7 the applicant's honesty and truthfulness.

14 administrative regulations promulgated by the board in accordance with KRS 15 Chapter 13A.

10 as valid and binding as if actual service had been made upon the applicant in 11 Kentucky. In case any summons, process, or pleadings are served upon the 12 authorized representative of the board, it shall be by duplicate copies, one (1) of 13 which shall be retained in the office of the board, and the other immediately

9 others that comes into the licensee's possession, commingling funds of others with 10 the licensee's own funds, or failing to keep the funds of others in an escrow or 11 trustee account;
- 12 (6) Paying valuable consideration to any person for services performed in violation of 13 this chapter, or procuring, permitting, aiding, or abetting any unlicensed person 14 acting in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter;

25 dealings;

3 licensee for auction;

17 board staff or the board's designee upon request~~[-, subsequent to a request by the~~ 18 ~~board's executive director, a board compliance officer, or board counsel];~~ or
- 19 (16) Failure of a principal auctioneer to provide supervision to his or her apprentice 20 auctioneers to ensure compliance with this chapter.
- 21 ➔Section 4. KRS 330.220 is amended to read as follows:
- 22 (1) If real or personal property is offered in lots or parcels in a sale by auction, each lot 23 or parcel shall be the subject of a separate sale. This subsection shall not preclude 24 real or personal property from being offered for bidding individually or in a 25 combined lot~~[some form or combination]~~.
- 26 (2) Unless otherwise provided in the conditions of sale for auctions regarding horses or 27 any interests therein, a sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so

1 announces by the fall of the hammer, announcing the item sold, and the successful
2 bidder's identification or in other customary manner. If it becomes immediately 3 apparent at the close of the bidding that the auctioneer and a bid assistant or 4 ringman have acknowledged the same bid from different bidders, the auctioneer 5 may continue the bidding between the disputed bidders. When a bid is made while 6 the auctioneer is in the process of completing the sale by auction, the auctioneer 7 may continue the bidding or declare the real or personal property sold under the bid 8 on which the hammer was falling.

9 (3) No auction shall be advertised as "absolute" nor shall any advertising contain the 10 words "absolute auction" or the word "absolute" or words with similar meaning nor 11 shall any licensee offer or sell any real or personal property at absolute auction 12 unless:

13 (a) There are no liens or encumbrances on the real or personal property, except 14 property tax obligations, easements, or restrictions of record, in favor of any 15 person, firm, or corporation other than the seller, or unless each and every 16 holder of each and every lien and encumbrance, by execution of the auction 17 listing contract, or otherwise furnishing to the auctioneer written evidence of a 18 binding commitment therefor, shall have agreed to the unqualified acceptance 19 of the highest bid for the property, without regard to the amount of the highest 20 bid or the identity of the high bidder; or, alternatively, that a financially 21 responsible person, firm, or corporation, by execution of the auction listing 22 contract or by otherwise furnishing to the auctioneer written evidence of a 23 binding commitment therefor, shall have absolutely guaranteed the forthwith 24 and complete discharge and satisfaction of any and all liens and encumbrances 25 immediately after the sale or at the closing, without regard to the amount of 26 the highest bid received, or the identity of the high bidder; and

27 (b) There is the bona fide intention at the time of the advertising and at the time

1 of the auction to transfer ownership of the real or personal property, regardless 2 of the amount of the highest and last bid, to the high bidder, subject to the 3 provisions of subsection (5) of this section, that intent existing without 4 reliance on any agreement that any particular bid or bid level must be made or 5 be reached, below which level the real or personal property would not be 6 transferred to the high bidder; and

7 (c) The auction listing contract contains a binding requirement that the auction be 8 conducted without reserve, and includes an acknowledgment that the seller, or 9 anyone acting upon behalf of the seller, shall not bid at the absolute auction, 10 or otherwise participate in the bidding process.

11 (4) Compliance with subsection (3) of this section shall not prohibit:

12 (a) A secured party or other lienholder who is not the seller from bidding at an 13 absolute auction, providing that such bidding does not constitute, nor is it 14 tantamount to the direct or indirect establishment or agreement to the 15 establishment of a reserve price on the real or personal property by the seller 16 or by the auctioneer, or by anyone aiding or assisting, or acting upon behalf of, 17 the seller or the auctioneer; or

18 (b) Any individual party to the dissolution of any marriage, partnership, trust, 19 limited liability company, or corporation from bidding as an individual entity 20 apart from the selling entity, on real or personal property being sold at auction 21 pursuant to that dissolution; or

22 (c) Any individual party or heir of a deceased person's bona fide estate from 23 bidding as an individual entity, apart from the selling entity, on real or 24 personal property being offered at auction pursuant to that estate settlement; or

25 (d) The inclusion of nonmisleading advertising of certain real or personal 26 property to be sold at "absolute auction" and the nonmisleading advertising of 27 certain real or personal property to be offered at auction with reserve, within

1 the same advertisement, or for sale at the same date and place, providing that 2 advertisement shall make clearly apparent through equal or appropriate 3 emphasis, which real or personal property is being offered by each method.

4 (5) (a) Any auction sale is, without requirement of announcement at any time, 5 presumed to be with reserve unless the real or personal property is in explicit 6 terms offered at absolute auction. An auction without reserve means an 7 absolute auction. An auction with reserve means the real or personal property 8 may be offered subject to the seller's confirmation or subject to a certain 9 reserve price. In an auction with reserve, the auctioneer may withdraw the real 10 or personal property at any time until he or she announces completion of the 11 sale. In an absolute auction, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article, lot, 12 or parcel, that article, lot, or parcel shall not be withdrawn unless no bid is 13 made within a reasonable time.

14 (b) At both reserve auctions and without reserve auctions, the auctioneer may 15 establish reasonable bid increments once an opening bid has been offered.

16 (6) (a) The provisions of this chapter shall not prohibit any licensee from bidding on 17 his or her own behalf at any auction sale, whether absolute or with reserve, if 18 his or her option to do so has been fully disclosed, including disclosure to the 19 seller.

20 (b) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the seller may not bid at 21 an absolute auction, nor may anyone bid upon his or her behalf. No licensee 22 shall knowingly receive a bid by or on behalf of the seller at an absolute 23 auction.

24 (c) Bids may be made by the seller, or upon the seller's behalf, at any auction with 25 reserve, provided that full disclosure has clearly been made that liberty for 26 bidding is retained. No licensee shall knowingly receive a bid in the absence
27 of full disclosure. If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's

1           behalf or the seller makes or procures a bid and notice has not been clearly 2           given that liberty for bidding is reserved, the buyer may avoid the sale or take 3           the real or personal property at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the 4           completion of the sale.

5           (d) There shall be no requirement that the reserve be announced when it is 6           attained.

7           (e) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to alter or diminish the 8           provisions of KRS 330.210.

9       (7) (a) At any absolute auction, any advertisement or representation of a minimum or 10           suggested starting bid is prohibited.

11           (b) At any reserve auction, any advertisement or representation of a minimum or 12           suggested starting bid is prohibited unless:

13               1. The minimum or suggested starting bid advertised or represented is 14               sufficient to satisfy the auction listing contract stated reserve or 15               confirmation amount; and 16               2. The auction listing contract contains a binding acknowledgment by the 17               seller that permission has been granted for disclosure.

18       ➔Section 5. KRS 330.990 is amended to read as follows:

19       (1) Any person engaging in auction activities regulated by this chapter without a license 20           shall be guilty of:

21           (a) For the first offense, a violation with a fine up to two hundred fifty dollars 22           ($250);

23           (b) For the second offense, a Class B misdemeanor with a fine up to two hundred 24           fifty dollars ($250) and up to ninety (90) days imprisonment; and

25           (c) For the third and subsequent offenses, a Class A misdemeanor with a fine up 26           to five hundred dollars ($500) and up to twelve (12) months imprisonment.

27       (2) The board or its authorized representative may apply for injunctive relief to the

1        Franklin Circuit Court ~~[of the county in which the alleged violation occurred]~~ to 2        enjoin any person or entity from committing an act in violation of this chapter. The 3        injunction proceedings shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and 4        other remedies in this chapter. In an action for injunction, the board may demand 5        and recover a civil penalty of fifty dollars ($50) per day for each violation, 6        reasonable attorney's fees, and court costs.
