A RESOLUTION adjourning the Senate in honor and loving memory of Lloyd Cress.

WHEREAS, Lloyd Cress, a native of Clay City, Kentucky, was a proud 1959 graduate of the University of Kentucky and a 1962 graduate of the University of Kentucky College of Law; and

WHEREAS, after serving his country as a member of the United States Air Force, Lloyd Cress worked for 55 years as an environmental attorney for the Commonwealth of Kentucky; Ashland Petroleum Company; Greenebaum, Doll, and McDonald; Wyatt, Tarrant, and Combs; and Dinsmore and Shohl; and

WHEREAS, Lloyd Cress served as the Commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Environmental Protection and as the Deputy Secretary of the Energy and Environment Cabinet. For his service he received the Secretary's Award from the Kentucky Energy and Environment Cabinet as well as many other commendations and awards; and

WHEREAS, Lloyd Cress, loving husband, father, and grandfather, departed this earthly life on December 27, 2017, leaving his family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched in solemn mourning; and

WHEREAS, Lloyd Cress was preceded in death by his parents, Omer and Helen Cress; his brother, Don Cress; and his first wife, Joyce Cress. He is survived by his wife, Karen Caldwell; his children, Babs Cress, Rusty Cress (Lavon), and Susan Browning (Mark); six grandchildren; a brother; and a host of other family members, friends, and loved ones who will dearly miss his presence in their lives;

- 22 NOW, THEREFORE,
- Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

25 → Section 1. The members of the Senate hereby express their most profound 26 sympathy upon the passing of Lloyd Cress, and posthumously thank him for his years of 27 service to the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

- Section 2. When the Senate adjourns this day, it does so in honor of Lloyd Cress.
- 3 → Section 3. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this 4 Resolution to Senator Alice Forgy Kerr for delivery to the family.
