(2) A person that has notice of the appointment of a receiver and owes a debt that is receivership property may not satisfy the debt by payment to the owner.

(3) If a creditor has possession, custody, or control of receivership property and the validity, perfection, or priority of the creditor's lien on the property depends on the creditor's possession, custody, or control, the creditor may retain possession, custody, or control until the court orders adequate protection of the creditor's lien.

(4) Unless a bona fide dispute exists about a receiver's right to possession, custody, or control of receivership property, the court may sanction as civil contempt a person's failure to turn the property over when required by this section.

➔SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (b) Sanction the failure as civil contempt.

➔SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section or ordered by the court, an order appointing a receiver operates as a stay, applicable to all persons, of an act, action, or proceeding:

- (a) To obtain possession of, exercise control over, or enforce a judgment against receivership property; and
- (b) To enforce a lien against receivership property to the extent the lien secures a claim against the owner which arose before entry of the order.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the court may enjoin an act, action, or proceeding against or relating to receivership property if the injunction is necessary to protect the property or facilitate administration of the receivership.

(3) A person whose act, action, or proceeding is stayed or enjoined under this section may apply to the court for relief from the stay or injunction for cause.

(4) An order under subsection (1) or (2) of this section does not operate as a stay or injunction of:

- (a) An act, action, or proceeding to foreclose or otherwise enforce a mortgage by the person seeking appointment of the receiver;
- (b) An act, action, or proceeding to perfect, or maintain or continue the perfection of, an interest in receivership property;
- (c) Commencement or continuation of a criminal proceeding;

- (d) Commencement or continuation of an action or proceeding, or enforcement of a judgment other than a money judgment in an action or proceeding, by a governmental unit to enforce its police or regulatory power; or
- (e) Establishment by a governmental unit of a tax liability against the owner or receivership property or an appeal of the liability.
- (5) The court may void an act that violates a stay or injunction under this section.
- (6) If a person knowingly violates a stay or injunction under this section, the court may:
- (a) Award actual damages caused by the violation, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs; and
- (b) Sanction the violation as civil contempt.

➔SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) With court approval, a receiver may engage an attorney, accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, broker, or other professional to assist the receiver in performing a duty or exercising a power of the receiver. The receiver shall disclose to the court:
- (a) The identity and qualifications of the professional;
- (b) The scope and nature of the proposed engagement;
- (c) Any potential conflict of interest; and
- (d) The proposed compensation.
- (2) A person is not disqualified from engagement under this section solely because of the person's engagement by, representation of, or other relationship with the receiver, a creditor, or a party. This chapter does not prevent the receiver from serving in the receivership as an attorney, accountant, auctioneer, or broker when authorized by law.
- (3) A receiver or professional engaged under subsection (1) of this section shall file with the court an itemized statement of the time spent, work performed, and billing rate of each person that performed the work and an itemized list of expenses. The receiver shall pay the amount approved by the court.

➔SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section, "good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(2) With court approval, a receiver may use receivership property other than in the ordinary course of business.

(3) With court approval, a receiver may transfer receivership property other than in the ordinary course of business by sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition. Unless the agreement of sale provides otherwise, a sale under this section is free and clear of a lien of the person that obtained appointment of the receiver, any subordinate lien, and any right of redemption but is subject to a senior lien.

(4) A lien on receivership property which is extinguished by a transfer under subsection (3) of this section attaches to the proceeds of the transfer with the same validity, perfection, and priority the lien had on the property immediately before the transfer, even if the proceeds are not sufficient to satisfy all obligations secured by the lien.

(5) A transfer under subsection (3) of this section may occur by means other than a public auction sale. A creditor holding a valid lien on the property to be transferred may purchase the property and offset against the purchase price part or all of the allowed amount secured by the lien, if the creditor tenders funds sufficient to satisfy in full the reasonable expenses of transfer and the obligation secured by any senior lien extinguished by the transfer.

(6) A reversal or modification of an order approving a transfer under subsection (3) of this section does not affect the validity of the transfer to a person that acquired the property in good faith or revive against the person any lien extinguished by the transfer, whether the person knew before the transfer of the request for reversal or modification, unless the court stayed the order before the transfer.

→SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) In this section, "timeshare interest" means an interest having a duration of more than three years (3) which grants its holder the right to use and occupy an accommodation, facility, or recreational site, whether improved or not, for a specific period less than a full year during any given year.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this section, with court approval, a receiver may adopt or reject an executory contract of the owner relating to receivership property. The court may condition the receiver's adoption and continued performance of the contract on terms appropriate under the circumstances. If the receiver does not request court approval to adopt or reject the contract within a reasonable time after the receiver's appointment, the receiver is deemed to have rejected the contract.
- (3) A receiver's performance of an executory contract before court approval under subsection (2) of this section of its adoption or rejection is not an adoption of the contract and does not preclude the receiver from seeking approval to reject the contract.
- (4) A provision in an executory contract which requires or permits a forfeiture, modification, or termination of the contract because of the appointment of a receiver or the financial condition of the owner does not affect a receiver's power under subsection (2) of this section to adopt the contract.
- (5) A receiver's right to possess or use receivership property pursuant to an executory contract terminates on rejection of the contract under subsection (2) of this section. Rejection is a breach of the contract effective immediately before appointment of the receiver. A claim for damages for rejection of the contract shall be submitted by the later of:

(a) The time set for submitting a claim in the receivership; or

(b) Thirty (30) days after the court approves the rejection.

(6) If at the time a receiver is appointed, the owner has the right to assign an executory contract relating to receivership property, the receiver may assign the contract with court approval.

(7) If a receiver rejects under subsection (2) of this section an executory contract for the sale of receivership property that is real property in possession of the purchaser or a real property timeshare interest, the purchaser may:

(a) Treat the rejection as a termination of the contract, and in that case the purchaser has a lien on the property for the recovery of any part of the purchase price the purchaser paid; or

(b) Retain the purchaser's right to possession under the contract, and in that case the purchaser shall continue to perform all obligations arising under the contract and may offset any damages caused by nonperformance of an obligation of the owner after the date of the rejection, but the purchaser has no right or claim against other receivership property or the receiver on account of the damages.

(8) A receiver may not reject an unexpired lease of real property under which the owner is the landlord if:

(a) The tenant occupies the leased premises as the tenant's primary residence;

(b) The receiver was appointed at the request of a person other than a mortgagee; or

(c) The receiver was appointed at the request of a mortgagee and:

1. The lease is superior to the lien of the mortgage;

2. The tenant has an enforceable agreement with the mortgagee or the holder of a senior lien under which the tenant's occupancy will not be disturbed as long as the tenant performs its obligations under the lease;

3. The mortgagee has consented to the lease, either in a signed record or by its failure timely to object that the lease violated the mortgage; or

4. The terms of the lease were commercially reasonable at the time the lease was agreed to and the tenant did not know or have reason to know that the lease violated the mortgage.

➔SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A receiver is entitled to all defenses and immunities provided by law for an act or omission within the scope of the receiver's appointment.

(2) A receiver may be sued personally for an act or omission in administering receivership property only with approval of the court that appointed the receiver.

➔SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A receiver may file or, if ordered by the court, shall file an interim report that includes:

(1) The activities of the receiver since appointment or a previous report;

(2) Receipts and disbursements, including a payment made or proposed to be made to a professional engaged by the receiver;

(3) Receipts and dispositions of receivership property;

(4) Fees and expenses of the receiver and, if not filed separately, a request for approval of payment of the fees and expenses; and

(5) Any other information required by the court.

➔SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, a receiver shall give notice of appointment of the receiver to creditors of the owner by:

(a) Deposit for delivery through first-class mail or other commercially reasonable delivery method to the last known address of each creditor; and

(b) Publication as directed by the court.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, the notice required by subsection (1) of this section shall specify the date by which each creditor holding a claim against the owner which arose before appointment of the receiver must submit the claim to the receiver. The date specified shall be at least ninety (90) days after the later of notice under subsection (1)(a) of this section or last publication under subsection (1)(b) of this section. The court may extend the period for submitting the claim. Unless the court orders otherwise, a claim that is not submitted timely is not entitled to a distribution from the receivership.

(3) A claim submitted by a creditor under this section shall:

(a) State the name and address of the creditor;

(b) State the amount and basis of the claim;

(c) Identify any property securing the claim;

(d) Be signed by the creditor under penalty of perjury; and

(e) Include a copy of any record on which the claim is based.

(4) An assignment by a creditor of a claim against the owner is effective against the receiver only if the assignee gives timely notice of the assignment to the receiver in a signed record.

(5) At any time before entry of an order approving a receiver's final report, the receiver may file with the court an objection to a claim of a creditor, stating the basis for the objection. The court shall allow or disallow the claim according to law of this state other than this chapter.

(6) If the court concludes that receivership property is likely to be insufficient to satisfy claims of each creditor holding a perfected lien on the property, the court may order that:

- (a) The receiver need not give notice under subsection (1) of this section of the appointment to all creditors of the owner, but only such creditors as the court directs; and
- (b) Unsecured creditors need not submit claims under this section.

(7) Subject to Section 20 of this Act:

- (a) A distribution of receivership property to a creditor holding a perfected lien on the property shall be made in accordance with the creditor's priority under law of this state other than this chapter; and
- (b) A distribution of receivership property to a creditor with an allowed unsecured claim shall be made as the court directs according to law of this state other than this chapter.

➔SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The court may award a receiver from receivership property the reasonable and necessary fees and expenses of performing the duties of the receiver and exercising the powers of the receiver.
- (2) The court may order one (1) or more of the following to pay the reasonable and necessary fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs:
- (a) A person that requested the appointment of the receiver, if the receivership does not produce sufficient funds to pay the fees and expenses; or
- (b) A person whose conduct justified or would have justified the appointment of the receiver under subsection (1)(a) of Section 5 of this Act.

➔SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The court may remove a receiver for cause.

- (2) The court shall replace a receiver that dies, resigns, or is removed.
- (3) If the court finds that a receiver that resigns or is removed, or the representative of a receiver that is deceased, has accounted fully for and turned over to the successor receiver all receivership property and has filed a report of all receipts and disbursements during the service of the replaced receiver, the replaced receiver is discharged.
- (4) The court may discharge a receiver and terminate the court's administration of the receivership property if the court finds that appointment of the receiver was improvident or that the circumstances no longer warrant continuation of the receivership. If the court finds that the appointment was sought wrongfully or in bad faith, the court may assess against the person that sought the appointment:
- (a) The fees and expenses of the receivership, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and
- (b) Actual damages caused by the appointment, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

➔SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) On completion of a receiver's duties, the receiver shall file a final report including:

for creditor claims;

(f) If not filed separately, a request for approval of the payment of fees and expenses of the receiver; and

(g) Any other information required by the court.

(2) If the court approves a final report filed under subsection (1) of this section and the receiver distributes all receivership property, the receiver is discharged.

→SECTION 23. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The court may appoint a receiver appointed in another state, or that person's nominee, as an ancillary receiver with respect to property located in this state or subject to the jurisdiction of the court for which a receiver could be appointed under this chapter, if:

(a) The person or nominee would be eligible to serve as receiver under Section 6 of this Act; and

(b) The appointment furthers the person's possession, custody, control, or disposition of property subject to the receivership in the other state.

(2) The court may issue an order that gives effect to an order entered in another state appointing or directing a receiver.

(3) Unless the court orders otherwise, an ancillary receiver appointed under subsection (1) of this section has the rights, powers, and duties of a receiver appointed under this chapter.

→SECTION 24. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 382A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A request by a mortgagee for appointment of a receiver, the appointment of a receiver, or application by a mortgagee of receivership property or proceeds to the secured obligation does not:
