12 may elect to receive a lump-sum refund of the member's account in lieu of the 13 survivorship benefits payable under this subsection and subsection (1) of this 14 section only if the surviving spouse is designated as the primary beneficiary

24 of his or her rights and the member's children's rights to the survivorship 25 benefits payable under this subsection and subsection (1) of this section. The 26 surviving spouse shall not waive the survivorship benefits available under this 27 subsection or subsections (1) and (6) of this section if any of the member's

1 children have attained age eighteen (18) or older unless all of those children 2 consent in writing on forms prescribed by the retirement system to waive their 3 survivorship benefits available under this subsection;

4 (3) (a) Where the survivor is a child age eighteen (18) or older whose mental or 5 physical condition is sufficient to cause his dependency on the deceased
6 member at the time of the member's death, the benefit shall be two hundred 7 dollars ($200) per month, payable for the life of the child or until the time as 8 the mental or physical condition creating the dependency no longer exists or 9 the child marries. The mental or physical condition of the adult child shall be 10 revealed by a competent examination by a licensed physician and shall be 11 approved by a majority of a medical review committee as defined in KRS
12 161.661(14). Benefits under this subsection shall apply in addition to benefits 13 which may be payable under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

14 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the surviving spouse 15 shall not elect to receive a lump-sum refund of the member's account in lieu of 16 the survivorship benefits payable under this subsection and subsection (1) of 17 this section unless:

- 18 1. The surviving spouse is designated as the primary beneficiary;
- 19 2. The surviving spouse has been appointed by the court as guardian, 20 conservator, or other fiduciary with sufficient general or specific 21 authority to waive the survivorship benefits available under this 22 subsection for any child or children age eighteen (18) or older who have 23 been adjudicated incompetent to make decisions on their own behalf by 24 a court of law; and

26 competent to make decisions on their own behalf as attested to by two 27 (2) physicians' statements consent in writing on forms prescribed by the

1 retirement system to waive their survivorship benefits available under 2 this subsection.

3 (c) If eligible to elect a lump-sum refund of the member's account, the surviving 4 spouse shall sign a waiver on forms prescribed by the retirement system of his 5 or her rights and the member's children's rights to the survivorship benefits 6 payable under this subsection and subsections (1) and (2) of this section;

7 (4) Where the sole eligible survivors are dependent parents aged sixty-five (65) or over,
8 the benefit shall be two hundred dollars ($200) per month for one (1) parent or two 9 hundred ninety dollars ($290) per month for two (2) parents. Dependency of a 10 parent shall be established as of the date of the death of the member;

11 (5) Where the sole eligible survivor is a dependent brother or sister, the benefit shall be 12 one hundred sixty five dollars ($165) per month. In order to qualify the brother or 13 sister must have been a resident of the deceased member's household for at least one 14 (1) full year prior to the member's death or must have been receiving care in a 15 hospital, nursing home, or other institution at the member's expense for same 16 period;

17 (6) The benefit to a child as defined in subsection (2) of this section shall terminate 18 upon the attainment of age eighteen (18) or upon reaching age nineteen (19), if a 19 full-time student in high school, or upon marriage, except that benefits shall 20 continue until the attainment of age twenty-three (23) for an unmarried child who is 21 a full-time student in a recognized educational program beyond the high school
22 level. The benefit to a ~~widow, widower,~~ dependent parent~~,~~ or dependent brother 23 or sister or dependent child age eighteen (18) or older shall terminate upon 24 marriage, or upon termination of the condition creating the dependency;

25 (7) The board of trustees shall be the sole judge of eligibility or dependency of any 26 beneficiary, and may require formal application or information relating to eligibility 27 or dependency, including proof of annual income satisfactory to the board. The

1 board of trustees may subpoena records and individuals whenever it deems this 2 action necessary;

3 (8) No payment of benefits shall be made unless the board of trustees authorizes the 4 payment. The board shall promulgate administrative regulations for the 5 administration of the provisions in this section and in every case the decision of the 6 board of trustees shall be final as to eligibility, dependency, or disability, and the 7 amount of benefits payable;

8 (9) In the event that there are no eligible survivors as defined in subsections (1) to (5) 9 of this section, or in the event that the surviving spouse elects not to receive 10 survivorship benefits on his or her own behalf or on behalf of any of the member's 11 children as permitted under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the board of 12 trustees shall pay to the estate or the designated beneficiaries of the deceased
13 member a refund of his accumulated contributions as provided in KRS 161.470(7).
14 If the benefits paid or payable under subsections (1) to (5) of this section and KRS 15 161.661 shall amount to a sum less than the member's accumulated contributions at 16 the time of death, the board of trustees shall pay to the estate or designated 17 beneficiaries of the deceased member the balance of the accumulated contributions;

18 (10) Any person who is receiving benefits and becomes disqualified from receiving 19 those benefits under this section shall immediately notify the Teachers' Retirement 20 System of this disqualification in writing and shall return all benefits paid after the 21 date of disqualification. Failure to comply with these provisions shall create an 22 indebtedness of that person to the Teachers' Retirement System. Interest at the rate 23 of eight percent (8%) per annum shall be charged if the debt is not repaid within 24 sixty (60) days after the date of disqualification. Failure to repay this debt creates a 25 lien in favor of the Teachers' Retirement System upon all property of the person 26 who improperly receives benefits and does not repay those benefits; and

27 (11) Benefits under subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall apply to a child who is a

1 legally adopted survivor at the time of the death of the member. This provision shall 2 be retroactive to include a child who was born after January 1, 1990, and is a legally 3 adopted survivor of a member whose death occurred prior to July 15, 2008.
