

1 A RESOLUTION designating June 27, 2020, as Post-Traumatic Stress Injury
2 Awareness Day and designating June 2020 as Post-Traumatic Stress Injury Month.

3 WHEREAS, all citizens of the United States possess the basic human right to the 4 preservation of personal dignity; and

5 WHEREAS, all citizens of the United States deserve the investment of every 6 possible resource to ensure their lasting physical, mental, and emotional well-being; and

7 WHEREAS, the brave men and women of the United States Armed Forces who 8 proudly serve the United States risk their lives to protect our freedom; and

9 WHEREAS, the diagnosis now known as Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
10 was first defined by the American Psychiatric Association in 1980 to commonly and more 11 accurately understand and treat veterans who had endured severe traumatic combat stress; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, combat stress has historically been viewed as a mental illness caused 14 by a pre-existing flaw of character or ability, and the word "disorder" carries a stigma that 15 perpetuates this misconception; and

16 WHEREAS, post-traumatic stress injury (PTSI) can occur after experiencing a 17 severely traumatic event to include, but not to be exclusive to: sexual assault, child abuse, 18 high-impact collisions and crashes, natural disasters, acts of terrorism, and military 19 combat; and

20 WHEREAS, referring to the complications from post-traumatic stress as a 21 "disorder" perpetuates the stigma of and bias against mental illness, and this stigma can 22 discourage the injured from seeking proper and timely medical treatment; and

23 WHEREAS, making PTSI less stigmatizing and more honorable can favorably 24 influence those affected and encourage them to seek help without fear of retribution or 25 shame; and

26 WHEREAS, proper and timely treatment can diminish suicide rates; and

27 WHEREAS, all citizens suffering from PTSI deserve our compassion and

1 consideration; those who have received these wounds in action against an enemy of the 2 United States further deserve our tribute and acknowledgement;
