

1 A RESOLUTION honoring the University Heights Academy robotics team.

2 WHEREAS, on February 3, 2018, on the campus of Northern Kentucky University, 3 the University Heights robotics team, affectionately known as the BlazerBots, were 4 named Grand Champion at the 2018 Kentucky State FIRST LEGO League (FLL)
5 Championship; and

6 WHEREAS, the BlazerBots competed against 48 schools from across Kentucky, 7 and due to their state title they will be one of just two teams representing the 8 Commonwealth at the 2018 World Festival in Detroit, Michigan, in April; and

9 WHEREAS, FLL is a robotics program for 9- to 14-year-olds that is designed to get 10 children excited about science and technology and to teach them important lessons about 11 life, innovation, and the joy of competition; and

12 WHEREAS, there are over 22,000 teams worldwide that participate in FLL. Each 13 FLL challenge has three parts, the Robot Game, the Project, and FLL Core Values. Teams 14 participate in the challenge by programming an autonomous robot to score points on a 15 themed playing field (Robot Game); developing a solution to a problem they have 16 identified (Project); and along the way they are guided by FLL Core Values, which ensure 17 good sportsmanship; and

18 WHEREAS, this body rightfully honors the University Heights Academy robotics
19 team upon being named Grand Champion at the 2018 Kentucky State FLL
20 Championship; commends the hard work and sacrifice of their coaches, Tracie Atwood 21 and Barbara Kissner; and grants these young men and women very best wishes as they 22 prepare for the World Festival;
