

A JOINT RESOLUTION designating honorary names for various roads and bridges and directing the placement of honorary roadside signs.

WHEREAS, James Martin Simon was born on December 30, 1950, and was raised in the Daviess County community of West Louisville; and

WHEREAS, after graduating from high school, James Martin Simon enlisted in the United States Army, where he served in Vietnam as an infantryman with the Third Infantry Regiment; and

WHEREAS, on February 16, 1971, in the Vietnamese town of Quant Tri, SP4 James Martin Simon was killed in a firefight with the enemy; and

WHEREAS, James Martin Simon was the last man from Daviess County to sacrifice his life during the Vietnam War, a sobering reminder to this day that the cost of freedom is high, and borne on a deeply personal level by the families of those soldiers who give their last full measure of devotion; and

WHEREAS, the surviving family of James Martin Simon, including his brother Billy, who still lives in West Louisville, would be deeply honored by some tangible memorial to the service of James Martin Simon, however insignificant it might be; and

WHEREAS, from time to time, the General Assembly has seen fit to honor various Kentuckians by naming portions of state highways and erecting commemorative roadway signs in their honor; and

WHEREAS, these Kentuckians have come from all walks of life, held a multitude of jobs, and had a variety of accomplishments that made them deserving of the honor; and

WHEREAS, these individuals have included former Governors, former members of the General Assembly, decorated veterans, slain law enforcement officers, local elected officials, astronauts, doctors, educators, distinguished athletes, and civic leaders; and

WHEREAS, every citizen of the Commonwealth owes a great debt of gratitude to the patriotic men and women killed and wounded in service to their country in times of great need; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly has often honored the veterans of this state by naming portions of several roads, from interstates to small two-lane country roads, in their honor; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly again sees fit to honor a group of individuals who have made the lives of their fellow Kentuckians better and brought honor and respect to the Commonwealth;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:
