UNOFFICIAL COPY

19 RS BR 1888

1	A RESOLUTION recognizing February 18 to 22, 2019, as FFA Week in Kentucky.
2	WHEREAS, the National FFA Organization (FFA) has grown from its founding by
3	a gathering of 33 young farmers almost 90 years ago to an organization today that makes
4	a positive difference by helping thousands of students develop their potential for 5	agricultural leadership, personal growth, and career success; and
6	WHEREAS, nearly 670,000 students currently belong to 8,630 chapters in all 50
7	states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands; and
8	WHEREAS, FFA has a significant presence in Kentucky schools, with nearly 9	14,000 students belonging to 142 chapters in 116 counties; and
10	WHEREAS, along with the training and education offered in all Kentucky chapters,
11	FFA students in the Commonwealth have opportunities to participate in the state FFA
12	convention in the summer, attend the FFA Leadership Training Center in Hardinsburg,
13	develop workplace skills through involvement in supervised agricultural experience
14	programs, and take part in career development events and leadership development events;
15	and
15 16	and WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to 16	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to
16 17	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal
16 17 18	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and
16 17 18 19	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about
16 17 18 19 20	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about production agriculture, agribusiness, agriscience, and other fields; and
16 17 18 19 20 21	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about production agriculture, agribusiness, agriscience, and other fields; and WHEREAS, many FFA members do not live on working farms, but have an interest
 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about production agriculture, agribusiness, agriscience, and other fields; and WHEREAS, many FFA members do not live on working farms, but have an interest in agriculture-related career pathways such as food science, turf management, and
 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about production agriculture, agribusiness, agriscience, and other fields; and WHEREAS, many FFA members do not live on working farms, but have an interest in agriculture-related career pathways such as food science, turf management, and horticulture; and
 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about production agriculture, agribusiness, agriscience, and other fields; and WHEREAS, many FFA members do not live on working farms, but have an interest in agriculture-related career pathways such as food science, turf management, and horticulture; and WHEREAS, once an all-male organization, FFA membership over the years has
 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 	WHEREAS, the national FFA organization declares that it remains committed to the individual student, providing a path to achievement in premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and WHEREAS, through the FFA, students from diverse backgrounds learn about production agriculture, agribusiness, agriscience, and other fields; and WHEREAS, many FFA members do not live on working farms, but have an interest in agriculture-related career pathways such as food science, turf management, and horticulture; and WHEREAS, once an all-male organization, FFA membership over the years has grown more diverse. Today, young women represent roughly 45 percent of FFA members

Page 1 of 2

UNOFFICIAL COPY

people, helping along the way, future biologists, chemists, veterinarians, engineers, business people, and members of this honorable body; and

WHEREAS, everyone could live by the long-standing FFA motto that gives its members a dozen short, but meaningful words: Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, and Living to Serve;

- 6 NOW, THEREFORE,
- 7 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 8 Kentucky:

9 → Section 1. The Senate does hereby designate the week of February 18 to 22, 10 2019, as FFA Week in Kentucky and congratulates FFA members, student advisers, and 11 parents who take part in this outstanding youth organization.

12 → Section 2. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this 13 Resolution to Senator Paul Hornback for presentation to the Kentucky FFA Organization.

Jacketed