- Department of Kentucky State Police shall, if a doubt exists relating to an alien's eligibility to purchase a firearm, consult with the United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Department of Justice, United States Department of State, or other federal agency to confirm whether the alien is eligible to purchase a firearm in the United States, bring a firearm into the United States, or possess a firearm in the United States under federal law;
- (b) Demonstrates competence with a firearm by successfully completing a firearms safety or training course that meets the training requirements for licensees under KRS 237.110, and receives documentation of the completed course from the trainer leading the course; and
- (c) Presents documentation of having completed the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection to the circuit clerk of his or her county of residence in order that the person's state-issued identity document, as defined in KRS 186.010, reflects eligibility to carry concealed weapons under this section.
- (2) (a) For each student seeking instruction under subsection (1)(b) of this section, the instructor trainer or certified firearms instructor leading the course shall remit twenty-five dollars ($25) per student to the office of the sheriff of the county in which the student resides.
- (b) The circuit clerk may impose a fee under subsection (1)(c) of this section which shall not to exceed sixty dollars ($60). Thirty dollars ($30) of the fee shall be transmitted to the office of the sheriff of the county in which the person resides.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow the carrying or possession of any deadly weapon where it is prohibited by federal law."
