

1 A RESOLUTION commemorating Human Trafficking Awareness Day on January 2 11, 2020.

3 WHEREAS, the International Labor Organization estimates that there are more than 4 20 million victims of human trafficking worldwide, with hundreds of thousands of 5 victims living in the United States; and

6 WHEREAS, victims of human trafficking live in fear and are often kept isolated, 7 making them unaware of their rights, powerless to access services, and afraid to ask for 8 help from local law enforcement; and

9 WHEREAS, in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, human trafficking has been 10 addressed by many different agencies and organizations, including the Kentucky 11 Statewide Human Trafficking Taskforce, which was created with the implementation of 12 the Human Trafficking Victims' Rights Act in 2013; and

13 WHEREAS, combating human trafficking requires a collaborative, comprehensive 14 approach across all levels of government, and requires vigilance from the general public; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, to this end, Human Trafficking Awareness Day was designated in 17 2007, and has served as a reminder to all citizens that human trafficking remains a vital 18 issue that deserves every available resource to stop;

19 NOW, THEREFORE,

20 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the 21 Commonwealth of Kentucky:
