

1 A RESOLUTION declaring March 10, 2020, to be Alzheimer's Awareness and 2 Advocacy Day.

3 WHEREAS, every 65 seconds someone in the United States develops Alzheimer's 4 or another dementia; and

5 WHEREAS, 5.8 million Americans are currently living with Alzheimer's and that 6 number is expected to reach to 14 million by the year 2050; and

7 WHEREAS, 73,000 Kentuckians are currently living with Alzheimer's or another 8 form of dementia and that number is projected to grow to more than 86,000 by 2025; and

9 WHEREAS, a quarter of a million family caregivers in Kentucky have provided 10 more than 300 hours of unpaid care, valued at $3.9 million, to loved ones diagnosed with 11 Alzheimer's or another dementia; and

12 WHEREAS, Alzheimer's is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States and 13 is the only one of the top 10 causes of death that cannot be prevented, cured, or slowed; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, one in three seniors dies with Alzheimer's or another dementia, more 16 than breast cancer and prostate cancer, combined; and

17 WHEREAS, in 2019 Alzheimer's and other dementias cost the United States $290 18 billion; and

19 WHEREAS, the costs associated with Alzheimer's in the United States could 20 increase to as much as $1.1 trillion per year by 2050; and

21 WHEREAS, early and accurate diagnosis could save up to $7.9 trillion in medical 22 care and costs; and

23 WHEREAS, as the population of older adults in Kentucky continues to grow, there 24 will be an increased demand for residential, home-based, and community-based services 25 that will in turn mean an increased demand for direct care workers, including home health 26 aides, certified nursing assistants, and personal care aides; and

27 WHEREAS, the United States is experiencing a well-documented health care

1 workforce shortage that could jeopardize care for individuals living with Alzheimer's or 2 other dementias; and

3 NOW, THEREFORE,

4 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 5 Kentucky:

6 ➔Section 1. The members of the Senate hereby recognize March 10, 2020, as 7 Alzheimer's Awareness and Advocacy Day, and heartily welcome those advocates who 8 are visiting the Capitol on this day including Mr. Steve Schwalbach, who just completed
9 a 50 mile run from Louisville to Frankfort in honor and loving memory of his mother, 10 Jackie.

11 ➔Section 2. When the Senate adjourns this day, it does so in recognition of 12 Alzheimer's Awareness and Advocacy Day.
