

AN ACT relating to apprenticeships.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

➔SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 141 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The General Assembly finds and declares that a small business apprenticeship tax credit shall be available to encourage the development of skilled workers through registered apprenticeship training programs in order to counter the current and projected shortage of skilled workers which exists in Kentucky.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Apprentice" has the same meaning as in KRS 343.010;

(b) "Apprenticeship agreement" has the same meaning as in KRS 343.010;

(c) "Apprenticeship program" has the same meaning as in KRS 343.010;

(d) "Full-time employee" means a person employed by a small business for a minimum of thirty-five (35) hours per week; and

(e) "Small business" means any business entity organized for profit, including a sole proprietorship, partnership, limited partnership, corporation, limited liability company, joint venture, association, or cooperative, that has two hundred fifty (250) or fewer full-time employees.

(3) A small business that employs an apprentice, who works in Kentucky and has an approved apprenticeship agreement pursuant to KRS 343.060, shall be allowed a nonrefundable small business apprenticeship tax credit against the tax imposed by KRS 141.020 or 141.040 and 141.0401, with the ordering of credits as provided in Section 2 of this Act.

(4) (a) The small business apprenticeship tax credit shall be an amount up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each apprentice employed, provided that:

1. The small business may claim the credit for no more than four (4) years for each individual apprentice employed;

2. The apprenticeship program sponsored by the small business has completed an apprenticeship program provisional period of one (1) year with the Department of Workplace Standards and has been designated as a permanent program;
 3. The apprenticeship program has a period of duration which is not less than four thousand (4,000) hours, which is two (2) years, and not more than ten thousand (10,000) hours, which is five (5) years;
 4. The apprentice has completed the probationary period established in the apprenticeship agreement and is employed for at least one hundred twenty (120) hours per month; and
 5. The apprentice is not a preapprentice.
- (b) 1. The small business apprenticeship tax credit shall be computed annually on a calendar year basis.
2. If the small business employs an apprentice for less than the full calendar year, the small business may claim the credit on a pro rata monthly basis beginning on the first day of the first full month that the apprentice is employed.
 3. A small business filing on a fiscal year basis shall claim the credit within the fiscal year encompassing the calendar year end.
- (c) If the small business is a pass-through entity not subject to the tax under KRS 141.040, the amount of approved credit shall be applied against the tax imposed by KRS 141.0401 at the entity level, and shall also be distributed to each partner, member, or shareholder based on the partner's, member's, or shareholder's distributive share of the income of the pass-through entity.
- (d) Any amount of credit that a small business is unable to utilize during a taxable year may be carried forward for use in a succeeding taxable year for a period not to exceed four (4) years. Any amount of credit not used within four (4) years shall be lost. No amount of credit may be carried back to a preceding taxable year.

(5) The department shall:

(a) Prescribe a form upon which a small business may claim the tax credit provided in subsection (3) of this section and instructions for filing the form with the small business' tax return; and

(b) Provide the Department of Workplace Standards:

1. Copies of the tax credit form and instructions to inform a small business that desires information about the tax credit; and
2. An annual report detailing the amount of tax credit taken for each calendar year.

➔Section 2. KRS 141.0205 is amended to read as follows:

If a taxpayer is entitled to more than one (1) of the tax credits allowed against the tax imposed by KRS 141.020, 141.040, and 141.0401, the priority of application and use of the credits shall be determined as follows:
