

1 A RESOLUTION honoring Paul Weckman and Emily Wolff, who will be receiving 2 the Covington Award.

3 WHEREAS, on May 18, 2017, Paul Weckman and Emily Wolff will be presented 4 with the Covington Award from the Friends of Covington, a collective whose purpose is 5 to bring together residents, businesses, workers, organizations, and other Covington 6 supporters in an effort to enhance the quality of life in the city through various forms of 7 civic engagement; and

8 WHEREAS, Paul Weckman and Emily Wolff met as students at the University of 9 Kentucky and were married in 2004. They have five children, and have rehabbed more 10 than a dozen properties in the Mainstrasse Village Neighborhood of Covington through 11 their real estate development company, Lucky Twins, LLC; and

12 WHEREAS, Paul Weckman and Emily Wolff are the co-owners of Otto's
13 Restaurant, which opened in 2003, and Frida 602, which opened in 2015. As business 14 owners and community developers who have been involved with such projects as Make 15 Goebel Great, they have tirelessly sought to add to the vitality of their beloved hometown, 16 and have improved both the physical and cultural landscape of Covington; and

17 WHEREAS, it is appropriate that this body honor those Kentuckians who strive not 18 only to better their own station in life, but who, through hours of sacrifice and hard work, 19 make the lives of their fellow citizens better and more fulfilling; and

20 WHEREAS, it is therefore just that Paul Weckman and Emily Wolff be 21 commended on this day for all they have done for the citizens of Covington, Kentucky; 22 for the many projects that have improved the quality of life of so many others; and for 23 being the worthy recipients of the Covington Award from the Friends of Covington;

24 NOW, THEREFORE,

25 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the 26 Commonwealth of Kentucky:

27 ➔Section 1. The members of the House of Representatives hereby congratulate
