

1           A RESOLUTION recognizing and honoring the many 4-H members who have 2 traveled to the State Capital from throughout Kentucky to take part in a multitude of 3 civic, public policy, and educational activities as part of Kentucky 4-H: A Capitol
4 Experience.

5           WHEREAS, hundreds of youth in 4-H clubs and the 4-H Youth Development 6 Program are converging on the State Capital to take part in many activities aimed at 7 enhancing their understanding of the legislative process, state government, and the history
8 of this great Commonwealth; and

9           WHEREAS, while in the State Capital, the 4-H members will have the opportunity 10 to see their government in action, visit with legislators, attend committee meetings, and,
11 in turn, help give this General Assembly a greater awareness of the importance of 12 Kentucky's 4-H program; and

13           WHEREAS, the many 4-H clubs and the 4-H Youth Development Program are 14 sponsored by the cooperative extension programs of the University of Kentucky College 15 of Agriculture, Food, and Environment and Kentucky State University; and

16           WHEREAS, 4-H in Kentucky has a long and rich history beginning in the early 17 1900s when farm youth in the state were given the opportunity to try new practices on a 18 small portion of the family farm; and

19           WHEREAS, the 4-H Youth Development Program sponsors 4-H clubs in both rural 20 and urban areas of Kentucky, reaching almost 289,000 young people from ages 5 to 19; 21 and

22           WHEREAS, 4-H offers diverse programs that include leadership, citizenship, 23 agriculture, family and consumer sciences, healthy lifestyles, communications and 24 expressive arts, environment and natural resources, civic engagement, workforce 25 development, science, engineering, technology, and practical life skills; and

26           WHEREAS, all these programs help contribute to the development of well-rounded 27 youth; and

1           WHEREAS, almost 23,000 adult citizens contribute to the success of the 4-H 2 program, volunteering in endeavors aimed at enhancing the skills of these young people;
3 and

4           WHEREAS, the 2017-2018 Kentucky state 4-H officers represent diverse areas of 5 the state: Deborah Myers, State President, Campbell County; Noah Carter, State Vice 6 President, Hart County; Mattea Wyatt, State Secretary, Barren County; and Brandon
7 Darby, State Treasurer, Nelson County;

8           NOW, THEREFORE,

9           Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the 10 Commonwealth of Kentucky:

11           ➔Section 1. The House of Representatives hereby recognizes and commends the 12 hundreds of students taking part in Kentucky 4-H: A Capitol Experience, the Cooperative 13 Extension Service, the University of Kentucky, Kentucky State University, and the 14 volunteer adults who strive to make 4-H a success.

15           ➔Section 2. When the House of Representatives adjourns this day, it does so in 16 recognition of all those involved in Kentucky 4-H: A Capitol Experience.

17           ➔Section 3. The Clerk of the House of Representatives is hereby directed to 18 transmit a copy of this Resolution to Representative Wilson Stone for delivery.
