necessary money, in appropriate ratio, from the funds provided for in KRS 21.550 and 21.560.

- (2) (a) A qualified domestic relations order issued by a court or administrative agency shall be honored by the Judicial Form Retirement System if the order is in compliance with the requirements established by the retirement system.

All fees and expenses shall be established by administrative regulations promulgated by the board of trustees of the retirement system. The qualified domestic relations order shall specify whether the fees and expenses provided by this subsection shall be paid:
1. Solely by the participant;
 2. Solely by the alternate payee; or
 3. Equally shared by the participant and alternate payee.
- (c) For purposes of this subsection, a "qualified domestic relations order" shall mean any judgment, decree, or order, including approval of a property settlement agreement, that:

- (4) The Judicial Form Retirement System shall make available on a public Web site, a listing of all system expenditures and a listing of each individual employed by the systems along with the employee's salary or wages. The system may provide the information through a Web site established by the executive or judicial branch to inform the public about executive or judicial branch agency expenditures and public employee salaries and wages. 2. A trustee from serving on the board if the compensation is de minimus and incidental to the trustee's outside employment. If the compensation is more than de minimus, the trustee shall disclose the amount of the compensation to the other trustees and recuse himself or herself from any matters involving hiring or retaining a person or a business from whom more than de minimus amounts are received by the trustee.
