- (13) "Respondent" means a person who was a criminal defendant found incompetent to stand trial who is or was the subject of a petition for involuntary commitment filed under KRS Chapter 504;
- (14) "Review hearing" means any hearing conducted to determine if a respondent continues to meet the criteria for involuntary commitment after the initial order for involuntary commitment has been issued under this chapter; and
- (15) "Secretary" means the secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services.

➔SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) When a defendant who is charged with a qualifying offense has been found, after a hearing under KRS Chapter 504, to be incompetent to stand trial with no substantial probability that the defendant will attain competency within three hundred sixty (360) days, the Commonwealth's attorney's office serving the county of criminal prosecution shall immediately petition the Circuit Court that found the defendant incompetent to stand trial or, if the finding was by a District Court, the Circuit Court in the county of the criminal prosecution, for an involuntary commitment proceeding, to include an evidentiary hearing and a commitment hearing, if applicable, under this chapter.
- (2) Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall assign a guardian ad litem to represent the needs and best interest of the respondent. The guardian ad litem shall be a full and active participant in all proceedings other than the evidentiary hearing under Section 8 of this Act and shall independently investigate, assess, and advocate for the defendant's best interest. The guardian ad litem is not a replacement for the defense attorney. If the defendant has retained or been appointed a defense attorney in the criminal case, that attorney may continue to represent the defendant in proceedings under this chapter. If, at any time during the pendency of proceedings under this chapter, the defendant is not represented by an attorney, the court shall appoint counsel for the defendant, without a showing of indigency, to be provided by the Department of Public Advocacy or its designee.

(3) The Circuit Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all proceedings under this chapter.

➔SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An adversarial evidentiary hearing on the record shall be held within twenty (20) days, excluding weekends and holidays, of the filing of a petition pursuant to Section 7 of this Act. Appropriate notice shall be served on all parties. The court shall order the Commonwealth to provide all available discovery to the respondent no later than seven (7) days, excluding weekends and holidays, before the hearing. No evidence may be presented at the hearing that has not been disclosed through discovery.

(2) The respondent may stipulate to potential guilt and waive the hearing. A stipulation of potential guilt cannot be used against the respondent in any future criminal prosecution or civil litigation.

(3) The purpose of the evidentiary hearing shall be to determine whether sufficient evidence exists to support a finding that the respondent is guilty of the charged crime against him or her. The Commonwealth's attorney's office serving the county of criminal prosecution shall have the burden of proving the sufficiency of the evidence by a preponderance of the evidence.

(4) The evidentiary hearing shall be held before a judge without a jury. The rules of evidence shall apply. The respondent shall be permitted to present evidence and cross examine witnesses. The respondent may present evidence of affirmative defenses that could be raised at a criminal trial on the charged crime. The Commonwealth shall not have the burden of disproving an affirmative defense. The respondent must prove an affirmative defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

(5) (a) If the court determines that sufficient evidence has been presented to support a finding that the respondent is guilty of the charged crime against him or her, the court shall immediately schedule a commitment hearing under this chapter within twenty (20) days, excluding weekends and holidays.

(b) The court shall cause the respondent to be examined without unnecessary delay by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, at least one (1) of whom is a physician. The qualified mental health professionals shall, within seven (7) days, excluding weekends and holidays, prior to the hearing, certify to the court their findings as to whether the respondent meets the criteria for involuntarily commitment under Section 10 of this Act.

(6) If the court determines that insufficient evidence has been presented to support a finding that the respondent is guilty of the charged crime against him or her, the court shall order the immediate release of the respondent.

(7) No evidence or statement submitted by the respondent at the evidentiary hearing shall be admissible in any criminal prosecution or civil litigation.

➔SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A commitment hearing shall be held within twenty (20) days, excluding weekends and holidays, after the court finds that the evidence presented in an evidentiary hearing pursuant to Section 8 of this Act supports a finding that the respondent is guilty of the charged crime against him or her by a preponderance of the evidence.

Unofficial Document

- (2) The commitment hearing may be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental or physical health of the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, at a forensic psychiatric facility, or other suitable place.
- (3) The Commonwealth's attorney's office serving the county of criminal prosecution which led to the finding that the respondent was incompetent to stand trial shall present evidence regarding whether the respondent meets the criteria for involuntary commitment under Section 10 of this Act. The respondent and the respondent's guardian ad litem shall be afforded an opportunity to testify, to present evidence, and to cross-examine any witnesses.
- (4) The manner of proceeding and the rules of evidence shall be the same as those in any criminal proceeding. The standard of proof shall be proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Proceedings shall be heard by the judge unless a party or the guardian ad litem requests a jury.
- (5) The respondent's right to the commitment hearing shall not be waived.

➔SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) No respondent shall be involuntarily committed under this chapter unless there is a determination that:
- (a) The respondent presents a danger to self or others as a result of his or her mental condition;
- (b) The respondent needs care, training, or treatment in order to mitigate or prevent substantial physical harm to self or others;
- (c) The respondent has a demonstrated history of criminal behavior that has endangered or caused injury to others or has a substantial history of involuntary

Unofficial Document

hospitalizations under KRS Chapters 202A or 202B prior to the commission of the charged crime; and

(d) A less restrictive alternative mode of treatment would endanger the safety of the respondent or others.

(2) When a respondent is involuntarily committed under this chapter, the cabinet shall place that respondent in a forensic psychiatric facility designated by the secretary.

→SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) (a) A review hearing to determine if a respondent involuntarily committed under this chapter should remain in a forensic psychiatric facility shall be conducted by the court that issued the initial order according to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) If at any point during the respondent's placement at a forensic psychiatric facility it appears that the respondent no longer meets the criteria for involuntary commitment under Section 10 of this Act because there has been a material change in circumstances or there is new evidence to present, the respondent or the respondent's guardian ad litem may request a review hearing pursuant to this section.

(2) The schedule for review hearings shall be as follows:

(a) From the initial order of commitment, a standard review hearing shall be conducted not sooner than ninety (90) days and not later than one hundred twenty (120) days;

(b) For the first two (2) years after the initial order of commitment, standard review hearings shall be conducted not less than one hundred eighty (180) days and not more than two hundred ten (210) days from the most recent review;

Unofficial Document

- (c) Beginning two (2) years after the initial order of commitment, a standard review hearing shall be conducted not more than three hundred sixty-five (365) days from the most recent review hearing; and
- (d) A heightened review hearing shall be conducted not more than five (5) years from the initial order of commitment and, thereafter, not more than five (5) years from the most recent heightened review hearing.
- (3) Prior to each standard review hearing, the court shall cause the respondent to be examined without unnecessary delay by two (2) qualified mental health professionals, at least one (1) of whom is a physician. The qualified mental health professionals shall, within seven (7) days prior to the hearing, excluding weekends and holidays, certify to the court their findings as to whether the respondent meets the criteria for involuntarily commitment under Section 10 of this Act.
- (4) A standard review hearing may be conducted in an informal manner, consistent with orderly procedures, and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental or physical health of the respondent. The hearing may be held by the court in chambers, or remotely from a forensic psychiatric facility, or other suitable place. The respondent shall be present in person or remotely for all review hearings, unless presence is waived by the respondent through counsel.
- (5) The Commonwealth's attorney's office serving the county of criminal prosecution which led to finding that the respondent was incompetent to stand trial shall present evidence regarding whether the respondent remains incompetent to stand trial and continues to meet the criteria for involuntary commitment under Section 10 of this Act. The respondent and the respondent's guardian ad litem shall be afforded an opportunity to present evidence, and to cross-examine any witnesses.
- (6) The manner of proceeding and the rules of evidence shall be the same as those in any criminal proceeding. The standard of proof shall be proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Proceedings shall be heard by a judge without a jury, except that a respondent shall be entitled to a jury upon request if the respondent has not had a review hearing with a jury during the preceding twelve (12) months.

(7) The respondent's right to this hearing shall not be waived.

(8) At the conclusion of a standard review hearing, the court shall make written findings of fact concerning whether the criteria for involuntary commitment under Section 10 of this Act continue to be satisfied based upon proof beyond a reasonable doubt. If the court finds that the criteria continue to be satisfied, the court shall enter an order authorizing the continued care and treatment of the respondent at the forensic psychiatric facility. Otherwise, the court shall enter an order requiring the respondent to be discharged.

(9) During a heightened review hearing, the procedures of a standard review hearing shall apply. Additionally, the qualified mental health professionals who evaluated the respondent in preparation for the hearing shall be required to give live testimony and answer questions before the court. The respondent shall be physically present in the courtroom for the hearing. If the respondent is unable to attend for any reason, the hearing shall be rescheduled to a time, place, and manner in which the respondent is able to attend.

→SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In a hearing under Sections 8, 9, and 11 of this Act, the court may exclude all persons not necessary for the conduct of the hearing.

→SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Unofficial Document

A qualified mental health professional retained by the respondent shall be permitted to witness and participate in any examination of the respondent under this chapter.

→SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In proceedings under this chapter, there shall be no privilege as to any relevant communications between qualified mental health professionals. Qualified mental health professionals may disclose communications relating to diagnosis and treatment of the patient's mental condition.

→SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The court records of a respondent made in all proceedings under this chapter are hereby declared to be confidential and shall not be open to the general public for inspection.

(2) Any person seeking information contained in the court files or the court records of proceedings involving respondents under this chapter may file a written motion in the case setting out why the information is needed. A Circuit Judge may issue an order to disclose the information sought if he or she finds that the order is appropriate under the circumstances and if he or she finds it is in the best interest of the respondent or of the public to have such information disclosed.

→SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

At any time, and without notice, a respondent detained at a forensic psychiatric facility, or a relative, friend, guardian, representative, or attorney on behalf of such person, may petition for a writ of habeas corpus to question the cause and legality of the detention and request that the court issue a writ for release.

→SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO

Unofficial Document

READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The court which orders any respondent transferred to a forensic psychiatric facility under subsection (3) of Section 5 or Section 10 of this Act, shall at once notify the receiving hospital or psychiatric facility that such order has been made, advising of the sex and condition of the respondent and any other pertinent information.
- (2) After the forensic psychiatric facility has been so notified, the court shall order the sheriff of the county or other peace officer to transport the respondent within forty-eight (48) hours, excluding weekends and holidays, from the county in which the respondent is located to the forensic psychiatric facility designated by the cabinet. The sheriff or other peace officer may, upon agreement of a person authorized by the peace officer, authorize the cabinet, a private agency on contract with the cabinet, or an ambulance service designated by the cabinet to transport the respondent to the forensic psychiatric facility.
- (3) Any respondent released from a forensic psychiatric facility under Sections 8 or 11 of this Act shall be transported to the respondent's county of discharge by a sheriff or other peace officer, by an ambulance service designated by the cabinet, or by other appropriate means of transportation which is consistent with the treatment plan of that respondent. The cost of transporting the respondent to the respondent's county of discharge when performed by a peace officer, ambulance service, or other private agency on contract with the cabinet shall be paid by the cabinet in accordance with an administrative regulation issued by the cabinet pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A.

READ AS FOLLOWS:

Forensic psychiatric facilities ordered to receive an involuntarily committed respondent shall have standing to petition the Circuit Court for any necessary clarification or modification of orders or judgments entered in proceedings under this chapter and to appeal from final judgments or orders entered in proceedings which have not complied with the provisions of this chapter. A copy shall be sent to the involuntarily committed respondent, the respondent's guardian ad litem, and the respondent's attorney of record, of whatever pleadings are filed by the hospital.

➔SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A respondent involuntarily committed under this chapter shall have the following rights as a patient:

- (1) The right to be adequately informed as to his or her individual treatment program;
- (2) The right to assist in the planning of his or her treatment program;
- (3) The right to refuse treatment subject to the provisions of Section 20 of this Act;
- (4) The right to maintain, keep, and use personal possessions and money;
- (5) The right to receive visitors;
- (6) The right to receive payment for work performed on behalf of the forensic psychiatric facility;
- (7) The right to refuse intrusive treatment subject to the provisions of Section 20 of this Act;
- (8) The right to be free from unreasonable use of seclusion and restraint;
- (9) The right to seek relief from participating in his or her treatment plan; and
- (10) The right to the assistance of counsel to uphold these rights and all rights under this chapter.

➔SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) Every forensic psychiatric facility caring for respondents involuntarily committed under this chapter shall have a review committee of three (3) qualified mental health professionals appointed by the facility director. This review committee shall have the authority to review the appropriateness of a respondent's individual treatment plan.

(2) Upon the refusal of a respondent to participate in any or all aspects of his or her treatment plan, the review committee shall examine the appropriateness of the respondent's individual treatment plan. Within three (3) days of the refusal, the review committee shall meet with the respondent and his or her counsel, guardian ad litem, or other representative to discuss its recommendations.

(3) If the respondent still refuses to participate in any or all aspects of his or her individual treatment plan, the forensic psychiatric facility may petition the Circuit Court for a de novo determination of the appropriateness of the proposed treatment. Within seven (7) days, excluding weekends and holidays, the court shall conduct a hearing, consistent with the respondent's rights to due process of law, and shall utilize the following factors in reaching its determination:

(a) Whether the treatment is necessary to protect the respondent or others from harm;

(b) Whether the respondent is incapable of giving informed consent to the proposed treatment;

(c) Whether any less restrictive alternative mode of treatment exists; and

(d) Whether the proposed treatment carries any risk of permanent side effects.

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing, the court shall enter an appropriate judgment.

➔SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

This chapter shall not apply to persons under eighteen (18) years of age unless specifically authorized by the Kentucky Unified Juvenile Code.

➔SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 202C IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

This cabinet shall promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A in order to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

➔Section 23. KRS 31.110 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) A needy person who is being detained by a law enforcement officer, on suspicion of having committed, or who is under formal charge of having committed, or is being detained under a conviction of, a serious crime, or who is accused of having committed a public or status offense or who has been committed to the Department of Juvenile Justice or Cabinet for Health and Family Services for having committed a public or status offense as those are defined by KRS 610.010(1), 610.010(2)(a), (b), (c), or 630.020(2) is entitled:
 - (a) To be represented by an attorney to the same extent as a person having his or her own counsel is so entitled; and
 - (b) Except as provided in subsection (2)(c) of this section, to be provided with the necessary services and facilities of representation, including investigation and other preparation. The courts in which the defendant is tried shall waive all costs.
- (2) A needy person who is entitled to be represented by an attorney under subsection (1) of this section is entitled:
 - (a) To be counseled and defended at all stages of the matter beginning with the earliest time when a person providing his or her own counsel would be entitled to be represented by an attorney and including revocation of probation or parole;
 - (b) To be represented in any appeal; and
 - (c) To be represented in any other post-conviction, or, if a minor under the age of eighteen (18), post-disposition proceeding, including any appeal from a post-conviction or post-disposition action. However, if the department and the court of competent jurisdiction determines that it is not a proceeding that a reasonable person with adequate means would be willing to bring at his or her own expense, there shall be no further right to be represented by counsel under the provisions of this chapter. In cases involving a minor under the age of eighteen (18), prior to making a determination on whether or not a post-disposition action is a proceeding that a reasonable person with adequate means would be willing to bring at his or her own expense, an attorney with the department shall be granted access to the court file of the minor:

1. Without the requirement of a formal court order in which the attorney has provided a release signed by the minor or the minor's legal guardian authorizing the use of the records; and
 2. Notwithstanding any other statute prohibiting the disclosure of a juvenile court file.
- (3) A needy person's right to a benefit under subsection (1) or (2) of this section is not affected by his or her having provided a similar benefit at his or her own expense, or by he or she having waived it, at an earlier stage.
- (4) A person, whether a needy person or not, who is a minor under the age of eighteen (18) and who is in the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice and is residing in a residential treatment center or detention center is entitled to be represented on a legal claim related to his or her confinement involving violations of federal or state statutory rights or constitutional rights. Prior to representation, an attorney with the department shall be granted access to the court file of the minor and residential treatment center or detention center records pertaining to the juvenile:
- (a) Without entering an appearance as an attorney of record; and
 - (b) Notwithstanding any other statute prohibiting the disclosure of a juvenile's record, including KRS 15A.0651, 610.320, 610.340, or 610.345.

(5) A person, whether a needy person or not, who is subject to a proceeding under Sections 6 to 22 of this Act and is unrepresented at any time shall be entitled to the same rights of representation as a needy person under subsection (1) of this section.

➔Section 24. Whereas protecting the safety of the people of Kentucky is an immediate and compelling need, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law."
