

1 A RESOLUTION honoring Julia Pile upon receiving the inaugural Beverly Nickell
2 Raimondo Leadership Award.

3 WHEREAS, the Beverly Nickell Raimondo Leadership Award was established in 4 2017 by the Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence and the Raimondo Family in an 5 effort to honor an individual's vision for excellent education and his or her impact on 6 students; and

7 WHEREAS, Beverly Nickell Raimondo conceived and launched the Governor's 8 Commonwealth Institute for Parent Leadership (GCIPL) and the Parents and Teachers 9 Talking Together Program. More than 2,500 parents have completed GCIPL training, and 10 graduates have gone on to positively transform Kentucky's schools and communities; and

11 WHEREAS, Julie Pile, the recipient of the 2017 Beverly Nickell Raimondo Award,
12 is a resident of Florence, Kentucky, and was nominated by Boone County Superintendent 13 Dr. Randy Poe and Northern Kentucky community leader Helen Carroll; and

14 WHEREAS, Julie Pile, who was nominated for this prestigious award for her work 15 leading parent engagement activities for the school district, was lauded at the award 16 ceremony for her "tireless work to include and empower parents as advocates"; and

17 WHEREAS, it is appropriate that this honorable body recognize those educators and 18 volunteers in this Commonwealth who go beyond their station to not only improve the 19 lives of their students, but also collaborate with families to make learning a lifelong 20 process. In so doing, this body honors Julia Pile on this day, thanks her for her service to 21 Boone County students and their parents, and wishes her the best of luck as she continues 22 to serve as a model for all Kentuckians who work in the field of education;

23 NOW, THEREFORE,

24 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of
