

1 A RESOLUTION adjourning the Senate in honor of the Taylor County High School
2 boys' golf team upon winning the 2018 KHSAA State Golf Championship.

3 WHEREAS, on October 6, 2018, at the Bowling Green Country Club in Bowling 4 Green, Kentucky, the Taylor County Cardinals made their way into the annals of 5 Kentucky high school sports history when they captured their first state golf 6 championship by overcoming a ten stroke deficit to defeat St. Xavier High School; and

7 WHEREAS, the Cardinals came into the final day down by three, sinking to ten 8 strokes down by the end of the front nine on day two. They proceeded to show extreme 9 perseverance and positivity and had an exceptional run on holes 15 to 18 to secure victory 10 over the St. Xavier Tigers by two strokes; and

11 WHEREAS, the Cardinals had an exceptional showing from their entire team, 12 which consisted of Cooper Parks, Taylor Parks, Hayes Mason, and Luke Coyle, but 13 eighth grader Luke Coyle and Senior Cooper Parks were the anchors of their come-from-14 behind success. Luke Coyle ended the tournament in third place individually, and Cooper 15 Parks placed in the top ten; and

16 WHEREAS, the achievements of the Taylor County High School boys' golf team 17 and its coach, Scott Parks, deserve recognition, and the cardinals' perseverance and grit in 18 the face of adversity have earned the team a rightful place at the top of their sport. This 19 body applauds the Taylor County High School boys' golf team today for their hard work 20 on the course and in the classroom, commends them for their extraordinary efforts at the 21 2018 State Championship in Bowling Green, and wishes them the best of luck in all their 22 future endeavors;
