

A RESOLUTION honoring the Grant County High School Marching Band.

WHEREAS, the Grant County High School Marching Band has a proud history of excellence. With two state championships and 14 state finals appearances under their belt, Grant County maintained one of the strongest traditions in this Commonwealth by capturing the Kentucky Music Educators Association Class AAAA state championship on October 31, 2015; and

WHEREAS, the state title, the first for Grant County in 17 years, was a rightful celebration of the hard work and dedication these young men and women put in throughout the season. After finishing in second place five of the last six years, Grant County High School took the championship home by defeating Madisonville-North Hopkins High School. Their 2015 production, entitled "Mad World," featured music from Dmitri Shostakovich, Sergei Prokofiev, Claude Debussy, and Tears for Fears; and

WHEREAS, this honorable body duly commends the Grant County High School Marching Band; the families and support systems of its members; and its directors, Dr. Tim Dailey and Mr. Andrew McGrannahan, who received assistance from Jay Logan, Mackenzie Dailey, Tim Snyder, and Jacob Eckler. The level of talent and hard work on display by this marching band and those who direct them is rightfully acknowledged and celebrated on this day;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

➔Section 1. The members of the House of Representatives hereby honor the Grant County High School Marching Band upon winning the Kentucky Music Educators Association Class AAAA state championship, congratulate directors Tim Dailey and Andrew McGrannahan, and applaud every band member for this profound accomplishment.

➔Section 2. When the House of Representatives adjourns this day, it does so in honor of the Grant County High School Marching Band.

➔Section 3. The Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Representative Brian Linder for delivery.
