economic activity. The Eastern Transportation Coalition (TETC), at the University of Maryland, is a leader in the exploration of sustainable funding solutions. It has successfully executed multiple phases of federally funded research, including multiple mileage-based user fee pilots. KYTC is partnering with TETC (University of Maryland) and several member states on Phase 5 of TETC's MBUF work. The goal of TETC's Phase 5 MBUF Study is to lower implementation barriers. Kentucky's participation in the TETC Study will provide an exploration of Kentucky's Weight Distance Tax to identify potential improvements, regardless of future plans to consider MBUF, and opportunities to leverage components for a future MBUF program.
