

1 AN ACT relating to the safety of canines and felines.

2 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

3 ➔SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 411 IS CREATED TO 4 READ AS FOLLOWS:

5 (1) A person who enters the passenger compartment of a car or truck for the purpose
6 of removing a dog or cat shall be immune from civil liability for any resulting
7 damage to the passenger car or truck if the person:

8 (a) 1. Makes a reasonable effort to locate the owner or other person
9 responsible for the dog or cat;

10 2. Contacts local law enforcement, the local fire department, local 11 animal control officers, or a 911 emergency telephone service; and

12 3. Has at the time a reasonable and good-faith belief, based on the 13 circumstances including but not limited to the person's sensory
14 perception, that the dog or cat is in immediate danger of death if not
15 removed from the passenger car or truck before emergency responders
16 can arrive;

17 (b) Uses no more force to enter the passenger car or truck and remove the dog
18 or cat than is reasonably necessary under the circumstances; and

19 (c) 1. Remains with the dog or cat in a safe location, out of the elements but 20 reasonably close to the passenger car or truck, until law enforcement,
21 firefighters, animal control officers, or other emergency responders
22 arrive; or

23 2. Reasonably determines that emergency conditions require leaving the 24 scene with the animal, and places written notice on the passenger car
25 or truck containing:

26 a. The person's contact information;

27 b. The reason entry into the passenger car or truck was made;
