6 person with a disability has an ongoing therapeutic relationship with the 7 provider. This definition shall not include a health care provider described 8 in this paragraph whose primary service is to provide documentation to a 9 person requesting a reasonable accommodation in exchange for a fee.

10 (2) A person with a disability may submit a request for a reasonable accommodation to 27 areas of the premises. The person shall not be required to pay a pet fee or deposit or

1 any additional rent to maintain an assistance animal in a dwelling, but shall be 2 responsible for any physical damages to the dwelling if residents who maintain pets
 3 are responsible for physical damages to the dwelling caused by pets. Nothing in this 4 section shall be construed to affect any cause of action against any resident for other 5 damages under the laws of the Commonwealth.

6 (5) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a landlord shall not be liable for 7 injuries by a person's assistance animal permitted on the landlord's property as a

 9 Housing Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. secs. 3601 et seq., the Americans with 10 Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. secs. 12101 et seq., and Section 504 of the 11 Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 29 U.S.C. sec. 701, or any other federal, 12 state, or local law.
